—— At Henniker, appropriate religious services were held at the house of Deac. George Conner, Sabbath evening, May 28, commemorative of his marriage to Hannah Campbell, which event occurred 70 years ago. This couple are now in the ninety-second and eighty-eigth years of their ages. Their mental faculties are vigorous, and the aged patriarch yet labors on his farm. Their descendants have been seventy-five in all, fifty-three of whom survive. Two of their grandchildren have fallen on the battlefield, whose photographs hung upon the wall of the room, having for a background the national banner, with the motto, "Our Sacrifice for Liberty." By request, the 121st Psalm was read, and the 88th and 80th Hymns, 1st Book, and the 100th page, 2d part, were sung by the choir, accompanied by the bass viol, played by Deac. Conger. At the close of the service, the Deacon made an exhortation, and "When I can read my title clear" was sung by their aged friends, and their children and grandchildren who were present.

—— The American Telegraph Company commenced on Wednesday of last week to construct a line from Meredith Village to North Conway, the same to be in running order by the first of July. Offices are to opened to Centre Harbor, Tamworth, Conway and North Conway.

—— The Lebanon Free Press says that Mr. Loren Smith, of Littleton, while plowing his garden recently, turned up forty or fifty dollars in gold and silver—well executed counterfeits. The same money was found in a cellar about ten years ago, but was missing when looked for a second time, and had not been heard of until now.

—— Ex-Gov. Steele is quite ill, at his residence in Peterboro'.

—— Wool was recently sold at a factory in Enfield for 65 cents, for which, last winter, $1 was refused.

—— Wm. Whitney, of Tuftonborough, 24 years of age, came to his death in a sad manner on Monday, 22d ult. He had been subject to fits, but was able to labor. Monday morning he went to drive the cows to pasture, and not returning, search was made, and he was found dead. It appeared that he had fallen in a fit face downward, into a pool of muddy water.

—— The 54th anniversary of the N. H. Bible Society was held at Concord, June 2. The Society has received in donations about $2,234 more the present than than the year previous, and the whole amount received in the State for the Bible cause during the year, by donations, legacies, and sale of books, was nearly $3000—a larger sum, by $2000, than in any one before. 6000 volumes have been issued from the State Depository, of which 2,356 were given to soldiers.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents	"	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Gov. Smyth's Address.

Gentlemen of the Senate,
and of the House of Representatives:

As we assemble for the discharge of the public duties imposed upon us, we should be false to our obligations as members of a christian community did we fail to recognize the goodness of that Providence which has blessed our country and state during the past year. How crowded, how varied, how wonderful has been its historic record! Triumph, treading on the heels of triumph, in quick succession, until the rebel capital falls and rebellious armies surrender; the cup of joy, embittered by the brutal assassination of our great and good president; the capture of the arch traitor and conspirator, now waiting his trial at the hands of justice; all these are events to which we are yet too near to rightly estimate their magnitude and influence. We cannot fail, however, to see that the same beneficent Power which gave us ABRAHAM LINCOLN, has raised up out of the crucible of fiery trial a successor fitted for the period and its requirements.

Thus confident and thus grateful, we shall come to the performance of our duties with a courage justified by the past, and a zeal not unworthy of the objects we have in view for the future. The soldier has done his work, the statesman has now his to do. The fighting has ceased, and the time for paying has come. Let us apply ourselves at once earnestly to the work before us. In the effort of the loyal states to sustain the power of the national government, New Hampshire has been obliged to pledge the public honor, and use the credit of the state to a very large extent.

FINANCE.

I am unable to state from personal knowledge the financial condition of the state, but from information received from the auditor and treasurer, it appears to be nearly as follows:

Funded debts and trust funds,	$1,623,873.44
Notes due the current year,	2,355,000.00
Total debt represented by loan,	3,978,873.44
Interest due the current year,	258,000.00
Total debt, as represented by loans with current interest,	4,236,873.44
Outstanding obligations estimated by the auditor,	706.000.00
He estimates the demands upon the treasury the current year, including floating debt, interest, outstanding claims and expenditures,	$3,575,050.00
Deduct estimated receipts,	932,100 00
Leaves to be provided for the current year,	$2,642,950.00

This amount may be increased to the extent of whatever claims may be allowed by the legislature, not included in the estimate of the auditor. It may also be diminished by whatever may be received from the general government upon the balance of our claim against it, with reference to which the auditor says:

"How the government will look upon this balance, and whether it will be approved and allowed, remain as yet open questions, and I have therefore deemed it unadvisable to take this claim into consideration in making my estimate."

I would respectfully call your particular attention to the details of the able report of the auditor, and the important suggestions therein.

How to provide for this large current indebtedness is a question requiring your immediate and careful consideration. I learn that the executive department has only been able to dispose of four hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars of the three and a-half millions of the six per cent. bonds authorized by the last legislature, hence the larger part of our state debt remains unfunded. The difficulty of negotiating these securities is not likely to be diminished at present; I therefore recommend that authority be given to issue six per cent. semi-annual interest bonds, principal and interest payable in gold, in denominations of fifty, one hundred, five hundred, and one thousand dollars, on from five to twenty years time, as may be thought expedient. While these bonds will command a more ready sale than those payable in currency, there is every reason to expect that the currency of the country will be equivalent to gold long before they mature. Should the present price of gold continue for some time to come, the premium will not increase the rate of interest in currency, above what the state is now paying on most of its floating debt; but the probabilities are all in favor of a lower and constantly receding rate.

I would also recommend that authority be granted to issue 7 3-10 per cent. semi-annual interest currency bonds, on from three to five years, of similar denominations. The advantages to be derived from a variety of securities, at the discretionary disposal of the proper authorities, will suggest themselves to you.

In entering the money market it must be borne in mind that we do so not alone in competition with the general government, but with other states, cities and towns, and that however good our credit, the exigencies of others, and the large amount of similar securities offered, will affect the marketable value of our obligations. It is impossible to fix for them an arbitrary value under the present peculiar circumstances of the money market. In order to retain the credit to which our state is justly entitled, and which should be fully equal to that of any of the New England states, I respectfully submit that our aim should be to legislate so as to prevent any increase of our indebtedness beyond present obligations, which the happy termination of the war renders feasible; and to raise by taxation an amount sufficient to defray current expenses, including interest on the indebtedness. We must now observe the most rigid economy in expenditure, and bring the expenses to a peace basis as soon as possible. Our people are naturally economical, not prone to indebtedness, and instinctively hold sacred all pecuniary obligations. Aside from our war debt, we owe no other. It has never been the habit of our state to lend its credit, and we have no obligations of this character, either present or remote, to provide for. The recent financial transactions of the state having been of such unusual magnitude, the most scrupulous care and greatest discrimination will be required in properly adjusting the various and large outstanding claims. You will see the propriety on this occasion of my repeating the request of my predecessor at the commencement of his administration:

"I wish to urge upon the legislature the importance of knowing exactly the condition of our state in a financial point of view, at the commencement of the political year, that the administration which has the power to-day may be held responsible for its own acts, and nothing more."

ASSUMPTION OF WAR DEBTS BY THE GOVERNMENT.

The great debt growing out of the war, presses with severity on all the loyal states, cities and towns. I look for the assumption of this indebtedness by the general government at the earliest practicable day. These obligations now rest on a portion of the union only, while the confederate debt is blotted out by the triumph of our arms. Strict justice would require that the rebellious states, the cause of all this expenditure, should be made to pay it. But as this is impracticable, we should insist upon their paying at least a portion of it. There is no apparent reason why New Hampshire should come out of this war impoverished by her loyalty, and Georgia, escape payment for her treason. The war debt of the loyal states was incurred, equally with that of the nation, for national purposes; and they have cheerfully assumed and voluntarily borne its burdens, under many disadvantages. The general government, to preserve its own life, has been obliged to take virtual possession of the money market, by exempting its securities from state and municipal taxation, and by increasing the ordinary rates of interest. This has borne heavily upon the visible property, and depressed the securities of the states. Whatever means shall be devised by which a share at least of this burden shall be discharged by those parties to the rebellion, to whom it rightfully belongs, will meet with the cordial approval of the people. When congress manifests a disposition to move in this matter, the claims of our cities and towns should be adjusted and considered. Any state action prior to this can afford no relief to them. Should the state now assume the town debts, it must levy a tax directly upon the towns to pay them, as its present credit is already quite as large as we shall be able to fund or manage, so as to preserve its credit. It would seem, therefore, to be the part of sound financial wisdom to wait the action of congress, and in the mean time to take such legislative action as may be deemed advisable in order to bring the subject properly before that body.

INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES.

Our unusual manufacturing facilities have long been known to some of the wisest capitalists of the country. The occupation of the great water powers of Manchester, Nashua and Dover are but examples of what may be done at some future day in many places within our borders. I consider it the part of wisdom to encourage the occupation and improvement of these natural resources of New Hampshire, by a liberal legislative policy, and by offering every fair inducement for the investment of capital in manufacturing industry.—This will add to the wealth of the state, to the value of all our present institutions, and enterprises; and it will stimulate that occupation in which New Hampshire, small and rugged as she is, holds a fair rank among the other states.

In some branches of agriculture we have already reached a comparative degree of excellence. In wheat growing our average yield per acre is 12 1-2 bushels, and is larger than that of Maine, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, and West Virginia.—In corn crops our average yield per acre is 29 1-2 bushels, and is larger than that of Maine, New York, Maryland, Delaware, Kentucky, Michigan, Indiana, Missouri, Kansas or Nebraska. In potatoes our average yield is 164 bushels per acre, and is larger than that of any other state this side the Rocky Mountains. In rye crops our average yield per acre is 14 1-2 bushels, and is larger than that of Maine, New Jersey, Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota or West Virginia. In the hay crop the average yield is one ton to the acre, being larger than that of Maine and equal to each of the other New England states. Of beef and mutton we produce all that is required for home consumption, with a surplus for other markets.

These facts, derived from recent statistical returns of the National Agricultural Department, indicate the relative progress we have already made in this branch of industry. The importance of local markets must be apparent, and they can best be increased by encouraging the growth of manufacturing towns and villages.

The heavy growth of timber, in the northern part of the state, must be a source of revenue to the owners for many years to come. Our minerals are attracting more and more attention. The variety of ores existing in our hills is not surpassed by that of any Atlantic state, embracing iron, zinc, copper, lead, silver and tin. It is quite probable that the most if not all these ores may at no distant day be mined at a large profit. The slate quarries of Littleton, apparently inexhaustible, and the rich lime beds in that vicinity, suitable for mechanical and agricultural purposes, only call for enterprise to develop sources of wealth and employment. I cannot refrain from expressing the hope that the latent wealth of the state will receive all that attention which a due regard to our prosperity demands.

RIVER FISHERIES.

A copy of the Resolves of the Legislature of Massachusetts, concerning the obstructions to the passage of fish in the Connecticut and Merrimack rivers, will be submitted to you. These resolves provide for the appointment of Commissioners, a part of whose duty shall be to ascertain whether the states of New Hampshire and Vermont "possess the right to maintain, or cause to be maintained, suitable fishways for the passage of fish up said rivers to their sources, or to any and what extent." The value of the fisheries on our rivers I do not purpose here to discuss. But I regret to say that the action of the Massachusetts legislature falls far short of what we had a right to expect. Aside from the importance of fish-ways, to give a free passage to fish through artificial dams to the waters of this state, and the obligation of Massachusetts to construct them, has been acknowledged and recognized by that state in her acts incorporating the Essex & Lowell manufacturing companies. The dams of these companies have been so constructed, however, as to render the passage of fish an impossibility. The rights and interests of New Hampshire in this one important resource, were ably and fully represented before a committee of the Massachusetts legislature the present year by Judge Bellows. This committee in their report say:

"The resolutions of the state of New Hampshire invoked the action of Massachusetts upon the ground of state comity and the obligations of international law. The legislation of Massachusetts creating the water power at Lowell and Lawrence made special provision for the maintenance and protection of the fishing rights of the citizens of New Hampshire, in the Merrimack river. But while the state has been mindful of its duty in this respect, it must be conceded that an injury, to some extent, has been inflicted upon the rights of New Hampshire by the mistaken determination of the Essex company in prescribing the fishways at Lawrence; and the obligations of international law, as well as a proper regard for the rights of others, call upon this state to rectify the error committed by its agents, if it can be done without sacrificing the greater interests which are depending upon the use of the water for manufacturing purposes."

In regard to injurious substances thrown into the water, they say that they "do not regard it as having much weight against the proposed measure." They also say that "the restoration of fish to the Merrimack and Connecticut rivers, notwithstanding the existing obstructions, is practicable at a comparatively small expence." Notwithstanding the decided conclusions of this committee of the rights of New Hampshire and the practicability of fishways, it will be seen by the aforesaid resolves that commissioners have been appointed, not to cause the proper fishways to be constructed, but to ascertain certain rights and facts before conceded, and meanwhile actually "suspending the obligations of the Essex company to rebuild a fishway in their dam until 1866."

I would recommend that such action be taken in the premises as may seem expedient and just, by appointment of commissioners or otherwise. It is well known that in many parts of Europe, where fish had been prevented from ascending rivers, they have been entirely restored by constructing proper ladders, and are now as numerous as they were hundreds of years ago, before any obstructions existed. Prof. Agassiz and other scientific men express the decided opinion that the fish can be entirely restored to our waters at a very small expense. I trust that those interested, will avail themselves of the knowledge which science and experience afford, and give our people the full benefit of the restored fisheries.

I would also invite your attention to the expediency of making some provision for the preservation of the fish in our lakes and other waters during the spawning season; and also to the subject of stocking those waters with other varieties.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

The condition of agriculture in our state demands careful consideration. According to the census of 1860 there were 35,892 farmers, and 10,152 farm laborers, in an aggregate population of 326,073, which is by far the largest number of persons engaged in any one occupation among us. Including families in this estimate, it will readily be seen that every step taken to improve this branch of industry affects nearly our entire population.

The agriculture of New Hampshire has not reached anything like perfection. Discussion is still going on as to the best breeds of cattle, sheep and horses. The general principles of feeding with economy and profit are not yet laid down; the crops best adapted to various soils, locations and purposes, are not fixed beyond doubt. A large proportion of the soil of our state is yet unappropriated to any profitable purposes, and many farms now yielding no profit, might by proper methods of cultivation be made to return a rich reward. Immense reservoirs of fertilizing material remain hidden and undisturbed in bogs and ravines, scattered over the state, while many of our farmers are purchasing at great cost, from South America, a material no better. The saving and preparing of fertilizers in the most economical manner, is most sadly neglected. Although we have many properous farmers, the secret of their success has not yet been imparted to the general community.

Whatever system of agricultural education be adopted, it should be with special reference to the collection and diffusion of practical agricultural information. I would by no means ignore the benefit derived from profound investigation into the depths of all knowledge. For such purposes we are not unprovided with excellent schools, many of them having more than a local or state reputation, while the distinguished sons of our college, from every state and land, prove by the tenor of their lives and the lustre of their deeds, the sterling virtues of the honored mother that nurtured them.

In addition to these it is now proposed to found an AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE to meet and supply the needs of the agricultural class. A bill reported in June, 1864, providing for the organization of such a college, was referred to this session of the legislature, and a call issued in which an invitation was extended to "All such persons institutions of learning, towns and cities, as feel an interest in the establishment of a college for the purpose of promoting the cause of education, especially in the department of agriculture, and the mechanic arts in our state, and are desirous of adding liberally by donation, to make and forward their offers and propositions to B. Gannett, Jr. Clerk of the House, that the same may be laid before the next legislature, for their action thereon."

Whether the college shall be established on an independent foundation, or attached to some already existing institution, it is to be hoped that its especial object will not be lost sight of.

As a receptacle of the practical knowledge already possessed by us, it may be made very useful. We have numerous agricultural societies, exerting great influence in advancing the material interests of the state, encouraging the best modes of farming, and constantly collecting valuable facts drawn from experience, the best foundation of all agricultural knowledge. If the trustees of the proposed college should be constituted a board of agriculture, exercising some supervision over these societies, collecting from their records whatever may be valuable, and distributing it among the people, the institution would perform at once a most useful service. In no way is the general agricultural mind aroused so thoroughly to action as by oral instruction. I trust, therefore, that the delivery of lectures throughout the state upon topics relating directly to the business of agriculture, will be made a part of the duty of the teachers and students of the college. Such lectures might be made to awaken attention to horticulture and kindred pursuits, which lend such grace and beauty alike to city and rural life. Thus the sons and daughters of the farmer may find at home those attractions which they are too often and unfortunately obliged to seek abroad, and they will grow up with love, instead of distaste for the farm. The remembrance of the cottage vines, the garden fruits and flowers, the trees that adorn the paternal acres, give freshness to the mind, and form the strongest ties that bind us to the influence of home.

An experimental farm and manual labor should undoubtedly form a part of the organization and discipline of the institution. To succeed at all it must command the confidence of the farmers; its modes and requirements must be adapted to their needs and circumstances, and it must be prepared to deal with things as they are, before expecting great success in making them as they ought to be. Many farmers who cannot spare their sons two or three years, should not be deprived of the benefit of a single term if they desire it, while the objection to a class of professional farmers, one or two of whom in a town, would waste all their strength in combating the prejudices of their less fortunate neighbors, would be obviated by the more general diffusion of agricultural knowledge.

Give a full course to those who desire, or can afford it, but welcome at all proper times those whose terms must be brief. Guided by such general principles, I am confident that good wishes and constant patronage would gather around the institution. There are indications already of the generosity of those who understand the value of a well educated and enlightened agricultural community. I understand that the generous and munificent proposition of Hon. DAVID CULVER, to aid in the establishment of the proposed institution, is still continued subject to your action.

BANKS.

From the report of the bank commissioners it will appear that the amount of deposits in savings banks in this state is $7,831,835,72, being an increase of $167,577.28 over the previous year. When it is remembered how liberally our people have invested their surplus funds in government securities, this increase of deposits affords very gratifying evidence of the prosperity, as well as the frugality of our people, under the relaxing influence of an exhaustive war. The banks of discount are fast surrendering their state charters, and passing into national associations.

At the last June session of the legislature the laws applicable to state banks were applied to national banking associations. I understand that the national banks have declined to make the required returns on the ground that this enactment is in conflict with the national currency act. Should this be found to be the case, I trust you will so modify it as to conform to the law of congress. Some difficulty seems also to exist in relation to the taxation of the stock of national banks, as the national act provides that the stock shall be taxed where the bank is located, and not elsewhere. Congress, I think, would seem to require that this tax should be distributed among the towns and cities where the stock is owned, and not all appropriated by the particular locality where the bank happens to have its place of business. Besides, it may not be consistent with our laws, as they now stand, to tax a stockholder for his bank stock in any place other than that of his residence. I invite your attention to this subject, and recommend such legislation as shall remove this difficulty, in order that this species of property may not escape its just share of local taxation, as congress evidently did not intend it should.

SCHOOLS.

The rapid conversion of our state banks into national banking institutions, will soon withdraw from the schools the literary fund, which has heretofore contributed so largely to their support. I trust that this deficiency will not be allowed to diminish the usefulness of that system so justly the pride of our people. However desirable it may be to bring our expenditures within the limits of a wise economy, we cannot afford to retrench here. The fulness of time can only measure what we owe to our liberal system of education. The free school is the only safe basis for a free, enlightened and prosperous state. I doubt not this subject will receive due attention at your hands, and if any legislation shall be deemed necessary, to maintain or increase the excellence of the common schools, the cordial co-operation of the executive will not be found wanting.

THE ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE

is quietly performing a great work of beneficence, in its extensive ministrations to the relief of an unfortunate class of our citizens. The generous appropriations of the state for its erection and enlargement, have been productive of vast good, and it stands to-day one of the most satisfactory evidences of the general beneficence of the people, and a blessing and honor to the state.

From a recent inspection of its various departments I feel confident that its patients of all classes, are skilfully and tenderly cared for, and its financial interest wisely administered. It is highly creditable to the able superintendent, that notwithstanding the greatly enhanced prices of provisions and labor, during the last four years, he has furnished the patients all the attention and comforts they have enjoyed in more favored times, without any serious increase of the price of board, or the incurring of any indebtedness. It is gratifying to know that the permanent funds of the asylum, bequeathed to it from time to time, are regarded by its judicious managers as a sacred trust, and carefully invested, the income only being expended. The farm has now become to the institution an important source of revenue, and I was pleased to notice similar care in the protection and application of fertilizing material, observed upon the best cultivated estates of England and the continent of Europe. The same practice upon our farms would in a few years double the crops of the state. In 1855 a wing was erected upon the North side of the asylum for the special accommodation of the violent insane. The present crowded condition of the female apartments, as well as a more perfect classification of patients, forcibly suggests the erection as soon as the financial condition of the state will justify it, of another of similar character for females.

HOUSE OF REFORMATION.

This institution is still in its infancy, yet it has not only met the sanguine expectations of its friends, but has silenced the clamor and criticism of its enemies, and has uniformly been the experience of similar institutions in all parts of the world. The object designed to be accomplished by its establishment, the reformation of our unfortunate and wayward youth, commends itself to a humane and christian people; and so well is it doing its allotted work, that no institution of our state is more firmly established in popular favor, or takes a deeper hold upon the sympathies and regards of the people.

The annual increase of the products of the farm, under the judicious management of the superintendent, is large, and the land is rapidly improving in productiveness and value. I am sure you will readily grant the small appropriation asked for by the trustees.

STATE PRISON.

The condition of the state prison appears to be all that could be expected. During the past year the institution has not proved self-supporting as in former years. This is explained by the reduction of the numbers of inmates, which lessens its productive capacity, and the increased expense of living; while a very large portion of the convicts are still employed under a contract executed prior to the advance in the prices of labor.

The general appearance of the convicts, and the condition of the institution, reflect credit on its managers. Improvements have recently been made in the buildings and yard, which add much to the comfort and convenience of the prisoners, and greatly facilitate the business operations of the prison.

MILITIA.

The report of the adjutant-general will give you the proper information regarding the military department of the state. However much we may all rejoice at the return of peace, the lessons of the past have been too costly not to warn us that to be prepared for war may save us from it. It will therefore be wise to make good use of the military spirit which our returning soldiers may carry to their respective towns. It is not at present desirable to increase the state expenditures in this direction, nor am I prepared to recommend any amendment to our present military system; but discretionary power given to the towns to provide uniforms for volunteer military companies that are now, or may be, organized in their midst, would have a beneficial effect. The world affords no better material than we shall soon have for the formation of a volunteer militia. Let us see to it that this valuable experience be not lost to the state and country by the neglect to give efficiency and moral force to the militia laws.

OUR SOLDIERS.

The condition of our national affairs, so full of heroic accomplishment and of hope, must remind us of the obligations we are under to pay all honor to those sons of New Hampshire who have won for her on the battlefield a share of the renown of the American people. Since the war commenced we have furnished 34,427 troops for the national cause. Of these, 11,089 have been disabled, and 5,518 have fallen in the conflict, and have left names for our perpetual remembrance, and their example for our most faithful imitation.

Our state will never be unmindful of the heroic deeds of her sons in the great struggle for national life. They sprang to arms at the first call, and no considerable battle has been fought in which they have not participated. During the early days of the rebellion, they were at times cast down by temporay defeat, but in every instance, only to rally with renewed vigor. Our record shows that in nearly all the now historic engagements of the war, and finally at the last grand charge, which broke the embattled hosts of rebellion, New Hampshire, through her heroic sons, bore honorably her part. It will not be easy for us to pay our debt of gratitude to these brave men. We are indebted to their fearless devotion for the elevation of our national government to its position of power and dignity. Has our land been purified and redeemed? It is by their blood. Are the hopes of humanity raised to a long-wished-for point of consummation? It is by their self sacrifice. Is there now a glorious opportunity for America to advance in all those things which make a people great? This opportunity has been gained by the unyielding determination of our soldiers to defend the flag against every foe, and their readiness to recognize the force of every high principle advanced during the conflict. Let it not be said of us who enter into the fruits of their labors that we have neglected to record the memory of our fallen heroes on monuments worthy of their deeds and fame. I desire to call your attention to the case of those soldiers permanently disabled in the service of their country. The scanty provisions of the general government will in many cases prove entirely inadequate for their support or that of their families, and the assistance of the towns and cities in which they reside, will necessarily be invoked.

I recommend that in all cases where soldiers or their families are assisted in this manner, that the laws be so amended that none of the disabilities that attach to paupers shall apply to them. I wish also earnestly to recommend that all persons in places of influence, all who have honorable employment to offer, should discriminate, when possible, in favor of the returned soldier.

Encourage those who are disabled, in any industry of which they may be capable. Let the soldier see that while we revere the name and fame of the dead, we do not forget the best and highest welfare of the living. So shall we, and those who come after us, be worthy of the blessings which have been poured out upon us by Him who has guided our counsels and led our armies in this great war.

The ample accommodations of the U. S. Hospital in our state being now but partially occupied, there seems to be no necessity for any considerable expense in providing for our sick and wounded soldiers at distant localities; and the preference of the soldiers would undoubtedly be gratified by an early removal to the vicinity of their friends. The happy close of the war, and the discharge of so many of the disabled, has greatly reduced the number to be thus cared for.

REGIMENTAL FLAGS.

A number of our regiments have returned their original battle-flags to the state, and others will soon do so. I would suggest that these proud but sad memorials of our recent terrible conflict be conspicuously displayed in the halls of your deliberations, that by them we may be constantly reminded not only of the fortitude and devotion of those who bore them upon the march and in the hour of battle, but also of our own obligation to sacredly preserve the fruits of their sacrifices.

GETTYSBURG CEMETERY.

The report of Hon. Ira Perley, commissioner from this state upon the national soldiers' cemetery at Gettysburg, will inform you of the progress of this patriotic enterprize; which commends itself to the favor and the warmest sympathy of all loyal people. It will be seen that as yet the bodies of only forty-nine New-Hampshire soldiers have been recognized, and of these the names of only twenty-seven are known. This can be but a small part of our heroes who sleep upon that consecrated field. You will judge when the subject comes before you whether any further effort is feasible to rescue from oblivion the the names of those as yet unrecognized, whose memory is a part of our common glory, and will be cherished as long as our race endures.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Among the most important questions to be submitted to your action is that of the Constitutional Amendment, forever prohibiting slavery. Controlling or influencing much of the general legislation of the country, for the larger part of our national existence, its arrogance finally plunged us into the war which proved its own ruin. It remains for us to declare by this amendment that it shall not be re-established when state governments heretofore in rebellion resume their action. To do this in a peaceful and legitimate manner requires the vote of three-fourths of the states. Twenty-two states have already so declared. May we not hope that New Hampshire will be so far true to the needs of the country, the voice of the times, and the sentiment of the civilized world, as to give the unanimous vote of her legislature?

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Called to a position allied to the federal authority by a common interest, I should hardly discharge my full duty, did I fail on this occasion to allude to the condition of the union, now again, thanks be to Almighty God, one and indivisible. From the outbreak of the rebellion New Hampshire has stood firmly by the flag, and knowing what we do to-day of the purpose and aim of the great conspiracy and of the infamous means which accomplished its inception and urged on its progress, can any one regret that the state was so far true to her honored name and her noble memories, as to offer, without stint, of her men and money, for the re-establishment of the national authority. As the war in contact progressed, we were naturally drawn closer and closer to the support of the central power, and as we suffered with every shock that threatened its existence, so we rejoiced and took courage as victory after victory perched upon our banners, and felt renewed strength as the rightful authority of the government was resumed over its usurped territory. The country, and the whole country, will henceforth be worth to New Hampshire a sum measured only by the blood she has offered in the common cause, and we shall all prize with greater value, and watch with more untiring care, rights purchased at so great a sacrifice.

I congratulate you, fellow citizens, on the success which has attended the effort to restore the union, and to establish it on foundations of truth and justice. Our armies have not only carried with them a restored authority, but they have opened the way for a higher and nobler civilization without which there can be no free government, and with which rebellion is impossible. For myself I shall feel that the great purpose of this war is not attained, the great lesson of this punishment not learned, until free schools, free churches, and a free ballot, are established wherever the federal authority extends. This we owe to the peace and permanent security of all the states; this alone will be a commensurate reward for the unparalleled heroism of the brave soldiers who have borne us through the contest. On such a consummation only can we expect the continued favor of heaven, and the blessing of the God of our fathers. Let the awful scenes through which we have passed teach us our duty. The blood of the sons of New Hampshire, mingled with that of others from every loyal state, calls to us from a hundred battle fields to stand true to the great cause, through all the exultations of victory and amidst the signs of accomplished peace.

The spirit of the last great martyr for universal emancipation, lifted above the pettiness and weaknesses of this life, bids us be true to the cause.—In our sorrow even let us take courage and make the brutal assassination of our noble president—that most wicked fruit of a barbarous system—confirm us in the resolution to make universal freedom a reality, to provide for universal suffrage, under such safeguards as wise legislation may provide. All must agree that the states which led on in rebellion should not hereafter be controlled by rebels and traitors, and as we do not propose to admit again into the union the cause of all this evil, so let us extend to the loyal citizen of whatever color, those rights justly earned by patience, devotion, and firm unwavering faithfulness to the common cause.

The weakness, dependence and ignorance of the race whose broken shackles have paved our way to victory, are so many potent reasons why its condition should no longer be left uncertain or insecure. This question of negro suffrage is one of those defences behind which the spirit of slavery will yet intrench itself, and by which it will seek to regain some fragment of the power it has justly lost. If we would have an enduring and prosperous peace we shall level every obstruction, concede nothing to the prejudices of slavery, and give the freedman the right to assert that manhood peacefully at the ballot-box, which he has so nobly proved on the battle field. Let no fear or apparent difficulties in the way deter us. There is no danger so great to a nation as the existence of a flagrant injustice in its midst, sanctioned and protected by its authority. Let us, therefore, be just, and hope for continued favor from the source of all prosperity.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT in the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Saves (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by
E. A. STEVENS.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish family for years.
FREEZING DO'NT HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit. Has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, any place to the mines, or far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MERSON AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good two-year ink; it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I have write one quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. Remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Ill., Jan. 30, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not come up what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen your Ink to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and find it a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is in most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Ricord's, Leonard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 1865.

FATAL RIOT IN WASHINGTON.—Since the advent of Sherman's army around Washington, there have been many assaults made (as the Advertiser's correspondent informs us) by drunken soldiers upon unoffending negroes, and in a number of cases the negroes have been seriously injured, and it has been found necessary to call out the Provost Guard to put down the disturbances. The most serious of these affrays occurred Saturday and in the very heart of the city. Some two hundred soldiers of the Twentieth Corps were engaged in it. They made an assault upon the negroes with clubs, stones, axes and revolvers, and for half an hour a scene of destruction was witnessed. Houses were broken open, furniture smashed, women and children knocked down, and men badly beaten and robbed. The negroes at first fled in dismay, but finally rallied, and there was then a good deal of firing on both sides. The riot was not put down until a company of soldiers arrived. One respected citizen who interfered to keep the peace was set upon by the soldiers engaged in the mob, and so badly injured that it is feared he cannot live. It is impossible to tell the whole number of persons injured, but it is said that one of the soldiers had his bowels ripped open and that two or three others were shot. It is also reported that seven or eight colored people, who were attacked in their houses, were very badly hurt.

The Herald's correspondent of Sunday says there was no renewal that day of the riot. Attempts were made Saturday night to fire several houses occupied by negroes, and a strong guard has been posted in that section of the city all Sunday. Two persons have died from wounds received on Saturday.

☞ At the Conspirators trial, in Washington, on Saturday.—

Henry G. Edson testified that Mr. White was employed as counsel in Canada for the government in the St. Albans case; that Geo. N. Sanders, who was then acting for the defence, said he (Sanders) was ignorant of the raid, but fully approved it and said it would be followed up by burning more towns and the depletion of more banks, and that organizations were ready to burn Buffalo and other places.

Lieut. John L. Ripple, of the 30th Illinois regiment, says while he was in prison at Andersonville, Ga., he heard the rebel Quartermaster Hahn state if Abraham Lincoln was re-elected, he would not live to be inaugurated; that they had a party at the North who would attend to the President and Mr. Seward.

The papers are speculating on the chances of the several prisoners, for acquittal or commission—but their guesses are not worth copying. It is said Mrs. Surratt no longer retains the collected air which she studiously kept up during the first part of the trial, but seems to have completely broken down.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Boston Transcript has been permitted to publish the following passages from a private letter by a gentleman in South Carolina, whose opportunities of observation there have been peculiar:—

The war is not ended, as many fondly imagine. It only changes its form. The customs of society, the schools, the press, and the pulpits, the true accompaniments and essentials of true freedom, now prefer their claims,—claims as unwelcome to nine-tenths of the Southerners as the Union without negro slavery. The return of the rebel soldiers to their homes has greatly embittered and emboldened the citizens, who, under the pressure of the war, had become somewhat softened. The soldiers have, of necessity, laid down their arms, but only, apparently, to fall back on prejudice and hatred.

The interior of South Carolina is as impenetrable to the friends of schools and the freedmen as ever, if not more so. Men in Charleston, professing Christianity and Unionism, declare to me solemnly, that they "regard putting arms into the hands of negroes as a sin in the eyes of both God and man." The same class of men declare they "will have their own preachers instead of Northern ones." Prominent men of all classes say, "we accept the Union only on condition the negro is left out." Even Gov. Aiken said to me, "I cannot believe the negro emancipation will be anything but a failure. The whites of the South cannot live with them if free." By-the-by, I have in my possession some account books of a blockade-running company, wherein the name of "William Aiken" appears as a stockholder, and I cannot learn that any such man lived in Charleston, except the Governor. Some prominent men, from whom you would expect better things, roundly assert that "there will be a Confederacy yet."

Now, if these things be done in "the green-tree," what may be expected in "the dry?" The disbandment of the national army delights the rebels. Only this week one of the largest landholders in the South told me that the planters of the interior would dictate terms to the negroes; and if they set up claims to freedom, they would be driven away. The vast interior will long be governed by the slave oligarchy, unless an armed force precede the friends of the freedmen, the planters of schools, churches, and the press.

This is all very natural, says Uncle Toby; and if the poor conceited fools feel and act in the style above indicated, a military governor of the Butler pattern will be a military necessity. If they really desire more bruising, they can have it.

LETTER FROM GEN. SHERMAN.—The following letter was received from Gen. Sherman, by the promoters of the great meeting in New York, on Wednesday evening, to "express approval of the measures of the Government in the enforcement of the national authority," &c. After specifying the reasons for his absence, he says, concerning the object of the meeting:

"I beg to assure you of my hearty co-operation in the objects of the meeting. I know that now the Government of the United States possess organized power amply sufficient to vindicate its honor, to destroy hostile organizations at home or abroad, and to punish crime wherever it occurs I hope that power will be exercised at all times, openly and without hesitation, not only to punish the criminal, but to make his fate the example for future times. I know that our Government has only to make the law and thousands of brave men stand ready to execute it without fear, favor or affection.' At the same time we should aim to escape the reaction toward the opposite extreme, so common to violent revolutions; and, if successful in this, we can point to it in after years with pride and satisfaction. So majestic an example will add a new sanction to the noble hospitality of our Government which has, in the past and present, invited the worthy and industrious of all lands to come and share with us our surplus lands and common history.

GEN. ORD'S COURT-MARTIAL.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser makes the following statements:

Mention was made some months ago in this correspondence of the action of General Ord in respect to Captain C. B. Wilder, of Boston, who had been for a long time in charge of freedmen and their interests at Fortress Monroe and in its vicinity. Charges were preferred against Capt. Wilder, in which he was accused of malfeasance in office, speculating in government property, and breach of trust. Gen. Ord preferred the charges, selected the members of the court martial board, and was himself the principal witness.

The frivolous character of the charges was so apparent on the slightest investigation, that the judge-advocate abandoned all but that of speculating, in regard to which it was proven that Capt. Wilder had simply, as any other person might have done, bought real estate offered for sale by the civil authorities for non-payment of taxes. The court martial resulted in his acquittal on each of the charges and specifications, and he has been ordered to report to the Q. M. General for duty. Gen. Howard is so well pleased with the system he inaugurated at Old Point Comfort, that he has asked for his assignment to Fredericksburg.

OATHS.—It is stated that the number of oaths taken by those who desire to purge themselves of treason, filed at the Department, (taken under Mr. Lincoln's proclamation of Dec. 8th, 1863,) is but little short of 10,000. The number is now rapidly increasing under the late proclamation of President Johnson. When oaths are received at the department, the names, dates, residences and numbers are all registered in alphabetical order. The oath is then neatly filed in a numerical order and can be referred to in a moment, even if the number should amount to hundreds of thousands. People taking the oath will therefore remember that the Government keeps an evidence of their renewed faith. Those who have broken the oath will also remember it.

☞ From Richmond we have reports that the rebel Mayor Mayo has been reinstated, and has reappointed his old rebel policemen, who maltreat and oppress the freedmen in every possible way. An appeal from the negroes is published, describing their bad usage, and praying the U. S. for protection. It will doubtless be granted.

— A Washington dispatch says proof has been discovered that the calamitous explosion of the ordnance boat at City Point last summer, by which some seventy or eighty lives were lost and a large amount of property destroyed, was the work of rebel agents, and was paid for with rebel gold furnished from the rebel State Department.

— A Washington dispatch says the President will soon issue a proclamation putting an end to the purchase by the Government Agents of the products of the insurrectionary States, thus removing the 25 per cent. tax, and leaving the products to be taxed only under the general laws, as in other States.

— Maj. Gen. Palmer has left for Kentucky. It is understood his powers have been so enlarged that he will be able to force a compliance, on the part of slaveholders in his department, in the emancipation policy of the government.

— Dispatches received at the State Department announce that the Government of the Netherlands has rescinded the recognition of belligerent rights to the rebels. This is in response to the appeal of this government to all maritime powers. This breaks the combination of European powers acknowledging rebel belligerent rights.

— No trouble is apprehended with Cuba, respecting the rebel ram Stonewall. The Spanish Government is on the best terms with our own.

— Northern enterprise and capital are kept out of Richmond by the high price of rents and land. The prices charged for storehouses are so exorbitant that it is proposed to remove all the wholesale business to City Point.

THE MOBILE EXPLOSION.—New Orleans advices of the 6th state that an important clue to the cause of the late disastrous explosion at Mobile is thought to have been obtained. A man named Wall has been arrested at Mobile, who states that he and two other men on the night previous to the explosion placed torpedoes between the buildings containing powder; that the work was performed under the direction of a rebel major, who threatened them with instant death if they disobeyed,—and that the major afterwards lighted the fuse of the shell connected with the arrangement. Torpedoes have been discovered in rooms in the Custom House, so arranged as to explode on opening the doors. Others have been found concealed in desks of the same building.

Morgan, the rebel who shot Gen. Canby last year, has been arrested.

GEORGIA.—Gen. Molineaux has ordered all the school teachers at Augusta to take the oath of allegiance. Orders have been sent by the authorities of Augusta for a supply of school books, and free schools are to be immediately opened for all classes.

Steamer Gov. Troup, from Augusta for Savannah, with a cargo of 200 bales cotton, took fire and was burned to the water's edge. The cargo and baggage were lost, and 40 out of 200 passengers were lost by burning or drowning, mostly negroes.

ALABAMA.—The N. Y. Times' Mobile correspondent represents a bad condition in Alabama. There is social demoralization. Labor is so despised by the whites that they prefer starvation or begging to work, and even in their penury and wretchedness show the vindictive spirit of disaffection. Military protection is necessary against the destruction of the whole population by anarchy.

MEXICO.—Official news from Acapulco, dated May 9th, embrace the following intelligence, which was suppressed in the dispatches sent through French sources from Havana:

Gen. Regules, with a part of the National army of Mexico, attacked the city of Tacambaro, in the State of Michoacan, April 11, and took it by storm, capturing all the garrison, including 200 Belgians, with ammunition, artillery, &c. A few days before the National forces captured a train with supplies and ammunition sent from Morelia to Pascuxco, and defeated the French forces at Bernandio, Cristo and Zinapearo, all in the State of Michoacan.

Quite an excitement exists in San Francisco, in favor of the Mexican Republic and the Monroe doctrine. Gen. Wright, acting for Maj. Gen. McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, lately wrote a letter, which is published, in answer to inquiries as to what arms or organizations can be permitted to leave for Mexico, in which he expresses sympathy for the Republic of Mexico, but says for the present no organization will be allowed to go; nor neither will armed men be permitted to leave our shores for any foreign port.

THE REBEL PIRATE SHENANDOAH.—The following extract from a private letter from Adelaide, Australia, dated March 24, gives some information respecting the movements of the rebel pirate Shenandoah:

"The movements of the Shenandoah are a mystery, and she has not been seen for some days, though the Florida saw a steamer answering her description to the Eastward of Bass's Straits,—whilst, on the other hand, some think she has made for Cape Leevin. The U. S. steamer Iroquois is on the look out for her, being on the way from Galle to King George's Sound. The Buna Vista, from Alberni, V. L., being informed in Bass's Straits of the Shenandoah being there, ran back to Sydney, where she is waiting orders from her Adelaide charterers."

COTTON.—The New Orleans correspondent of the Herald states that it is estimated that the total amount of cotton secreted east of the Mississippi river will reach one million bales. There are are seventy thousand bales in Arkansas, and three hundred thousand in Texas. Gen. Sheridan has issued orders forbidding military interference with the shipment of cotton.

GOLD, Monday, 138 1-2 to 139 1-2.

— It is said Breckinridge has arrived at Cuba.

— The new constitution of Missouri is supposed to be rejected by the popular vote.

— By way of Havana, we learn that the Order to evacuate San Domingo has been received from Old Spain.

— A terrible explosion occurred in Chattanooga on the 9th. Loss in the quartermaster's department, $250,000.

HAYTI.—The rebellion in Hayti is not yet suppressed—but Pres. Geffrard's forces are still contending against the revolutionists. The result is doubtful.

— The number of letters now received at the dead-letter office, sent there under the new law, which makes prepayment compulsory, amounts to more than 15,000 per week.

— Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, the poetess, sometimes called the "Hemans of America," died at her residence in Hartford, Conn., on Saturday, in the 74th year of her age. Her published works, in all, number nearly fifty volumes.—So says an item; but where are the fifty volumes?

☞ The Bonaparte quarrel is characterized by the New York Times as "an imperial way of throwing dust in the public's eyes." It further declares that "this business of keeping up the appearance of a democratic and conservative antagonism in the family, is as old as the first Empire," and that if "there is any political meaning in this Imperial rumpus, it is that the Emperor has thoughts of backing out of Mexico, and ordered the cousin to break the ice on that delicate question." The result of this "misunderstanding" is awaited with great interest on this side of the Atlantic.

— Mr. Agassiz and party arrived safely at Rio Janeiro on the 22d of April and were most kindly received.

— The Journeymen Freestone Cutters' Association in Boston give notice that they have reduced their wages 50 cents per day.

— The World's Florence correspondence says a reconciliation has taken place between the Pope and Victor Emanuel, and that the latter will be crowned Emperor of the Romans by the former. (?)

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for three years, travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

The work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heartburn, pain in the side and bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY BLOCK. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH

resembles a Bartlett in similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Burno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1285, New York City.

☞ The Ladies' Fair opened rich, on Monday—and the old Temple, or rather the new Temple, saw a sight more beautiful than ever greeted its eyes before. The new Hall is better adapted for a Levee than any building we have ever had in Portsmouth, and it is fitted and decorated elegantly. Then with the throngs of lively people, and everything nice to eat, drink, &c., what is to hinder having a good time?

The Fair continues this Afternoon and Evening only—to close with an Auction.

☞ Among all the other good things, don't forget Mr. Joy's grand Concert tomorrow night—nor his new term of Singing School next Saturday.

☞ Among other attractions at the Fair, we are glad to see that the remarks of Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, on the Sunday after Mr. Lincoln's death, are printed in convenient form for preservation or sending to distant friends, and may be had at some of the tables for a trifle.

☞ Among the most liberal donations to the Fair, is a fine assortment of Engravings, from the house of Oakley & Tompson, Boston. They include several copies of the new portrait of Mr. Lincoln—of which each of his admirers should have one.

☞ Rehearsal of the Philharmonic Society this evening, and the Director desires all members to be present.

☞ The Tableaux at the Fair are very finely gotten up, and pass off to the delight of all. To-night is the last chance to see them.

☞ It will be seen that the well known Appledore House is open for the summer to those who wish to breathe the sea air at the Shoals or Sir John Smith's Isles:—and that the smart new Steamer Pioneer is to run between this port and the Isles the 15th.

☞ A few days since we saw a large and heavy load of galvanized iron water pipes, and on inquiry for what use they were designed, were told "they were for the Aqueduct Company, as some persons preferred iron to lead." A very important improvement. B.

☞ The U. S. screw steamer Galena arrived at the Navy Yard on Saturday. The sidewheel steamer Maratanza arrived in Lower Harbor on Sunday and came up to the Yard on Monday morning. We trust our board of health will take all precautionary measures, as these vessels arrive, against the spread of so fatal a disease as that of last summer.

POLICE COURT, June 12.—The readers of the Chronicle not having been bored with an embellished court report for a week or more in consequence of the indisposition of our reporter, we therefore venture a little in that direction this morning, trusting they can endure it with greater firmness having had so long a respite.

The first gentleman whom we shall introduce to the reader will be Mr. Henry Poole, induced to appear before His Honor by two impelling forces viz. the writ (legal force) and the policeman (physical do.) to answer to the allegation of making a brawl and tumult. He endeavored to obtain bonds, but one of his former bondsmen being in the House of Correction for being a common drunkard, and Mr. Poole not being the proprietor of a horse or the means of procuring one, he to the lockup. He succeeded at last in raising the sum of ten dollars from some indiscreet friend, and paying it over he received twenty cents back, in currency. Will some High School Cadet inform us by algebraic solution what was the fine and how much the costs? Very simple.

Mary Maywood, a poetic name, but, like many of her sex unfortunate enough to be in bad company, and being of an impulsive temperament, couldn't resist helping Poole to make a brawl and tumult. All pleasure must be paid for, however, and Mary Maywood was informed that her bill would be just $3.00 and $3.86.

James Dolan, a sailor, for using vociferous language on the public square on Sunday evening, fined $3 and expenses $3.86.

Now just stand aside, gentle reader, and let these inebriates pass in. First in order comes John Flynn, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

Florence Sullivan, ditto.

Joseph Farmer, ditto.

Timothy Hurley, ditto.

John King, ditto.

Martin Slattery, fast driving, fined $5.00 and costs $3.86.

Martin Garraty, (not Slattery,) brawl and tumult, fined $3.00 and costs $3.86.

LIGHTNING.—The dwelling house of Mr. John Webster, on the road leading to Wallis' Sands in Rye, was badly damaged by lightning on Saturday P. M. The lightning shattered the chimney, broke the stoves, and damaged the furniture generally. Mrs. W. was stunned, but has somewhat recovered. Three other persons in the house were not hurt. The lightning first struck the chimney, then descended into the cellar, and finally spent its force on a well adjacent. The windows were all broken, and the roof and other parts of the building injured.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—The "Telegraph" says it is definitely understood that the 13th N. H. regiment will arrive in Nashua some day this week, probably on Thursday.

—The friends of ex-Governor Nathaniel B. Baker, who is now Adjutant General of the State of Iowa, have presented him with an elegant house at Clinton, Iowa, as a grateful testimonial for his herculean labors in the Union cause.

—One Emma Hutchinson, of Dover, was arrested as being an accomplice of John Martin, who was recently arrested for passing counterfeit money at Dover and Salmon Falls. She was accordingly brought before U. S. Commissioner Stanley of Manchester, for passing a $50 counterfeit Treasury Note. She was required to give bonds of $500 to appear at the U. S. Circuit Court at Exeter on the 8th October, and is in Manchester jail.

—Rev. Mr. Hatch, minister of the Unitarian Society in Concord, found his church closed on Sunday: he had advocated negro suffrage the Sunday previous, contrary to the wishes of several leading men in the parish. Eaglo Hall, however, was opened for him, and he there repeated the discourse Sunday evening to a large audience.

ANDREW JOHNSON.—Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, have done a great service to the country, by bringing out, in cheap and readable form, "The Life, Speeches and Services of Andrew Johnson, Seventeenth President of the United States." In particular, his speech in the U. S. Senate, in July, 1861, on the origin of the war, and the object of the rebellion, will be read with renewed interest now, as he shows conclusively that the rebels made the war to change the government into a despotic slavocracy.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 36 feet on the Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost, in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

INPUDENCE.—John A. Wise, of Virginia, who admits that his four sons had been in the rebel army till its surrender, and that he and his family had done all they could towards the success of the rebellion, recently wrote to Gen. Gordon, commanding at Norfolk, demanding that the Government should supply him and his family with farming implements, horses and seeds, claiming a restoration of his citizenship rights and complaining of his sufferings during the war, and that his sons were not allowed to wear their rebel uniform. General Gordon's reply gave him to understand that he and his sons had been traitors to the Government, and were entitled to no favors from it, but would receive such as its leniency might see proper.

☞ Oliver Johnson, who lately retired from the Anti-Slavery Standard, was surrounded by a company of anti-Slavery friends at the residence of Mr. Charles G. Judson of New York, Monday evening, and presented with $1000 in Seven-Thirties,—a testimonial from 25 gentlemen, in acknowledgement of his unwearied labors for thirty years in the cause of emancipation. This was entirely unexpected to Mr. Johnson. A very liberal entertainment was provided by the host.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—At the Law Term of the Supreme Judicial Court which was held this week, in Manchester, a decision of some importance to expressmen and their customers was rendered by Judge Bellows. It was the case of Michael Lyons vs. Co. vs. Hill & Co., expressmen, all of Manchester. Some months ago the plaintiff entrusted a package containing a coat to the defendents to be carried to Derry to be delivered to a man by the name of Leighton, who carried the package home, and after examining it he returned it to defendants' agent saying it was not what he bought. The money he had paid for the package was thereupon refunded to him by the defendants' agent. The defendants then took the package back to Lyons & Co., but they refused to receive it, and demanded the $24 they had collected but returned to Leighton. Hill & Co. the defendants declined to pay it, and thereupon this suit was brought.

It was contended that when the Express Co. delivered the package their duty ended, and that after having delivered the goods they had no right to take them back and refund the money. If there was any dispute in regard to the quality or price of the goods, it was a matter wholly between the consignor and consignee, with which the carrier had nothing to do. The court held that the defendants were not liable, and that when a package is delivered to an express company marked "C. O. D." the consignee is entitled to a reasonable time to examine its contents before he makes his election to take it and pay the price.—Mirror.

The decision is right—it accords with common sense and honesty.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by telegraphing One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them by any Agency. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on the part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN F. TOGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SEVEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on the treatment of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by self-abuse, which so often ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's care, for a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines will be sent to any part of the country, full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Aphrodisiac, warranted the most potent. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

☞ Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring Oil Wells, was chosen by some of the principal men in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was solicited to take the selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and were convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil City and Titusville, Pa., on Oil Creek, river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the four Farms of the Company are within half a mile of the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six millions of dollars. The last of March, N. R. Bates, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney of the United States, a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Jones, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek. The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immense fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 3000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and tens of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this farm are a success. A ten barrel well will pay for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the coal should prove to be worthless it would be a fortune in itself. It is spleudid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $9000 to sink a well to the depth of 1000 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day for labor after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and preventing geological features more favorable for accumulation than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in studying and examining oil territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors of Geology, Chemistry, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 10 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation at the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if there are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each reader make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A thousand dollars in this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the proximity of the Mattison Farm, apply equally wel. to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Farm, where Gen. Coquet and others say that flows 800, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with a new tubing rod in, and its pipe seven-eights full of mahogany, it has flowed 230 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to put out the sucker rod, yet, fearing they had not sufficient tenants to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 1200 barrels. Below this is the Shaw well on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting well, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and very rod fit for a well. It is perfectly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find oil in the first wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the same oil belt, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now making one clear to us in a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses; both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly."

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that a rich oil well will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

☞ An officer on board a U. S. gunboat, writes from Charleston, that a young woman came on board with her father, and the officer thought her very beautiful. He happened to be chewing tobacco, and after some talk she begged a good sized piece, and began chewing and spitting like an old sailor! whereupon the vision of beauty vanished. But why? if the tobacco was good for the man, why not for the woman? If disgusting in her, why not as disgusting in him?

— The Baptist General Association of Virginia, in session at Richmond, has adopted resolutions declaring that recent events have not diminished the obligations of the denomination to labor for the spiritual welfare of the colored people, while new forms of efforts in their behalf should be sought, and every influence tending to alienate the confidence and affection of the colored people from the white communities should be discountenanced and counteracted.

— The foreign demand for butter has largely increased and still continues. In 1864 the exports from January till May were 5,170,402 pounds; for the same period this year, 6,843,827 pounds. The demand is still increasing, and appearances indicate that it will be permanent. Great Britain is the chief consumer, the usual supply to that country from Ireland having largely diminished.

— Mr. Rogers, a Connecticut Legislator from Milford, remarked in his place, the other day, that he never heard of a negro who was a passable mechanic; whereupon Thomas Peterson, a colored man of the same town, challenges Mr. Rogers to a trial of skill, both being ornamental carriage painters.

— When the Lieutenant was conveying Governor Brown North, under arrest, and had arrived near Dalton, the rebel official rallied the officer pleasantly about his small force. The Lieutenant asked him what he should do if the squad should be overpowered by guerrillas. The Governor replied he should run with the Union troops.

— Twenty-five years ago a Mr. McGuire of Albany, adopted an orphan boy and educated him. After becoming of age he went to California and made a fortune. He subsequently visited England, where he recently died, leaving by will $50,000 to the McGuire family.

— On the 4th inst., in Lancaster, Pa., a boy took up a gun which he found lying under a counter, and fired it, supposing it was unloaded, at four of his companions. Two of them were killed and two slightly wounded. The piece was loaded with shot.

"What flower of beauty shall I marry?" said a handsome young spendthrift to his miserly governor. To which the governor replied with a grim smile, "Marigold."

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Round. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to both their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be transported into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that never changes, but is delightful with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to the off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight months past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. You are the inventors of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than any other ink. I feel it to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 9, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but to do it justice I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. H. FOLLETT.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 15, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Mason's Manuscript & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours, respectfully, G. E. STILES.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1865.

ASSASSINATION TRIAL.—A Washington dispatch says Hon. Reverdy Johnson's argument for the defence in the assassination trial is mainly devoted to the question of jurisdiction of power of a military commission to try the case. He also makes the farther objection, that certain members of the commission, including Gen. Hunter, are mentally and morally disqualified for trying the prisoners. The Judge Advocate, in reply to the pleas of the counsel for the accused, to the jurisdiction of the military commission, rules, first upon the proclamation of the President, of Sept. 25, 1862, declaring that during the insurrection, and as a necessary measure for suppressing the same, all rebels, their aiders and abettors, and persons guilty of disloyal practices, affording aid and comfort to the rebels, shall be subject to martial law, and liable to trial and punishment by courts-martial or military commission. Secondly, the Judge Advocate replies that were no such formal powers conveyed, the laws of war, the military lex non scripta of every land, and the necessity of the recent crisis, clothed this commission with jurisdiction; that the accused, forgetting their social positions, undertook to interfere with the operations of the army, or with the government in its efforts to destroy the enemy, and they then so far became a part of the enemy as to clothe themselves with the military garb, and thus make themselves subject to the laws of war, and liable to its sanctions; that they have forgotten the status of the civilian and have assumed to interfere with the operations of the military. This is recognized as good law by the government.

On Monday morning the conspiracy trial opened its fifth week with important evidence, clearly identifying the rebel leaders with arson and robbery in the Northern States. C. C. Clay's letter of instructions was recognized by one of the Senate clerks.

Mrs. L. Grant, of Warrenton, Va., recognized Payne as the man she saw last Christmas in front of her house, having three Union soldiers in charge. On the cross-examination witness said Payne was then called Lieut. Powell, and was dressed as a Confederate.

R. H. Sweeney testified that J. Z. Jenkins was a consistent Union man in his opinion. Witness said he was perfectly indifferent as to whether the rebellion failed or succeeded.

Assistant Adjutant General Townsend was sworn, and submitted a captured document, which shows that the explosion at City Point in August last was owing to a rebel torpedo planned and developed by John D. Maxwell, of Richmond. The document is addressed to Capt. C. McDaniel, commanding the Torpedo company of Richmond, and endorsed by General Paine and an officer of the rebel War Department.

Richard Montgomery testified as to the genuineness of some letters he was to carry from C. C. Clay to Judah P. Benjamin, relative to the St. Albans raid and the capture of vessels on Lake Erie.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Something of a sensation was created in Washington Sunday evening, by the appearance of a well dressed, highly respectable individual informing pedestrians in the streets that he had received a special revelation from the Lord that this world was to be destroyed in a few hours.

The United States Circuit Court meets at Washington next week, and it is regarded as quite certain that Jeff. Davis will be tried during the term on the indictment already found.

It is not believed that General Lee will be tried for treason on the indictment found in the U. S. District Court of Virginia.

John Mitchell is to be indicted for treason.

— A great explosion and fire took place at Chattanooga, June 9, destroying $250,000 worth of U. S. stores,—caused by accident, as some think—but others say, rebel incendiaries, as it was at the same time with the Nashville and Gallatin fires.

— Owing to the enormous swindles attempted to be practiced by claim agents upon mustered out soldiers in Washington, the Paymaster General has instructed paymasters not to make payments on discharge rolls to third parties, but to pay only to the veritable claimant himself upon his signature.—So says Perley.

— Dr. William Whelan, Chief of the Naval Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, died in Washington Sunday, aged 56. He will be buried from St. Aloysius' church, Catholic.

— Wm. Buckminster, esq., formerly editor of the Massachusetts Ploughman, died at Framingham, on Friday, at the age of 81 years.

— The Hartford Times states that Government officers arrested in that city on Wednesday a party charged with defalcation in Tennessee to amount of $150,000.

BEEF CATTLE.—An Albany, N. Y., dispatch of Monday states that "the receipts of cattle for the week, including yesterday, (Sunday), were 6000 head; the largest supply for any one week in the history of the cattle trade, and may be taken as good evidence that the war has not worked a large diminution of the live stock of the country, as has been asserted. The Western drovers say that cattle are plenty in the West, and the average of stock unusually good. It is reported that cattle are now selling in Kentucky at 5 1-2 a 6 1-2c per lb., which a few weeks since could not have been bought there or in the Western States for less than ten cents per pound. When cattle are selling at 5 1-2 a 6 1-2c per lb., there is no justification for charging 30 to 37 cents per pound for beefsteaks and roasting pieces, and 16 to 20 cents for corned beef, and the diminished consumption shows that the people are not ignorant of the fact; then again while the receipts continue heavy, the demand of the city diminishes with the appearance of fish, early vegetables, berries and other fruits, so that we feel justified in anticipating an early return to the old prices that ruled before the war."

VIRGINIA. — The Alexandria Journal says Gov. Pierpont has determined to call an extra session of the Legislature on Thursday next, and for this purpose confidential circulars have been sent to members of the body, which has heretofore assembled in Alexandria, representing the loyal element as contradistinguished from the late rebel Legislature at Richmond. The Journal is alarmed for fear that the call is made with a view of removing the disability imposed on those who have been identified with the rebellion, and restore to them the elective franchise and the right again to hold office.

There is no certainty, however, that such is the object. Owing to the alleged appointment by the Governor of several ex-rebels to important positions in violation of the constitution, several meetings have been held by the loyal people of Alexandria to devise means for self-protection. On Saturday they perfected their organization and adopted a series of resolutions, one of which affirms in strong terms the right of the colored man to vote.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Raleigh correspondence says Gov. Holden has taken hold of his duties with a will. He has already made the following appointments: C. R. Thomas, Secretary of State; Jonathan North, State Treasurer; J. S. Carr, Aid-de-Camp. His proclamation will soon be issued. A convention will undoubtedly be suggested. Hopes are entertained that the State will be represented in the next Congress. The acts of the rebel legislature referring to the so-called Confederate Government will be declared null and void, and those of a domestic nature retained as far as possible.

Gen. Schofield has issued an order calling on the officers and soldiers to aid the Executive in the discharge of their duties The applications for pardon under the President's amnesty proclamation are already numerous.

MISSOURI. — A St. Louis dispatch of Monday, says returns from seventy-one counties and part of the soldiers' vote, leave no doubt of the adoption of the new Constitution by a decided majority. Thirty-two counties remain to be heard from, nearly all of which will give majorities for the Constitution, which with the soldiers' vote, yet to come in, will make the majority in favor of the adoption of the Constitution from 500 to 600.—The Tribune's St. Louis dispatch has returns from 74 counties, which show a majority for the new Constitution of 842. The counties yet to be heard from will increase the majority.

GULF STATES.—The Times' Washington despatch says there is a strong feeling in favor of having a Military Governor for South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi, and of keeping these States under strict military control.

The Herald's despatch says the President has finally determined to appoint Judge Parsons provisional Governor of Alabama.

It is reported that Gov. Clark of Mississippi was arrested a few days ago, but was paroled until further orders.

— Maj. Gen. Lovell H. Rousseau has been nominated in a caucus of members of the Kentucky Legislature as a candidate for United States Senator.

☞ The Portland Daily Evening Courier has gone under, and the Daily Star has taken its place. We did not observe the change for a day or two, and do not know the new arrangements. But we give all live papers—success.

—New York cattle market, June 12, at the opening sales, cattle beef declined 2 cents per pound and heavy at that.

— On Monday, at the trot in New York between "Dexter" and "Lady Thorne," the latter won the first, second and fourth heats. The best time made was 2:24, on the first heat.

— After July 3rd, the Post Office in Newburyport, will be a money order office, which will be a great convenience.

TENNESSEE.—A bill fixing the legal status of the colored people of Tennessee has passed the lower branch of the Legislature of that State. It guarantees the sanctity of the matrimonial relation among them, but forbids their marrying whites. All laws in force for the benefit of married women and children are to apply to people of color, provided that colored children shall not be admitted to the schools with the whites. Colored persons may be witnesses in all State cases in court against each other, but not against white persons, and no contract between a white and colored person shall be binding, unless made in writing and witnessed by a white person. Colored persons are subject to the same penalties for crimes as whites, with the addition that rape by a colored man upon a white woman shall be punished with death.

We find this extract in the Newburyport Herald, which approves many of the provisions, but condemns others, and says:

All citizens should be equal before the law. This, it seems to us, is fundamental in a Republican Government. Under the new Constitution, a white man may assault, rob, violate, or murder a colored person, and the testimony of colored witnesses would be rejected. * * * But the national government can say to a State of this Union, as much as it would say to a foreign State, that in his natural rights—his right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness within the laws, every citizen shall be protected. If the Japanese should rob or murder American citizens, and the guilty persons go unpunished because in the Japanese courts only a certain class could testify, we would send an armed fleet that should batter down every city within reach of its guns, till justice might be had; and as much power will the national government exercise within our own borders, to protect the American citizen—(for such the freedman becomes.) — No American Congress will ever assemble that will recognize a State constitution that will not shield, protect and defend the citizen, of whatever color he may be.

☞ Boston papers tell of a disgraceful fight on Sunday afternoon, in the Washington Gardens, in Roxbury, kept by V. Schneider, arising from a discussion upon certain soldiers and generals. Only two or three were at first engaged in the fight, but it soon became general, and the fifty or sixty who happened to be within the Gardens at the time were at once industriously engaged in pummelling each other. The only distinction seemed to between Irish and Germans, and at times it appeared that everybody was bound to give everybody else a beating. All were more or less intoxicated, and fists, clubs, tumblers, and knives were used. Several were badly beaten about the head and face, and it would not be strange if their injuries proved fatal. The fight lasted nearly three-quarters of an hour.

LEGAL TENDERS IN CALIFORNIA.—A recent decision of the Supreme Court of California, on the constitutionality of the legal tender act of Congress, settles a question which has been vehemently disputed in that State. The Court held that the act was an exercise of sovereign authority within the scope of the powers granted by the Constitution; and that if Congress has the power to make coined gold and silver a legal tender in the payment of debts, it has an equal right to declare that treasury notes, issued on the credit of the United States, shall also be received as a legal tender.

— A Toronto paper speaks of the worthless vagabonds thrown into Canada by the close of the war, and makes public the fact that they lately planned a raid upon one or more of the city banks.

— Judge Underwood, of the U. S. District Court of Virginia, has arrived at Washington with copies of the evidence upon which the Grand Jury at Norfolk found bills of indictment against Gen. Lee and about fifty other rebels, civil and military. He has asked the co-operation of Attorney General Speed, and intends to prosecute the trials at the earliest possible day.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE,

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the for eign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by wom en and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly cold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in profession repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign trash-believe, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Burtlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Burno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1285, New York City.

☞ Mr. Joy's Singing School Exhibition and Concert comes off at the Temple to-night, and will be a very enjoyable occasion. The programme offered is varied, and especially inviting to all interested in the young—and who is not? Music hath charms; and especially when joined with children and garlands of flowers. Our readers will recollect the overflowing rush at Mr. Joy's last grand entertainment; and those who would be sure of seats, had better secure tickets early.

☞ George Lane, we believe an Englishman and a sawyer at the Navy Yard, beat his wife, at the South End in this city, on Tuesday evening, so brutally that she is reported dead. Of course the fiend was drunk, and of course the other fiend who sold him the liquid damnation is not to be blamed, nor the community who allow it. Lane was arrested at the instance of neighbors, when too late; but we do not learn that his rumselling accomplice has yet been taken.

☞ The gunboat Maratanza, 6 guns, Lieut. Comd'r Geo. W. Young commanding, arrived at the Navy Yard on Monday morning from Wilmington, N. C., which place she left on the 4th inst., and Hampton Roads on 8th. The Maratanza was built in Boston, and is one of the first of the "double ender" class built during the war. She has been in commission since April, 1862, and was for some time doing duty on the James River; subsequently on the blockade off Wilmington, and was engaged in the celebrated Fort Fisher fight, and in all the attacks on the forts up the Cape Fear River, resulting in the capture of Wilmington on the 22d of February last; since which she has, in conjunction with two other gunboats, been doing guard duty at that place. The following is a correct list of her officers:

Lieut. Commander—George W. Young.

FIRE.—On Monday last, at about 1 o'clock P. M., an incendiary set fire to a barn on W. Claggett's and Mark Scott's farm, near Boyd's road, (no one being at home). The barn was consumed, together with several tons of hay, ox-cart, wagon, sleighs, plows, harnesses and many farming utensils. Loss about $400; no insurance.

☞ On Sunday morning last, while the family were at church, the children of Capt. Bush, residing on State street, being left alone by the servant girl, in a room where there were matches accessible, amused themselves by lighting them, and in communicating the fire to a dress lying over a chair, which was soon destroyed, particles of it dropping upon the floor, through which a large hole was soon burned; and had it not been for the speedy return of the maid, the children and house might have been destroyed.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " "	$100
Ten " " " "	$500
20 " " " "	$1000
$1 " " " "	$5000

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 30 feet on the Hill, with a Wood shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

MRS. DAVIS.—Mr. McFarland of the Statesman, speaking of Jeff. Davis and his family, says,—

He married Miss Powell, of Georgia, a very elegant and ambitious woman, about 1850, by whom he has had five children; one of which lies buried in the Georgetown cemetery. Mrs. Davis was very handsome when she left Washington, and is now not far from 40 years of age. She was haughty, and very insolent in her bearing during the last months of her residence there, and proudly talked of becoming the queen of the South, with her palatial residence in the city of Washington.—It is well known that on leaving the pew they owned in the Epiphany Church in Washington, they declined to sell; Mrs. Davis assigning as the reason, that they would soon return and occupy it again.

[This was the intention of the big rebels, to rule the white laborers of the North exactly as they did the black and mulatto laborers of the South.—Mrs. D. was a representative woman of the rebels.]

A WOOLEN EATING BOY.—The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, for June 1st, contains a curious case of a child about 3 years of age who had a morbid appetite for everything made of wool. The little fellow would pick up from the floor bits of yarn and swallow them; gnaw his blankets, so that it became necessary to encase them in cotton; rush at woolen garments, ladies' plush overcoats especially, like a little fury. Diarrhœa ensued, accompanied by vomiting, and at the end of ten days he threw up a very hard, egg-shaped mass of woolen, three inches in length and an inch and a quarter in its longest transverse diameter.

A GOOD STORY SPOILED.—We copied an item from some paper, we believe from the Monitor, a few days ago, in relation to an eagle belonging to the N. H. 3d. The Free Press says:

The Monitor is in error in several particulars. 1st, the said eagle did not flap his wings. 2d, he was not in the procession at all. 3d, the said regiment never had any eagle. 4th, at least one color-bearer of the 3d regiment was wounded. So says an old officer of the regiment. Besides, we think the 3d regiment was not in the review at Washington.

THE "PERSISTENT" GRANT.—Senator Chandler told the crowd who assembled in front of the Astor House Wednesday night during the Grant serenade, the following story:

"The General told President Lincoln, before crossing the North Anna, on his Richmond campaign, that he disliked the Spring and Fall campaign system, as one army recovered as fast as the other. 'Now I am about to cross the North Anna,' he said, 'and I notify you, President Lincoln, that to this campaign which I am about to commence there is to be no pause or intermission until Gen. Lee's army or that which I command is wholly destroyed.'"

— Four young men from Boston went to Malden last Friday, on a gunning excursion. While chasing a wounded squirrel, a gun was accidentally discharged, killing Joseph O. Mathews, one of the party.

— Betsey Clifford, an Irishwoman, was run over and killed by a train of cars at Holyoke, Mass., on Thursday evening. She was drunk and lying upon the track.

— The Transcript says salmon, usually considered an expensive luxury in the Boston markets, is now cheaper than the best quality of beef.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement late speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been examined with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was one of the gentlemen so prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was solicited to aid in selecting lands for farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel 76 Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in the January they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were equal to very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have been the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six millions of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 78 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil Rate south of Titusville, from which immeasurable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this Farm are success. Ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five rods of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $18 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $600 to sink a well to the depth of 500 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more perfect character, than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors Hall, Shepard, Dana, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. This Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each side for 10 wells, and on this Farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole, is great, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and we see no reason from this Farm to be in over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between the Farm above and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A large good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Cooper Well, which is now 100 barrels daily, and very that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. The Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, struck with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eights full of machinery, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to put out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 2500 barrels. Below this well is the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. At this farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations are red upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $60,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, each down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it, on a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be run on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to address the Company, or address

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, pleasant and agreeable;—and the use of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which lighites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

— "Every intelligent and thoughtful man knows that nothing else has contributed so largely to our success in the great struggle from which the nation is so happily emerging, as the public journals. And if the country does not recognize the pen as fully as the sword, it will be only because the men who wield the pen are more just and generous to another profession than to their own."

— The fact that wild game overruns Virginia proves how soon a land can fall into its original wilderness when cultivation ceases. Deer and bear are reported to have re-appeared in districts where they had not been seen for many years prior to the commencement of the war. Quails and rabbits literally swarm in the desolated settlements of Virginia.

— During the rebellion of four years, there have been killed and died, about 60 soldiers belonging to Exeter—leaving 25 widows and about 50 fatherless children.

— Mr. Stephen G. Philbrick of Tamworth, N. H., who reached the age of ninety-four in April, retains the vigor of life in a remarkable degree. Within the past year he travelled alone from Tamworth to Boston, and thence to Sanbornton to attend the funeral of a daughter, return to Boston and visited various places in the vicinity. During the past spring he has dressed out 35 pounds of flax.

— The sad news is received from New Zealand that the Pai Mariri fanatics have visited Opotiki, hung and beheaded the Rev. M. Volkner, abandoned by and vainly calling upon his flock for aid. They scooped out and ate his brains. A fanatic priest ate his eyes. M. Volkner died calmly, praying.

— The bee fever has taken the Newburyport people this year, as the hen fever did a few years ago, and in city and country there is great inquiry for bees, and a study for the best hives. Mr. Calvin Rogers, of West Newbury, has more than any other man in that locality—twenty-eight hives.

— A young man, while engaged at a card table in Frankfort, Kentucky, on Thursday night, received a paralytic stroke, and expired with the deal in his hands. It was a game of hazard, and excitement so affected the mind that life paid the forfeit.

— The Comb Factory at Newburyport has resumed work. The income returns for the last two years show that is as profitable as any business done in town. The same is indicated in the West Newbury returns.

— The memorandum book of a slaveholder on the Mississippi, named Cockerell, chronicles an instruction issued to his overseer one season, that the plantation must produce so much corn, such a quantity of cotton, a certain number of mules, a certain number of hogs, and ten negro children.

— The Charleston negroes are fast learning to read. The Street Commissioner employs 176 negroes, of whom 46 can read and write; also 151 whites, of whom only three can read and write.

— Hattie Newburg of Taunton was seriously injured on Thursday by the falling of an iron pillar which was insecurely fastened in the basement of the Winslow Church, which was occupied by a primary school.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DOES'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks, the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode the steel pen, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its keepingness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be sent safely to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink fill the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders, and they work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleaned my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eighteen years, from Prof. Gray's Recipe, (made with Alleppo nutgalls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Arabic,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and you may imagine I gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever saw. This is not puff. None in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows as readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and find them, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain, yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent me, and I say to you I am pleased with it it is true, but does not express what it should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that would stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but it was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is certainly that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other inks I have any knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose far nishes require a constant flow of writing. It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever saw. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Boston Herald's correspondent of the 13th says, John Minor Botts, Alexander H. Rives and other distinguished Virginians arrived in Washington the 13th, to protest against Governor Pierpont's government.

There was a protracted Cabinet meeting the 13th at which the new Proclamations were carefully considered by full Cabinet.

Gen. Halleck has replied to Gen. Sherman's report relative to him. He says that all his orders were issued by direction of Gen. Grant. Terry, who is now here, will relieve Gen. Halleck in a day or two.

The Old Capitol prison has been nearly cleared of prisoners, there being less than 100 there at the present time, and of this number the majority are sick or wounded rebels.

Major Gen. Terry has been appointed to the military command of Virginia, and Major General Ord to the command of Oregon. It is a good change for Virginia.

Information has been received of the arrival of the rebel Secretary of State, Benjamin, at Bermuda It is said that Trenholm and Breckinridge have also escaped out of the country.

Information from Morehead city reports great suffering among the people of North Carolina for the want of food and clothing.

The Secretary of War has ordered the release of all prisoners of war in Fort McHenry, including those sentenced during the war.

☞ At the Assassins' trial in Washington, on Tuesday, Dr. James C. Hall testified that he examined the prisoner Payne, whose mind seemed to be very inert. Witness thought his intellect of very low order: he could not discover any sign of insanity. A commission was appointed further to examine into Payne's alleged insanity.

J. T. Holton, of Surrattville, testified to the loyalty and good character of Mrs. Surratt. J. M. Loyd testified that John H. Surratt and himself took carbines into his (witness') house. Mrs. Surratt called and gave directions relative to them on the 14th of April. In accordance with her directions witness kept the guns ready for use. Witness prepared that night two bottles of whiskey.

The prosecution in the conspiracy trial has three or four more witnesses to examine. The defence has closed, and only await the report of the Medical Survey as to the alleged insanity of Payne. Arnold's father was permitted an interview with his son, the former freely shedding tears.

ALABAMA, LOUISIANA, AND WASHINGTON.—A Mobile dispatch states that a reconstruction meeting was held in that city on the 6th, which asked for a military Governor and permission to take steps to get back into the Union.

Affairs in the interior of Alabama are quiet and hopeful. The soldiers at home are cultivating their farms and business is reviving.

The mayoralty of New Orleans still continues to be a debated question. Col. Quincy exhibits no disposition to vacate the office.—It is rumored that Gen. Canby will refer the whole subject to Washington.

The rebel Governor of Georgia has issued a proclamation ordering the sheriffs of several counties to hold an election on the 19th of June, to elect delegates to the convention to be held at Jackson on the 3d of July, the day appointed by the bogus Legislature. Secesh leaders openly boast that by this movement by Clark and the Legislature, they have obtained recognition of the State and amnesty for the past.

— Perley telegraphs from Washington, Wednesday, that the trial of Capt. S. W. Waldron, formerly of Boston, but latterly Provost Marshal of the 2d District of New York, began that morning before General Underwood's Military Commission. Capt. Waldron is charged with accepting bribes in his official capacity as Marshal. Able counsel have been engaged.

— A Washington dispatch says the President is exercising the pardoning power much more freely than is generally supposed; and rumor says scarcely an applicant for special pardon has been refused.

— Pres. Johnson has appointed Judge Wm. L. Sharkey provisional governor of Mississippi, and issued a proclamation similar to that touching North Carolina, for reconstruction.

— The New Orleans Picayune says that Kirby Smith and his Generals were deluded by the belief of Jeff. Davis and his associates that Louis Napoleon would be obliged to form an alliance with the Southern Confederacy in order to maintain Maximilian in Mexico. They wished to go,—but the rank and file refused, and began to desert in large numbers as soon as it leaked out.

— All the Seven-thirty loan notes of the second series have been delivered to subscribers, as well as those of the third series, so far as they have been taken.

— The Princess of Wales was delivered of a son on the 3d inst., and is doing well.

NATIONAL DEBT.—According to a computation made in the Census Office, the national debt is over $2,500,000,000, and the proportion per capita to each white male adult in the country is $358.62 1 2. Sectionally the debt is divided as follows:

In the New England States there are 860,639 white male adults over 20 years of age, and their proportion of the national debt is 308,686,352 07; in the Middle States, 2,063,696, and their proportion is $740,195,342 32; in the Western States, 2,490,527, and their proportion is $893,288,781 01; in the Southern States, 1,287,880, and their proportion is $461,929,846 85; in the Pacific States, 267,364, and their proportion is $95,896,677 75, making in all, 6,970,106 white male adults in the United States, owing a debt of 2,500,000,000.

It will be seen from this statement that the war has cost the South not only its whole repudiated debt of thousands of millions, and all the devastation of property which the conflict has produced, but also the sum of $461,629,846, that being its proportion of the debt incurred in putting down its rebellion.

The war was started for the purpose of perpetuating and extending slavery, and has ended in destroying it. The value of the slaves, estimating them as worth $500 each, was $1,975,255,500, and the loss per capita to each white male adult in the Southern States, is 1,026 25. It will be seen that the United States have paid nearly 600,000,000 more than the value of the slaves in the cost of the war which has emancipated them. Here is another illustration of the wisdom of Davis, Mason, Lee, Benjamin, Toombs, Yancey, Slidell and the rest of the Southern leaders.

They have shown unprecedented genius in the arts of ruin; but is this a reason why the South should intrust them with the difficult task of re-creation? The North, of course, will not be guilty of the insane folly of allowing them any voice or lead in the reconstruction of Southern society; but have the South any reason or motive for desiring it?

It may not be uninteresting to add the pension list. The annual pensions paid by the United States amount to $13,000,000, or per capita to each white male adult over 20 years of age a yearly sum of 1 86 1-2. This expense is divided in this proportion: the New England States, $1,905,201 73; the Middle, $3,849,023 04; the Southern, $2,402,012 20; the Pacific, $498,692 18. The South will be taxed nearly two millions and a half for the support of the Union soldiers it has wounded, or the families of those it has killed, while the soldiers wounded in inflicting these wounds can have no pension. This statement indicates how small is the debt of gratitude which the rank and file of the rebel army owe to the rebel leaders.

There are other views to be taken of the subject.—Some wealthy men in New York have started a subscription paper to pay off the debt,—and it is said they have put down a Million,—not to be paid till 2500 Millions are subscribed; and it is argued that, in order to result favorably, the subscription for the payment of the national debt must be closed in three months, which will demand gifts from the people to the government of thirty millions of dollars per day during that period.

The reader can judge for himself what prospect there is in that direction.

The debt is funded, and our own people, mostly, hold the funds in their hands.—Industry, energy, the nation's enterprize, and above all, economy, will pay the interest;—and the principle, consolidated, will be the best and safest government fund in the world, where the portion of the widow, minor orphans, and old people will be taken care of for many a year to come.

☞ Late advices from Mexico show that the Liberals are gaining ground, and that the attack on Matamoras failed, owing to the threatening position taken by the rebels at Brownsville when the Liberals approached Matamoras. The Liberals have gained more ground during this last month than during the last year. The French despair of pacifying the country unless 50,000 French troops are sent.

Dr. Gwin has arranged his Sonora project. He only wants 8000 French troops to go with him to protect the emigrants and fortify the frontier against the incursions of the dreaded Yankees. No emigrants are to be admitted except picked Confederates, and all Northerners are to be excluded.

The French Admiral has gone to persuade Maximilian to purchase the Stonewall, at Havana, with which he is confident he can defend the coast against the whole American fleet.

☞ It is stated from Paris that Mr. Bigelow, the United States Minister, has given the French government the most positive assurances that the Washington cabinet is firmly resolved to respect and cause to be respected the strictest neutrality with regard to Mexico, now placed under the protection of France.

— In consequence of the great incendiary fires and explosions at Mobile and other places, by the fag end of Jeff. Davis' confederates, increased vigilance is recommended in all cities—north as well as south.

OUR NEW GOVERNOR.—Few men have the fortune to be as popular as Fred. Smyth. Everybody who meets him likes him. We believe he was not long since elected Mayor of his own city of Manchester, without opposition,—and this in a political hot-bed, and he a man never slow in having and giving an opinion on any subject. The Mirror says of him: "The Chair of State will be filled by as true a patriot and sincere, warm-hearted friend of the people as ever graced the high position he is called to fill."

And the Union (copper) says, "The people of Manchester certainly rendered a handsome compliment to their fellow citizen when leaving home to assume the duties of Chief Magistrate of the State. The Amoskeag Veterans and Bedford Light Infantry, accompanied by the Band, proceeded to the residence of Mr. Smyth, where they formed in line to receive him. On coming out he was saluted by the military and music. As he passed by the crowd, a lady threw him a handsome boquet, which he received with graceful acknowledgment. He then took position in the centre of the company beside the Colonel, who surrendered the command to the next in rank, and was escorted to the railroad depot. On the way they were joined by a company of War Veterans. The depot was filled with people, and crowds lined the road for a considerable distance. Three rousing cheers were given as the Governor and his friends entered the car provided for them. The long train of nine cars—an extra train provided for the occasion—was soon filled, and the whole moved off amid the waving of flags and white handkerchiefs."

REV. MR. HATCH OF CONCORD.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal writes from Concord:

Mr. Hatch claims that he has been shut out of his pulpit for preaching a so-called "Emancipation Discourse," in which he advocated negro suffrage in the full meaning of the term; while those in the Society who oppose the pastor, say that the emancipation sermon had nothing to do with the shutting up of their house of worship. The charges they bring against Mr. Hatch savor strongly of infidelity. They accuse him of advocating the non-observance of the Sabbath, of denying the efficacy of prayer, of preaching a disbelief in miracles and of eulogizing the life and deeds of notorious infidels.

Of Mr. Hatch's sermon at Eagle Hall, the letter says:

The sermon was well written, but was too radical for "orthodox" people in general. The speaker attempted to prove that he did not favor the desecration of the Sabbath.

It is easy to misrepresent an opponent, and in controversy this is often done unintentionally.—Rev. Mr. Hatch undoubtedly agrees with most of the Quakers, with Rev. Dr. Wayland of the Baptist church, with most of the Christian denomination, and with Parker and many other Unitarians, in maintaining that keeping the Sabbath on Sunday, as we do, is not enjoined on us in the scriptures. But this is a widely different thing from "maintaining its non-observance," or "favoring its desecration." For we are certain that no one could truly charge Dr. Wayland with these latter faults, while no man ever stated the negative view of the Sabbath more strongly than he. And the same thing for substance in tone of many others who entertain similar views.

The letter adds:

The root of the matter is a conflict between the "orthodox" and the "radical" Unitarians. Rev. Mr. Hatch, the clergyman so identified in the above, is a man of good abilities and of rather pleasing address. He is the son of an Orthodox minister who preached many years in Hopkinton, N. H. For several years the son labored as an Orthodox preacher, but becoming too "liberal" for that denomination he embraced Unitarianism, and was located in Brooklyn, N. Y., afterward in Hingham, Mass.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On the 12th inst., the Mirror says, the Manchester Battery, sometimes called the 1st N. H. Battery, having been paid off and mustered out at Concord, returned to their homes in Manchester. They were met at the railroad station by a committee of the citizens and the Cornet Band, who escorted them to the City Hall, where they were entertained by the traders of the city.

—— Monday afternoon, while James Leonard, the color-bearer of the Battery, was in a saloon in Manchester, he was knocked down and injured very badly about the head and face. During the affray he was robbed.

—— During the shower Saturday, the 10th inst., the house of Mr. Parker Morrill, in Candia, was struck by lightning, set on fire, and almost every room in it was shattered. It was unoccupied at the time, but was soon put out. During the same shower a barn in the south part of Candia, belonging to Mr. William Anderson, was struck and burned to the ground.

—— The 9th and 18th N. H. Regiments arrived at Manchester on Tuesday.

GOLD, Wednesday, 142 1-2 to 141 1-2. The specie from New York for Europe that day was over $1,000,000.

— John Mitchell was arrested Wednesday afternoon by a U. S. officer, and is now in custody under charge of treason. Gen. Dix has sent him away by water for trial.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.
By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.
The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.
This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.
Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the bowels, sudden fainness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m19dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.
It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchors," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.
THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.
Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—
1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.
We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.
OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.
OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named F. S. Bartlett is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.
OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.
OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.
THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.
OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Burno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

AN ERROR.—It is very easy to find fault with newspapers for publishing incorrect statements, and to insist that editors and reporters ought to know what they say; but people who have not tried editing, cannot know how impossible it is to prevent errors getting into the columns of a paper. For instance (and we believe this is the most serious case which has ever occurred to us, and the one we most regret,) in our issue of Wednesday, we gave a lamentable story, as it was given us by a Policeman, about a man killing his wife, and probably being drunk, &c. We received the information at near midnight, at the Fair, and (as is our wont in such cases) put it in type ourselves at 4 o'clock next morning; so you see there was not much opportunity for verification of a story which seemed authenticated beyond doubt.

But though the woman was dead, and her husband was arrested, as stated; and though the Officer had what seemed ample authority for his information to us—yet the item was full of most serious misstatements. And first let us say, how easily the errors occurred,—before we correct them. It appears that the man was English, and a quiet, well-behaved citizen, while his wife was a miserable drinking Irish woman. So, when her sudden death was known, an Irish neighbor, with the native jealousy of his race, came up to the Police, and on his report to the officers, Mr. Lane was arrested, but was soon released after the Marshal's visiting his residence and making inquiries. But meantime, the story had got into print—and now let us do what we can to undo the evil report.

The Mayor and Aldermen, with City Physician Dr. Curtis, visited the premises and made all due examination and investigation, on Wednesday; and they decide, and request us to state, that they "find the story of ill treatment by her husband utterly false; but evidence is conclusive that she was a very intemperate woman—and that she died from the effects of beastly intoxication." They also say that, "So far as we could learn, Mr. Lane has the reputation of being a temperate and industrious man, and it is but justice to him to give these facts to the public"—which, of course, it gives us pleasure to do. And further, we desire to add, that this is corroborated by his fellow workmen, and all who know him.

The facts of the case appear to be, that Mr. Lane, after work at the Yard all day; on coming home, found his wife drunk and abusive—so much so, that he left his supper and went into his garden, to hoe. Thither she followed him, and fell as she came out, but rose again; and it is now said that he did strike her, or push her from him. She afterwards went across the street, and died in a rum fit. So, after all, "rum did it," and our temperance moral holds; with the addition that the man had a poor drunken wife, instead of her having a sot for a husband. This seems the worse, to most folks, don't it? But will anybody please tell us why and wherein?

☞ Oh yes, oh yes, we won't forget, any of us, that there is offered us one more chance to enjoy Miss Orton's acting, and the talented Company, in drama, to-night. The bill is light and varied, and Miss Moore's skating will be a great attraction. See the advertisement.

☞ The Seventy-fifth Annual Meeting of the New Hampshire State Medical Society, will be held at the Court House in Portsmouth, on Tuesday, the 27th day of June instant at 10 o'clock. The Council will meet at the Rockingham House on the Monday preceeding, at 8 o'clock. We learn that the Annual Dinner on Tuesday, and the entertainments of members, will be furnished at the Rockingham House.—And we take this opportunity to say, that wherever these meetings are held,—in Concord, Nashua, Manchester, &c., the occasion is always widely improved, to give the liberty of the city to the M. Ds., and by throwing open the principle residences to the distinguished strangers, to enjoy the brief acquaintance of probably as eminent and respectable a body of men as we have in our State. And we presume similar courtesy will be extended by the leading citizens of our hospitable city.

☞ In Portsmouth, for the year ending March 31, 1865, the enrollment of Militia and the Births and Deaths were as follows:

	Militia	Births	Deaths
Ward I	298	35	61
" II	307	27	70
" III	171	48	52
	766	110	183

These are the official numbers:—but the births, are reported by house-keepers, are undoubtedly far below the real number.

☞ Dr. J. F. Hall, Surgeon of the Board of Enrollment for the 1st N. H. Cong. Dist., has received an honorable discharge from the Provost Marshal's Office in this city, dating June 15th. This leaves only Prov. Marshal Hall and Mr. Chesley, Clerk, at the office. Retrenchment and reduction is the word. This will give Dr. Hall opportunity to devote all his time to private practice in this city, as desired by many of our citizens.

☞ We notice that Dr. A. B. Bennett, of this city, returned home from his visit to the army several days since. He has been sick, and still shows the effects of a soldier's exposure.

THE HUTCHINSONS, (Asa B. & Co.) are to give one of their Hutchinsonian Concerts at the Temple on Monday evening next.—Particulars hereafter.

NOTA BENE.—Is the sidewalk of our most public Square a proper daily and habitual place of business for the keeper of one of the most notorious houses of ill-fame in the city? or for the habitual congregation about him of his patrons and admirers? *

☞ Thomas Haywood, of Newcastle, states that he was attacked on Monday evening by Frank E. West, and four other soldiers, and very badly beaten, but was rescued by citizens, who interposed, and preserved him from further injury, and perhaps death. Mr. Haywood wishes to express his thanks to Messrs. Benj. White, Josiah Gilson, Thomas Card and others, for their kind interference and fortunate rescue.

☞ On Tuesday a telegraphic despatch from New York, announced the sudden death of Mr. B. L. Marsh, member of the firm of Jordan, Marsh & Co, one of the most active dry-goods merchants in the country. At the close of business Monday, Mr. Marsh went to his residence in New York, seemingly in good health. He was reported alarmingly ill early next morning, and at 11 o'clock was dead, of paralysis, or some kindred disease, aged 42.

☞ A Buffalo dispatch of Tuesday says we learn from an entirely responsible source that a man calling himself F. A. Lawrence, and claiming to have been a colonel in the rebel army, is acting as the agent of Sanders, Cleary, Tucker & Co. in Canada, and is endeavoring by the offer of large sums of money to induce persons to go to Washington to rebut the testimony of witnesses against the assassination conspirators.

Winter's Metallic Brown Paint

RECOMMENDS ITSELF.

It is a pure oxide of Iron and Manganese. It mixes readily with Linseed Oil, taking two gallons less per 100 lbs. than any mineral, and possesses more body than any other paint. It forms a glossy, unfading, durable metallic coat, protecting wood from decay, and iron or other metals from rust or corrosion.

☞ It does not require grinding, and is warranted to give satisfaction for painting Railway Cars, Iron Bridges, Houses, Barns, Halls and Decks of Ships, Tin and Shingle Roofs, &c.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents " " " " $100
Ten " " " " " $500
30 " " " " " $1000
$1 " " " " " $5000

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 36 feet on the Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost, in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

Morning Chronicle.

BERMUDA COME TO GRIEF.—The Times says, to the Bermuda Islanders who sold themselves so cheaply to the rebels by opening their harbors to the business of blockade running. Time has brought its revenge, and they are now paying the penalty of their avaricious perversity and malignity, in a manner, from the effects of which they will not soon recover. Last year pestilential disease stalked out of their blockade runners, and swept scores of the inhabitants to destruction. The majority of the merchants who engaged in the business of supplying the rebels, finding the trade marvellously profitable, invested not only their gains, but, under the spur of avarice, their private means in copartnership with the notorious Liverpool houses engaged in the same traffic. These enterprizers discover themselves hopelessly bankrupt on the collapse of the rebellion. The factitious business which for years gave an unhealthy impetus to mercantile pursuits has suddenly reacted, and has been followed by idleness and dissipation. Numbers of the young men have degenerated into confirmed sots under the polluting influence of the loose Southerners and adventurers who have received their hospitality. These islanders, in fact, are to day in a condition to excite commiseration rather than resentment.

HITTING HIM HARD.—A Paris Journal, the Nord, alluding to the English plea of necessity for granting belligerent rights to rebels, because the rightful Government had blockaded their ports, says: "The French Government proclaimed the blockade of certain ports of Mexico. Did the Cabinet of London dream, for all that, for an instant, of recognizing belligerent rights in the case of the troops of Juarez? Certainly not. Juarez's was the recognized Government in Mexico. If he had been a rebel, Palmerston might have extended the rights of a belligerent to him."

— On account of the removal of troops from Washington, the people resident there have free rum again. Gen. Grant has withdrawn his restriction. We hope, however, it will be renewed when Congress meets.—Exchange.

But wouldn't that be deemed arbitrary? asks Uncle Toby. Didn't we hear a howl when the Maine law was passed? And haven't we seen violence, and lying, and perjury, resorted to by those who love their cups, and those who fill them, whenever any move has been made against the giant sin of intemperance?

SEAMEN'S WAGES.—A few months since seamen's wages were $40 a month to all parts of the world, but now they are only $25 to the West Indies, coastwise and to Europe; and $20 to the East Indies and California. This reduction is in consequence of the large number of men who have been discharged from the navy. During the past two weeks over one thousand men have been thrown upon the market; as freights are very dull to all parts of the world, wages have fallen one-half, and still tend downward.

— Prince Salm Salm, a German noble who is serving as a volunteer officer, hopes to secure a position in the regular army. He has been crowding the rebels pretty closely in Northern Georgia, and the other day a flippant fellow blustered into his presence, demanding certain accommodations in consideration of his character as a confederate officer. "Confederate offiair!" replied the Prince, "I not know such peoples. You must mean a 'tam rebel.'"

— The Herald says the Bass have come, at Newburyport, and that "on Monday 18 striped bass, weighing from forty to fifty pounds each, could have been seen in the market, all taken within two miles of that spot. What think ye of that, ye pleasure-seeking disciples of Izaak Walton. If one would enjoy rare sport in fishing, let him come to Newburyport, for there is not such a place in this world for an angler."

I attribute the little I know to my not having been ashamed to ask for information, and to my rule of conversing with all descriptions of men on those topics that form their own peculiar professions and pursuits.—Locke.

— The Republic of Paraguay is now said to be mainly ruled by a woman picked up in the streets of London by Lopez (the President)—a curious whirligig of fortune.

An Irishman was once brought up before a magistrate, charged with marrying six wives. The magistrate asked him how he could be so hardened a villain? "Please your worship," says Paddy, "I was just trying to get a good one."

— Amos Kendall, himself a Baptist, is building a meeting-house in Washington, to the memory of his wife, who, the papers say, was a Catholic.

An artist in this city painted a dog so naturally, that the animal had the hydrophobia during the hot weather. He's the same man who painted a copy of a beer bottle with such skill, that the cork flew out, just as he was finishing it.

— The Salmon Falls Manufacturing Company will pay a dividend of 3 per cent. on the 19th inst.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in this vicinity, who have purposely kept above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful in locating the best oil lands in Pennsylvania, boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, suggested to the Directors of the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. D. P. Martin, Hon. D. J. Daniels, Hon. John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel P. Woodbury, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they selected the farms recommended by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the four farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty millions of dollars. The last of March, R. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known Boston capitalist and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York City, went out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on one side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Hamilton 500—the Parker 100—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well for four hundred.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal that therefore is worth $10 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning like a candle.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $60.00 to sink a well to the depth of 500 feet, and few go much lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Liberty Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more perfect character, than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and developing Oil territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors Mapes, Hayenby, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of Potato Oil Creek. If these Gentlemen come up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, it is good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 13 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the value of the company wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield oil enough to pump, and the Four Farms will sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as

Proposals for Fuel.

QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE U. S. M. C.,
Washington, 3rd June, 1865.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until FRIDAY, the seventh day of July, 1865, at 2 o'clock P. M., for supplying the WOOD and COAL for the U. S. Marines at Portsmouth, N. H., during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1866.

The Wood to be good merchantable Oak, and to be delivered, piled, measured and inspected, at such points within the walls of the Marine Barracks as may be designated by the Commanding Marine Officer, free of expense to the United States.

The Coal to be best White Ash Anthracite Egg Coal, free from dust, and to weigh 2240 lbs. to the ton; to be weighed, inspected and delivered at such points within the walls of the Marine Barracks as may be designated by the Commanding Marine Officer, free of expense to the United States.

And both Wood and Coal to be furnished upon the quarterly requisitions of the Commanding Marine Officer, showing the quantities required, agreeably to regulations.

Payments will be made upon the receipt of accounts duly authenticated by said Commanding Officer.

A guaranty to be signed by two responsible persons, whose responsibility must be certified to by the U. S. District Judge, U. S. District Attorney, or U. S. Collector, must accompany each proposal; otherwise it will not be considered.—To be endorsed "Proposals for Fuel," and addressed to the undersigned.

W. B. SLACK,
Major and Quartermaster.

The properties of this Company consist of 848 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. DAVIS, Banker, No. 25 State street, and at the OFFICE OF THE COMPANY, No. 47 CONGRESS STREET, BOSTON.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
—TO—
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE PILLS are surpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.
His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.
Office, No. 23 Endicott street.
Persons at a distance can consult Dr. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicine securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients are none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. Briscoe, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 16, 1864. 7ThSly
DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S. Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the Kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Special. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to hold their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to an Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an Ink of a beautiful glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen, or corrode a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Its convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MERRIMACK AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm; they make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleaned my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one says it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation has gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands goes and solidifies and it now does just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe; but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and it is a quantity of it. It would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about this; there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used Mood's, Maynard's, Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Respectfully yours, G. E. STILES.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1865.

THE REMAINS OF MR. LINCOLN.—Mrs. Lincoln has notified Gen. Oglesby, President of the Lincoln National Monument Association, that unless the monument were erected over the President's remains at Oak Ridge and a deed given to her and her descendants, of the lot on which it was to be placed, she would accept a proposition for the removal of the remains to Washington. The announcement caused a great sensation at a meeting of the Association, and it is said the demand of Mrs. Lincoln will not be complied with, as the money is raised for a public and not a private purpose.

ARMY.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says the permanent military establishment of the country will be organized on the following basis: General officers—one general, five lieutenant generals, fifty major generals and seventy-five brigadier generals. The strength of the army will be nearly as follows: Regular infantry, 45,600; regular cavalry, 14,400; regular artillery, 12,000; colored troops, 50,000; Hancock's Corps, 30,000; Veteran Reserve Corps, 25,000; total, 177,000 men.

☞ JOHN MITCHELL, the renegade Irishman, who cast in his fortunes with the South, and employed every resource of his fertile brain and venemous pen in the lowest literary drudgery of the slaveholders' rebellion, came north after the surrender of Lee and Johnston, and connected himself with the rebel organ in New York, the Daily News. Wednesday morning he came out in a "Salutatory" to the readers of that sheet, in the form of a letter to Ben Wood, and in the afternoon he was sent to Fortress Monroe. The letter to Wood is a masterpiece of cool impudence, but it is of value as indicating the impression which obtains among among the most virulent and malignant of the defeated traitors, that they are not only to be pardoned, and restored to all their original privilege, but that they are to resume their old predominant position at Washington, through a renewal of their alliance with the democratic party. "The separate independence of the South," he says, "being proved to be impossible, it has seemed to me that the best hope of preserving the liberties of the whole country, lies in the democratic party, with which the whole South will naturally ally itself as before, and of which I conceive the Daily News to be the truest and boldest organ." If the North allows this "best hope" to be realized, the Transcript thinks it must be pretty well peopled with idiots.

☞ The N. Y. Post says the arrest of John Mitchell was made by detectives Kelse and Elder, under the direction of Gen. Dix, the latter having received orders from Washington to arrest Mitchell on a charge of treason. The prisoner was immediately placed on board a Government vessel, and is probably on his way to Fortress Monroe. Soon after the arrest of Mitchell, Judge McCunn visited Gen. Dix's headquarters, but could learn nothing of the prisoner's movements. The Judge said the Government could not try the prisoner as a traitor, for he was an alien, and none but citizens could be traitors.

CANNON AT RICHMOND.—Government is rapidly dismantling the fortifications at Richmond and Petersburg, and shipping the cannon, etc., to the Washington and other Northern navy yards and arsenals. The number of cannon of all kinds, siege and field, is much larger than was originally supposed. At one time four or five acres at the landing below Richmond were covered with cannon, caissons, army wagons, etc. Five vessels were at City Point and Richmond last week, loading with them, including the beautiful Whitworth battery of rifled cast steel twelve-pounders surrendered by Gen. Lee at Burkesville, Va., which was presented to the rebels at the beginning of the war, by sympathizing friends in England. Artillery officers pronounce it one of the finest batteries in the world. It will probably be sent, with other curious pieces, to West Point, as trophies.

At Petersburg, just before its evacuation, many cannon were buried, and head-boards put up at each end, to resemble soldiers' graves. The negroes, always loyal to the North, immediately revealed the trick, and upwards of one hundred field pieces have already been exhumed. The amount of war material now accumulated by the Government, both of its own manufacture and captured from the rebels, is almost incredible. Speaking of guns in a wholesale way, an artillery officer lately remarked that the cannon, caissons, ambulances, army-wagons, etc., with their teams, would make a column reaching from New York to California.

— Gold in New York, Thursday morning, at 143 1-2.

Gold, in Boston on Thursday, went as high as 144 1-8.

— The Ballard House in Richmond has been rented by a Bostonian at $18,000 per annum, on a lease of ten years, and will be immediately renovated and opened as a first class hotel.

Deferred Correspondence.

NEW YORK, June 8th.

Major Generals and Strawberries are very plenty. Within a week we've seen Grant, Sherman, Warren, Sheridan, Logan and Blair; indeed, they are getting so abundant that the First Napoleon wouldn't make much of a stir on Broadway. The Seventh Regiment would do escort, of course,—that has become constitutional with them; and the Loyal League would give him a reception, (also constitutional).

Grant has rather the better of Sherman. He has Logan and Blair to make speeches for him. Sherman no one. Gen. Grant goes to the League rooms, declines to make a speech, sits down in their elegantly furnished apartments, chats away sociably, smokes one cigar, puts his hand round to his vest pocket, takes out another, lights it from the first, smokes that up and repeats; rides down Broadway, and smokes; sits at his open window at the "Astor," and smokes; goes wherever they wish him to, but says nothing. Last night he had an enthusiastic "jam" at the Cooper Institute;—to-night he goes to West Point. The only difference I can notice between himself and his pictures is, that the latter haven't any cigar. In every other respect, the best of them are perfect.

Now a word or two on the "Return of the Sons."* It is very evident to any one viewing you collectively, from an unprejudiced stand point, that you are gradually but surely going to sleep,—dropping off into a situation to which that of Rip Van Winkle won't be a circumstance. Plodding along every year, with your life wheels sunk hub deep into the ruts of the years preceding, with no more chance of getting out of this plodding monotony into something new, novel or interesting, without an effort, than a pinch of snuff has of staying on a rail fence on a windy day. Before long the "Return of the Sons" will be as much of a myth as Captain Kidd or the Southern Confederacy. Why isn't there already some concerted movement? Where are you, Mr. Head? Are you weary of well doing for criticism, forgetting that it is the truest compliment that can be given? I will come, for one: others will come, if you will give the assurance of a systemized movement. Organize your Committee, start your finance, secure your orators, pitch your tent in the field, put a fresh mortgage on all the cows for a day's milk, and on the fields for strawberries; issue your invitation—a loud call and a hearty one—and we'll come, every mother's son of us! Do you want a Committee? Take [No matter about names now, N.—Ed.] Set the ball rolling, and sufficient will be accomplished to secure the good result. We are all ready to come, if you are ready to receive us. Where are your hands,—behind your backs or stretched out in welcome? Will you wake up?—

To-DAY! —— N.

*We had our pen raised to mark out these remarks respecting the Sons, and the fathers at home, as the Return is given up for this year, at least, (as it was last year, and may be next year,) and we don't seem to be going to have any Fourth of July; but we have concluded to let N. have his say, even at this late day, and rap the old fogies, whoever they may be, if any.—ED. CRON.

VIRGINIA.—The Herald's Richmond correspondence says Gen. Terry has arrived there and assumed command of the Department of Virginia in place of Gen. Ord. Gen. Turner has been assigned to the military district embracing Richmond. His first act was to squelch the rebel mayor, Mayo, who had been reinstated with his negro-hunting police.

A band of guerrillas, 500 strong, have lately collected in Patrick county, Va., and are threatening the inhabitants with vengeance. Four have been arrested, and two were at once tried, convicted and sentenced to be shot. The others were sent to the penitentiary.

THE SURRENDER IN FLORIDA.—The number of rebel soldiers surrendered in Florida was about 8000, with 40 pieces of artillery, 25,000 small arms and a large amount of military equipments, ammunition, quartermaster, commissary and hospital stores.

— Judges Boyer and Dryden of the Supreme Court of Missouri having declined to vacate the Bench in conformity with the ordinance passed by the State Convention, Gov. Fletcher, through Gen. Coleman, commanding the military of the District, forcibly dispossessed them of their seats, and installed Hon. David Wagner and Hon. Wm. Lovelace. The affair created a good deal of excitement.

— The guerrilla Stewart was not executed at Louisville, as reported, having received ten days' respite at the hour assigned for his execution.

— The large saw-mill of Wright & Co., at Saginaw City, Mich., with a million feet of lumber, was destroyed by fire the 14th.

— Young, the St. Albans raider, Cleary, the agent of Jacob Thompson, and Blackburn, the yellow fever fiend, are all sojourning at present in Toronto, Canada. All are under bonds to appear for trial for breach of the neutrality laws, and all but Blackburn are confident that they will not be convicted.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— During the thunder shower on Saturday afternoon, 10th, the house of Mr. John Tilton in Fremont was struck by lightning, and a man named John Barriss, who was standing in the door, was instantly killed. His age was 29. A boy was also prostrated but soon recovered. The windows of the house were much shattered.

—— The Ballot says Rev. J. W. Chickering, has accepted the call of the Second Congregational Church and Society of Exeter, and will commence his labors there the first Sabbath in July.—Also that at a meeting of the First Parish, pretty well attended, on Tuesday afternoon, the letter of Rev. Elias Nason, requesting dismissal, was taken up, and by a vote of 25 to 15 rejected.

—— Adjt. General Head pertinently observes, incidentally, in a letter to the Manchester Mirror, that while in other States the expenses of Election Day are defrayed by the Commonwealth, (as of course their should be) in New Hampshire the burden of preparation and the payment of bills falls entirely on the citizens of the capital.

—— The Monitor learns that the Hooksett Mills, after having been stopped three years, will resume operations in full, the 3d July. T. B. Wattles, is agent.

—— The Ninth N. H. regiment paraded through Main street, Concord, Wednesday morning, for the purpose of turning over their arms. They marched in open order, with arms at right shoulder shift, and preceded by their excellent band, made a fine appearance. They expected, the Monitor says, to be paid off Thursday.

—— Col. B. F. Martin of Manchester, has sold his paper mill in that city, to Hudson Keeny, Esq., of Pepperell, Mass., for $35,000.

—— The report of the Warden of the N. H. State Prison, states that the inmates of that institution are fewer now than at any former period since 1847. It has been conducted with a loss to the State of $471.-68, which is attributed to the high cost of living.

—— A special dispatch to the Boston Journal says that Hon. David Culver of Lyme died on Wednesday, after a brief illness. He was a member of the Governor's Council, and was widely known and respected for his liberal endowments of the Agricultural College, and other charities.

SERENADE.—The fine band of the 9th N. H. quietly gathered in front of the mansion of Ex-Gov. Gilmore in Concord on Tuesday evening, and performed some of the finest airs. A portion of the field and line officers were also on hand to renew their acquaintance with the retired chief magistrate. Gov. Gilmore was first commissioned Colonel of this renowned regiment. He remarked, in the few fitting words of welcome he addressed to the company on this occasion, that he had no doubt he should have made a good Colonel if he had gone with them; but like many who talk war, he remained at home. Owing to the fact that this was entirely a surprise to him and his family, the Governor invited the party to the Phenix Hotel, where the swiftly moving hosts of that famous resort soon spread a fine collation of all that was desirable in the way of good cheer. The Monitor noticed among the guests, William H. Hackett, Esq., Col. Henry O. Kent, Maj. J. Stevens, and other bon vivants.

RAPIDLY GROWING PLACE.—In the spring of 1862, people commenced settling in Vineland, New Jersey, from most of the Northern States, especially New England. It was a track of virgin soil embracing some 50 square miles,—owned by one proprietor. Since that time at least five thousand people have gone into the settlement, taking with them their wealth, taste, and industry. They go there on account of the climate, the market, and the soil for fruit culture, and the general fertility. The line of latitude is similar to that of Baltimore, Md., and they usually have an open winter, enabling them to plow, and do out-door labor. Others visit there for health, especially those suffering from lung complaints. Five hundred Vineyards are planted; the same number of orchards. Three churches have been erected, an academy, a number of schoolhouses, and different societies of art and science organized. Manufactories are also being started, and a village is growing up with great rapidity. Numerous people of wealth are going there, and making extensive improvements. It is estimated that 50 new houses will be built the coming season. The peculiar feature of this settlement is, that the originator, Chas. K. Landis, Esq., has laid it out upon a general principal of beauty, and adopted a system of public adornments. The effect of it has already been to make it one of the most beautiful places in the country.

It will require a population of Twenty Thousand people to take up the land. The location is 34 miles south of Philadelphia, on the Cape May Railroad.

MASON AND SLIDELL.—A late letter from London states that the rebel Mason has given up all hope for the Confederacy, and says that he would counsel every Southern man to accept gracefully the position in which he is placed, as it would be worse than folly to prolong the struggle. Slidell is also represented as being very much depressed and hopeless for the rebel cause.

— The Indians attacked a Mormon train at North Platte Crossing and at Eagle Creek Station on the overland route recently, killing and wounding all the stock-tenders and soldiers. Gen. Connor has sent troops out to keep the mail-route open.

— The Tribune has private intelligence from Hayti, stating that the insurgent force was reported to be on the march for Port-au-Prince. The rebels declare that it is their determination to establish a more liberal government, and place themselves under the protection and patronage of the United States.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years; travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

Ouer gray, red and sandy heads of hair. The obnoxious hue is wiped out in five minutes, and a magnificent brown or black, glossy and natural, takes its place. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. my29

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heartburn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m19dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR LADIES' HIGH GRADE QUALITY GOLD WATCH is not P. S. Bartlett's in similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF OF the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Duros's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 25 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

Local.

☞ Our public-spirited correspondent "B." suggests that as the "watering" season (we hope he doesn't speak ironically here,) is about to commence, it would improve the appearance of our good city, if the streets were swept and tidied a little, tree boxes repaired and painted green, &c, and would make the place more attractive to native and strangers, — pleasure-seekers. — But what is the use to talk to young men (in pants or petticoats,) who while they denounce "the old fogies who kill Portsmouth," actually haven't got spunk enough themselves, to start a street sprinkler! Oh no "it won't pay" to do anything of the kind B. talks of—not for such folks.

☞ The pay-roll at the Yard for the month of May foots up upwards $163,000, as we are informed. About 2800 workmen received this amount of money, although during the last month this force has been lessened about 800, leaving nearly 2000 persons at present employed there.

☞ We believe the type for the Stars and Bars newspaper is now set up again at the old office in this city; and the forms sent to Manchester to be printed, as the press has not yet recovered from the damage at the riot. But we would suggest that, to save trouble, any Number be stereotyped, seeing that they all contain little besides abuse of the government, and laments for the late democratic party, and defence of the villains of the still later Conthieveracy. Oh, yes, we forgot—the Bars man has got one new idea—and yet not so new with him, either—we refer to the suggestions of repudiation. Well, what better could be expected from a fellow who repudiates and forswears an Ink debt of honor, of his own? The Stars is also greatly troubled about taxes, &c. We wonder how much tax that concern pays, or its read-out-able editor? Why, the heaviest owner last year only had $500 income, you know.

☞ Mr. Joy's Concert, Wednesday evening, passed off well, but was hardly up to the mark of his first. The selection of pieces was not so popular, nor was there so much enthusiasm in the performers or audience. It was a very successful entertainment, however; and his devotion to his pupils merits a full class on Saturday.

☞ The valiant General, our friend of the Ballot, is in error, and wastes his effervescent patriotism, when he speaks of the Horse Guards' "attempting to secure State aid towards defraying the expense of their holiday exhibitions." The Guards have spent say $10,000 in honoring the State officials with an escort, for the last few years; and all they now ask is, that when they are ordered out by the Governor, for this or any other service, they may receive the same pay as other State Militia, as is the case with the Boston Lancers, and with all other similar Companies under the sun, so far as we know. We don't see that the fostering a creditable Militia need interfere at all with giving all due honor to our real soldiers who have smelt gunpowder and stopped cold lead. Nor do we see wherein the Horse Guards deserve any such sneers as the editor of the paper referred to bestows on them.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band has had many applications for their services on the coming National Independence day, embracing offers from cities extending between Bangor and Boston. They have accepted an engagement to play for the city of Lynn on that day.

☞ The Steamer Alice Riggs, that has been so long talked about to run between Portsmouth and Boston, the Ballot correspondent says, has gone up a spout. He must mean a water-spout, of course.

☞ The steamer Pioneer has commenced her regular trips to the Sho—no, to Smith's Isles; and the hacks have commenced their regular trips between the wharf and the depot.

☞ Mr. Carter has leased and fitted up finely, the lovely grove on the the hill, just this side of Sagamore Creek, for public use for Pic-nics, &c. In the dreary absence of all parks or special promenades in our good city, the Sagamore Grove, if rightly appreciated and conducted, should prove a public convenience and benefit. It is one of the most charming retreats in this vicinity, and just the distance for a pretty walk. See Mr. Carter's advertisement—and go and see his grove the the first chance you have.

☞ A friend of ours, noted for his quick wit, while reading a paper yesterday, came to an advertisement of "Paradise Lost," wherein the following line occurred, "Rebellion in Heaven." "You can rest assured that won't last long,—Uncle Abe is there now," said he.

— The Credit Immobiliere, a French joint stock company, owns $25,000,000 worth of real estate at Paris and Marseilles.

— The number of letters passing through the French post-office increased from 28,000,000 in 1815, to 250,000,000 in 1861.

HON. JOHN P. HALE, Minister to Spain, leaves with his family for the court of Madrid about June 21st. The Dover correspondent of the Manchester Mirror says;

"Mr. Hale will, undoubtedly, represent the interests of the United States with signal ability and success. Whatever may be the difference of opinion as to his action in 'local matters,' in New Hampshire, no one should question Mr. Hale's ability, integrity and influence, nor forget his services to the cause of freedom for years past, dating from the earliest struggles to the present time. In the darkest days, no one stood up more manfully, or maintained himself more successfully against pro-slavery issue and Southern fire eaters than Senator Hale. Local prejudices have alienated some of his old friends from him, but they should remember that 'just criticism and personal regard, are possible together and not necessarily antagonistic.'

☞ At a recent meeting of the Grand Council of the Union League Association of Massachusetts, resolutions appropriately noticing the death of President Lincoln were adopted. It was also voted to recommend to the Subordinate Councils of the Union Leagues in the State, that they prepare, circulate among the people for signatures, and forward to the Congress of the United States, at its next session, petitions, respectfully praying that a proposition be submitted to the several States, for an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall declare and provide that persons of one color or race shall not be excluded from any political rights or privileges possessed by persons of any other color or race.

— An attempt was made at Chicago on Saturday night last to murder J. Winslow Ayre, an important witness against the Knights of the Golden Circle.

— Speaker Colfax and party arrived at Salt Lake on the 11th inst. A meeting of 3000 people was addressed by Mr. Colfax on the night of the 13th.

— The papers give an important declaration by Senator John Sherman of Ohio, for negro suffrage. That eminent statesman has been heretofore reckoned a pretty strict conservative—and so he is, and true conservatism calls the loudest for negro suffrage, or rather for loyal suffrage only.

— The apportionment of the balance of national currency to banks has been determined, and $43,000,000 only remain to be distributed pro rata to the various States.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7 30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents " " " " $100
Ten " " " " $500
20 " " " " $1000
$1 " " " " $5000

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 36 feet on the Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 8 der the Act of 1837.]
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on the shortest terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unnecessarily superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind at all the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a very ample collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

To this he adds an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here avoided.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all kinds of business, for patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

The Old Established Hospital,
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the latest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of the terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—with 125 plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published. Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr Teller has devoted a lifetime to the care of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. Teller still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a safe remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

Caution.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons are disclosed which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines sent everywhere from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No assistants or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, 7 and 8 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practice of several years, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to effect a speedy and permanent cure.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will find furnished with private rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for their use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1835, having confined his whole attention to his profession for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

MENDELSSOHN'S HYMN OF PRAISE, (Lobgesang), than which no great musical work could be more expressive of what is in all true American hearts at this time, was composed to celebrate the invention of the art of Printing; to give eclat to the inauguration of the statue of Guttenberg, at Leipsic, on the 25th of June, 1840,. Praise and gratitude to God for Light—light spiritual and intellectual—the waiting and longing for light through all the long night of the dark ages—the break of Day, the free career and joy of a redeemed Humanity, and first and last and throughout everywhere the Praise of God: such were the themes and promptings of Mendelsohn's heart and genius when he composed the Lobgesang, perhaps the most felicitous and most inspiring of his larger works.

— An English paper says that Mr. William Darling, —whose name, though not perhaps so bright as that of his daughter, Grace, will live in the records of heroism for the splendid venture by which nine of the persons wrecked with the Forfarshire steamer were saved—died on Sunday, May 28th, at Banborough, in Northumberland.

— It is reported that Colonel D. H. Strother, "Porte Crayon," will shortly be appointed to a diplomatic position abroad, as a recognition of his important services in the field and the great sacrifices made by himself and his father in clinging to the Union cause in spite of the secession of their State of Virginia.

— A young lady whose "cruel parients" had interfered with a love affair in which she was interested, jumped into the canal at Newark, New Jersey, recently. Two gentlemen fished her out, and were soundly berated for their pains, after which the damsel was sent home to be dried.

—Delaney, the Maine bounty-broker, who was proved to have cleared over $100,000, and who is understood to have received the severest verdict awarded by any court-martial which has had cognizance of this class of offences, has been unconditionally pardoned by the President.

— There was a pleasant meeting at West Point, one day last week, between Generals Scott and Grant. Gen. Scott was 78 on Tuesday.

— By the fires at Mobile and at Nashville the government has lost from fifteen to twenty millions of dollars.

— A sporting man wants to know if they call Government funds the 7-30 loan because it goes so fast?

— The Emperor Maximilian has just assigned himself a salary of two million dollars per year from the Mexican treasury.

If a man has a great idea of himself, it is certain to be the only great idea he ever will have.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT in the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Rapid. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of materials, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.
Grocers use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. For forty cents will buy enough to fill forty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the artist, to the miner, to the far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Frot. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands for freezing and the mines, to far off countries.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without it. I remain, yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing, and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powders a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever saw. I have used J. Moor's Marking Ink & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, O. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1865.

— The Richmond Times says it is stated that seventy-five pieces of property in Richmond have been already libeled for confiscation; which is only a beginning.

— The N. Y. Herald's New Orleans correspondence of the 1st inst. says: "In a short time 25,000 Southerners from Texas will be in Mexico, and the leading men will have no sympathy with Maximilian."

— The Herald's special Washington dispatch says it is confidently expected that, instead of a large return of our securities from abroad, there will be an increased demand.

— The Herald's Chattanooga correspondence says the numerous and pestilent bands of guerrillas in Southern Tennessee, Northern Georgia and Alabama have quietly dispersed and gone home.

— The depution of freedmen from Richmond, Va., had an interview with President Johnson Friday morning. He promised that the evils of which they complained would be remedied.

— A portion of the Michigan State Prison, in Jackson, was burned Thursday night. Loss to the State about $40,000; to business houses adjacent, about $110,000.

— The Secretary of the Treasury telegraphs to the Collector of the port of New York, that the proclamation removes all restrictions on products and all trade, except in contraband articles east of the Mississippi.

— A fight between Cortinas and Lopez, about 25 miles from Matamoras, on the 3d, is reported, and Lopez is said to have been beaten, although he was afterward reinforcing in season to check the advance of Cortinas.

☞ Gold in New York, Friday morning, at 145 1-2 a 144 3-4.

☞ The Anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill is to be more generally observed than usual all over the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to-day. Indeed, it will be almost a holiday there.

— Jamaica dates of the 6th inst. state that there are many cases of hydrophobia among animals, and the sugar crop will be materially injured. The Kingston Journal says: "Frightful accounts are given by a gentleman from St. Thomas East, of the ravages of small pox in that parish, and mortality among the laboring classes. In the interior districts the people have been dying like rotten sheep, and those afflicted with the small pox are exposed on the highway, there being no place provided for their reception by the authorities."

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—Wednesday, 14th in the House, numerous petitions were presented, from various towns, for a law to enable towns to refund money to drafted men.

Petition presented of Jesse Mann of Bath and others, that a resolution may be passed instructing our Senators and Representatives to urge in Congress the passage of a bill subjecting U. S. bonds and securities to taxation.

The Committee on Finance reported a bill authorizing a temporary loan of 1,500,000 upon the best terms and conditions feasible, and in such sums as may be needed, not to run for over one year.

The Committee on the Judiciary reported a bill to further extend an act for the suspension of specie payments by banks.

Mr. Adams, of Manchester, called the attention of the House to the fact that a practical repeal of the usury laws, was a matter of necessity; that towns, cities, counties and perhaps individuals be allowed to pay and receive more than six per cent. interest, for a time at least.

The House voted to pay its members $3 per day for 25 days' service, and after that not to pay them anything.

Bills were introduced—by Mr. Wheeler, of Dover, to incorporate the Kingman High School—to provide for the disposal and support of paupers, making all paupers in its results County paupers.

By Mr. Haven, of Portsmouth, a bill relating to the Police Court in the city of Portsmouth.

By Mr. Stevens, of Portsmouth, a bill in relation to the public schools of Portsmouth.

By Mr. Willard, of Keene,—a bill to establish the rates at which polls shall be reckoned in making and assessing taxes.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— At Hillsborough Bridge, on Tuesday night, a man named Abner Gould was burnt or smothered to death by the burning of his house.

—— The death of Hattie Tasker, wife of Gen. Joseph C. Abbott of the 7th N. H. V., at Wilmington, N. C., on the 12 inst., is announced. The particulars of her death are not learned. She was in perfect health when heard from a week ago.

—— Green peas of home growth were for sale in Manchester on the 14th.

—— The New Hampshire Universalist State Convention will be held at Paper Mill Village, near Rochester, on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

DR. HALL'S REPORT.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
Portsmouth, N. H., June 15, 1865.

Brig. Gen. James B. Fry, Provost Marshal General:—In obedience to orders from your office, I have the honor to submit the following detailed report.

I have been Surgeon of the Board of Enrolment of the First District of New Hampshire during the entire period of its existence, two years and one month. I myself have examined most of the men presented for physical examination at this office, and have assisted nearly all the examinations made by my assistant.

The whole number of Drafted Men, Volunteers and Substitutes so examined is about ten thousand.

My "experience" leads me to the unequivocal conclusion that the position of a Surgeon of a Board of Enrolment is not to be envied: that it is one necessarily environed with many delicate, perplexing and responsible duties: one of much physical labor and mental anxiety, requiring tact, knowledge, fidelity, honesty and patriotism in a Surgeon to discharge its duties with success to the Government and credit to himself. I think it has been well said, that "Surgeons are influenced in the performance of the responsible duties pertaining to their position, rather from a desire to save the Country, than the meagre compensation received for their services."

This District embraces the Southern and Eastern portions of the State, and thence, bordering on the State of Maine, running North about one hundred miles, to near the base of the White Mountains. It contains the Counties of Rockingham, Strafford, Belknap and Carroll. The Southern portion of the District is somewhat level, the middle and Northern portions are broken and mountainous. It has nearly every variety of soil. The cold rock soil of the mountain top and slopes, the moist warm rocky soil of the wide spreading hillsides, the rich dark loamy soil of the intervale lands upon the rivers, and the sandy soil of the plains.

The inhabitants of the District enjoy, in a large degree, the blessings of good water and pure and salubrious air. They will compare favorably with those of any other locality, in habits of sobriety, temperance, industry and morality; frugal in their modes of living, and eminently unitarian in their labors. A large portion of them are laborers, cultivators of the soil. The remaining portion are operatives in the Cotton and Woolen mills, shoe manufactories and laborers in almost every branch of mechanical arts, with the usual relative proportions of the different professions. There is still another class, quite too large:—the gentlemanly and ungentlemanly "loafers."

There is a great difference in the amount of sickness during the different months of the year. The steady cold bracing air of January and February is usually attended with little sickness, while with the warmer and more changeable months of March and April, with the dampness occasioned by the melting snow, there is frequent influenza, pneumonia, inflammation of the throat, and acute rheumatism. The months of May, June and July are comparatively healthy, the most common sickness being a mild form of bilious fever.

There is again more sickness in August and September, principally entiric or typhoid fever, typhus fever and dysentery. Those months afford more professional business to practicing physicians than any other two months of the year. November and December are healthy months. June and November afford the least professional business.

The prevalent influenza and inflammatory troubles are the result of East winds, impregnated at this place to a less degree with the salt vapor from the ocean. Pneumonia seems to result (as its exciting cause at least) from the extreme vicissitudes of the temperature of the atmosphere. If uric or lactic acid in excess in the system is the cause of rheumatism, it would seem that the damp cold atmosphere of Spring is at least an exciting cause and favorable to its development.

The cause of entiric or typhoid fever seems to be a deranged and vitiated condition of the fluids of the system, made so by the heat of summer and the sudden suppression of perspiration by damp chilly nights, the vitiated fluids being thrown upon the alimentary mucous membrane and into the glands along the small intestines, causing inflammation and ulceration, and generating a poison that may produce typhus fever.

Typhus fever is doubtless caused by a morbid poison that arises from the decomposition of animal matter, and perhaps largely from exhalations from animal secretions. Being the result of filth and uncleanliness, it may be generated in any place or department where there is sufficient animal filth, without pure air—the idio-miasmata being taken into the system by the stomach, lungs or skin, mingling with and decomposing the blood, changing the pabulum of life into a poison for the brain, the great generator of vitality.

Dysentery, in its simple form, as inflammation of the mucous membrane of the large intestines, is, without doubt, caused by the cold nights, succeeding the hot days of Autumn.

The malignant form of dysentery is caused by the improper and meagre diet, with insufficient clothing among the poorer classes, and by improper confinement from the air among the more wealthy ones. In my judgment, scrofula finds a powerful agency to its production in the filthy, damp air of low marshy localities. It is my experience that scrofula is quite common in such localities suffer most from this disease.

The fearfully prevalent habit of masturbation is a common cause of feebleness in many young men. Commenced at an early age, it debilitates and deranges the nervous system, as manifested by the head-ache, palpitation, night-sweats, listlessness and downcast eye.

The almost universal use of tobacco by our young men of sedentary habits, and those mechanics and operatives who are closely confined to labor in heated apartments, as are most of our shoemakers, is productive of great injury to health, and was the sole disqualifying cause for military duty in very many cases that came before me.

In my judgment, the different sections under Paragraph 85, of the Revised Regulations, have been carefully and successfully prepared. I do not incline to recommend much change. I have found but little embarrassment in determining whether a man, in my opinion, should be held or exempted under them. In amendment of Section 12, I would suggest the propriety of exempting a man for the loss of the sight of either eye. He must be constantly embarrassed and in danger of receiving injury: having but one eye to light his path through the world, he ought to be allowed the best possible chance of retaining that.

I think the distinction drawn between the right and left hand in Section 33, erroneous. I am unable to understand how a soldier can well handle a musket, after he has met with the entire loss of either thumb, or with permanent contraction or permanent extension of two fingers of the same hand, either right or left.

The manner of conducting examinations in this office is as follows: After the Provost Marshal has taken the roll of the drafted men, and made such record as he desires, he directs him to pass behind a certain suspended from a wire drawn across one end of a large room. I then direct him to remove all his clothing. By a sliding scale fastened against the wall, I take his height. I then pass a tailor's tape around his chest, just above the nipples, and take its size. I then direct him to expand the chest, and, if he does not readily understand, (as is often the case,) I spend a little time in giving him the necessary instructions. Then I note down the number of inches over the size of the chest, as expansion. He is now told to show his chest, and be examined. He is carefully examined for all the disqualifying causes he may claim to have, and his certificates, if he has any, are examined. When I am satisfied, I state his case briefly to the Board, with advice to exempt or not exempt.

The examination of volunteers and substitutes is necessarily quite different from that of drafted men. The Provost Marshal takes the name of the substitute or volunteer, and subjects him to a series of very searching inquiries to learn his history and probable character. If the Marshal thinks him a fit subject for examination, he directs him to pass behind the curtain and be examined by the Surgeon. I direct him to take off all his clothing. I then take his height, the size of his chest and its expansion in the same way above described for drafted men. He is then directed to raise the arms high above the head and retain them there (for the purpose of bringing the abdominal muscles tense,) while I examine through three times forcibly. If I have any suspicion of hernia, I pass a finger with a fold of the scrotum up the ring, and the man is directed to cough again until I am satisfied. I make this examination for hernia thus early, that it may not be forgotten or passed over lightly while the mind is considering other defects, and that I may learn from the man having hernia had ascertained that it is a disqualifying infirmity, and that their object is to reduce it, and so conceal it as to be accepted, enlist and secure large bounties, knowing that they can readily reproduce it and be discharged from the service. I then examine the head, ears and teeth, and spine; then, causing the man to bend forward sufficiently, I examine the rectum. I then draw down the upper lid of one eye with the fingers of one hand, and hold up one or more fingers of the other, making various changes in the number of fingers so held up, and requiring the man to count them correctly a sufficient number of times. The other eye is examined in the same way. If, from the appearance of the eye, I suspect nearsightedness, I direct him to tell me what he sees on the paper on the opposite side of the room. Upon that side of the room I have caused to be pasted letters of the alphabet in different colors, the figure of a watch-face, a representation of the human hand, &c., and I require him to answer my questions respecting the character, number, size, color and locality of the various figures he sees there.—I then require him to shut the hands, first the fore-arm upon the breast, carry the hands behind the back and raise them high over the head, to flex the leg upon the thigh, kick forcibly, stand upon the toes and then stand upon the heels. I direct him to jump three times, as high as he can. I then put my ear to the chest to ascertain if there is cardiac or pulmonary disease. If I find any doubt upon the question, I direct him to go down over two long flights of stairs, and run up to me quickly, and then re-examine for heart-disease and asthma. If there is emaciation, pallor or wasting of muscle, I examine carefully for tubercular disease, and conclude my examination with an inspection of the genital organs. I then feel prepared to recommend his acceptance or rejection.

An examination conducted in this manner, with proper care and zeal, cannot fail to test the soundness of the viscera, the mobility of all the joints, the size, length and symmetry of the limbs, to expose all the disqualifying infirmities, and determine the true physical capacity of the man for military duty.

A Surgeon without assistance can, I think, examine fifty men daily, with sufficient particularity.

I am sorry to say that drafted men have not generally had sufficient patriotism to deter them from gross exaggerations of their real or supposed diseases. They come to me fed with elaborate certificates from sympathizing friends, kind-hearted family physicians, stupid quacks, and the learned homeopathist who testified to the appalling infirmity of "paralysis of the scrotum."

There are but few diseases or infirmities for which a certificate should be received,—such as Epilepsy, Insanity, Asthma, and perhaps a few others. Most of the certificates offered are calculated to mislead the drafted man, by an exaggeration of his difficulties: they are of no benefit to the Surgeon, and are, consequently, worse than useless.

But, notwithstanding the multitudinous complaints preferred, a Surgeon, actuated by a patriotic desire to faithfully serve his government, and by a conscientious concern to do full justice to the drafted man, always giving the man the benefit of a strong doubt, will seldom find himself much embarrassed in his efforts to arrive at a correct decision.

While drafted men seem anxious to make the most of their ailments, they seldom attempt a direct fraud.

The case is very different with those who offer themselves as volunteer recruits or substitutes. No amount of deception is too great, and no fraud too vile for them to practice. Large numbers of old men present themselves with the hair dyed, and with the whiskers and moustache either dyed or shaven off. It is not difficult to distinguish hair that has been been colored: if any doubt exists, the hair upon the body will settle the question.

Many boys also, from fourteen to twenty years of age, have presented themselves for examination and enlistment. It is painful to witness the moral turpitude they exhibit in the false representations they have been induced to make respecting their ages and places of residence. They have generally been summarily rejected. There seems to be but little danger that the Surgeon will be imposed upon by their false statements.

Men who have hernia become skillful in reducing and retaining it while being examined; but violent coughing is likely to expose the deception, and occasionally jumping has brought down the hernia.

Attempts to conceal the blindness of an eye are often made, but the method of examination above described never fails to detect it.

It is difficult to distinguish any marked distinction in the apparent physical aptitude of the Irish, French, Scotch, American and English for military service. I am inclined to regard the Irish, English and Scotch as having the most desirable height for a soldier, the largest vitality,—consequently the greatest power of endurance. They have sinewy limbs and close joints. The American is too tall, and has a flat chest. The Englishman is inclined to too great weight, and is clumsy; the German too much fat, with loose muscular fibre, consequently to varicose veins and large abdominal rings.—he has also too large legs, with flat and deformed feet. The Irish have presented themselves; they were of desirable stature, and excelled in symmetry.

My experience in the examination of colored men is limited. A few only have offered themselves, and most of those were of mixed blood. Of these presented, the stature has been good, the development of the chest and limbs have presented no defect. They appeared like strong men, and I see no valid reason why they should not make efficient soldiers, and, on meeting the white man in single combat, I think the negro might prove to have some "rights which the white man" might feel "bound to respect." I have been unable to detect any difference in the aptitude of the white man and the colored man to understand the directions and perform the various motions required in my examination.

Drafted men, with few exceptions, have reported promptly, cheerfully submitted to the required examinations, and acquiesced in the decisions of the Board. One appeal only has been taken, and that one was not sustained.

I am not aware that I can make any suggestions, or recommend any changes which which will add to the efficiency of the Enrollment Act. The greatest difficulty in keeping a correct enrollment is experienced in ascertaining when young men become twenty years of age. Whenever enrolled men are already non-residents, or have arrived at the age of forty-five, the Board are pretty sure to be impressed with the fact; but when young men reach the age of twenty, both themselves and their friends become mysteriously reticent upon the subject.

The examination of so large a number of men by a Surgeon interested in his profession is necessarily attended with much that is interesting, as well as much that is perplexing and laborious. Almost every variety and stage of chronic disease, and the result of almost every kind of injury is presented, affording thomas for interesting and profitable enquiry and study. It has been interesting to note the various types and grades of intellectual development,—from the brain of the mental imbecile up to that sufficient for the philosopher and the statesman. It is a notable and a painful fact, however, that a large intellectual endowment has seemed to be no guaranty against vicious habits.

It has been pleasing to witness the ever-changing forms of physical development, from the broad chest, narrow hips, flat muscular limbs, and the highest types of strength and symmetry afforded by masculine development, down through every gradation of change, till the distinction is lost in the narrow chest, broad hips, the well-rounded limbs and rotund abdomen of the female—the still higher, the highest type of symmetrical beauty. One instance only has occurred where Dame Nature seems for a time to have forgotten her handicraft, or worked as an apprentice, and made a complete hermaphrodite.

Being about to close my official connection with the Government, I cannot conclude this, my last report, without an expression of a few general and miscellaneous thoughts.

It is impossible to find language with which suitably to denounce that base and cowardly act which deprived us of our late Chief Magistrate. But we turn from the painful contemplation of such a scene to the pleasing and encouraging exhibition, patent to all, of a Nation mourning his death as a national calamity, and the people mourning, as over a private and domestic affliction, the loss of a good man, and great benefactor to the race.

The overthrow of a rebellion so widespread, so well organized, and so gigantic, is cause for deep, heartfelt and lasting gratitude. With a righteous execution of our laws against treason, a wise judicial and political reorganization of the States that seceded, we may rest in the happy assurance that this country will not soon again feel the shock of rebellion.

Reflecting minds cannot fail to be convinced that the cruel rebellion through which we have been struggling, had its origin in the antagonism of real or supposed interests, growing out of the different systems of free labor at the North and slave labor at the South, and that "irrepressible conflict" of ideas growing out of the different social conditions and educational systems which are the direct result of those different systems of labor.

In the reorganization and reconstruction of the rebel States, let us bury in one common grave—deep down with the rebellion, the idea that there is degradation in honest labor, that it is dangerous to our liberties to educate the masses, or that there is ever to be a nobility in this country, save what springs from talent, virtue and personal worth. Inasmuch as the people of the rebel States chose the arbitrement of arms, and, as the conquered party have lost all right to dictate the terms of reconstruction and reorganization; in Heaven's name let the perfect equality of every man's rights under the law be established, in the terms of reconstruction, rather than left as a disturbing element for other conflicts. May we not hope that Congress will settle this question of equal rights, wisely, and at the very threshold of reconstruction: otherwise this nation has had a baptism of blood in vain. Let us dare to do justly, and fear to do unjustly, to the colored men of this country, who, during the fearful struggle have been loyal and true the Union; and when the battle waxed hot, deadly, and apparently doubtful, bared their breasts to the bayonets and turned the tide of battle in our favor. Let us turn their gaze—so long directed to the dim distant North Star in the heavens—to at least one bright star in our country's flag, all their own, and bid them hope, that ere long hereafter, they shall own themselves, their wives and their children, and the fruits of their honest toil; then, having subdued the rebellion, having taught traitors a lasting lesson, taught them the dignity of labor, having made the means of education universal, and given to every man liberty and equal rights under the law, until he forfeits them by crime, we may hope, with the immense resources of our country, still further to be developed, and with the blessing of Heaven, to go on in such a career of prosperity and greatness as the world has never yet seen.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years: traveling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our people are subject to a more unusual amount of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and uneasiness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most interested to avoid. Those who have kept "anores," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty, and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Local.

☞ On Thursday, at the request of several excited, jealous, and unreasonable Irishmen, — the City authorities made a more thorough investigation into the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Geo. Lane; which resulted as did the first, in the entire exculpation of the husband, from any suspicion even. One would suppose, from the fuss the Irish make, that a drunken husy was of great importance, instead of an intolerable nuisance to all concerned. Mr. Lane is a Protestant, and has a lot in the South Cemetery, but in accordance with his wife's known wishes, designed to bury her in the Catholic grounds; but he was refused permission to enter the church for the funeral or the cemetery for burial—the rules of the Church forbidding the rites to persons dy-intoxicated.

A coroner's inquest was held upon the body of the woman on Thursday, and resulted in a verdict, the substance of which was that "her death was caused by heart disease, aggravated by liquor."

☞ Mr. Head says that the person who starts a Celebration in Portsmouth, must make up his mind to work like a dog for two or three weeks, day and night; raise the funds the best way he can, and pay the bills—pay everybody but himself. If he don't have enough money, put his hands in his own pocket—as he has done a number of times to the amount of $20 or $30 for each occasion. If, after serving an apprenticeship of that kind a number of years, he concludes such kind of services ought to be paid for, he must be very careful he don't charge over what an Irishman gets per hour for shoveling coal, or he will be called mean and devoid of all patriotism and public spirit.

☞ The Ballot's joking Portsmouth correspondent says, "Dr. Baker has laid an egg—on the table of the Editor of the Journal. The funny part of the affair is, that it had no yolk. Taken as a whole, it was an egg straordinary production." Eggsactly so.

The same writer observes that "the Chronicle publishes a list of people who sell or mortgage their real estate, taken from the records of deeds at Exeter, and suggests that "it might be well to add, for the benefit of the curious, a list of those who mortgage personal property, from the City Records." Well, so it might, and where would be the objection? Certainly, only from people of false pretensions; for only "those who deeds are evil," fear the light, in such cases.

POLICE COURT, June 15.—The unique apartment in the attic of the Court House, used for a Police Court room, savored strongly of cheap whiskey and guano this morning, in consequence of the presence of a number of liquor distilleries, as follows:

One Moses Mann (of Portsmouth) unmanned himself, disgraced his parents, dishonored his name, stained his escutcheon, soiled his garments, enlarged his head, and got locked up,—all for being drunk; and as misfortunes never come singly, to clinch the thing, Moses was fined $3 and costs, $3.86. There is a limit to almost everything, including this man's purse; so, in default of the $6.86, he was committed.

Thomas C. Cooroy was sent to jail, he having been attacked in the same manner as M. M., and at the same time—being afflicted with the same impecuniosity, and unable to furnish the inevitable $3 and $3.86.

Robert Bell, drunkenness, fined $3 and costs, $3.86.

George McDonald, intoxication, fined $1 and costs, $4 80.

James Hurley, a burly fellow, but nevertheless guilty of the weakness common to a large proportion of individuals of his habits, —drunkenness—was mulcted in a fine of $3 and costs $3.86.

Michael Garvin, not arraigned for drunkenness, but doubtless inspired by the exhilarating force of r. g. gin—was inclined to make a noise; which culminated in a tumultuous barangue, or protest, the sentiment of which we did not learn, but understand that the otherwise fair name of Michael was blotted by the record of $3 and $3.86, for brawl and tumult.

June 16.—Charles T. Lang and George F. Balch, charged with maliciously girdling and otherwise injuring some shade trees on the premises of Mr. Samuel Langdon, were ordered to recognize in the sum of $100 each for their appearance on the 1st of July.

Alexander Duncan, drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

James Green was given enough to drink of the cup of poison until he was forced to make his bed in the street, where he was found by the police and assisted to a hotel, his name registered, and everything needful done for him. Many complaints are made in regard to the high prices charged at the above-mentioned house, and with some cause, we must admit. For instance, they charge for a night's lodging and breakfast $6.86 and upwards, which is rather exorbitant when we consider how gold has fallen. But we digress. James was fined as usual, for being found as above.

George McDonald, foolish fellow, did not profit by his experience of yesterday, but again got drunk, and was this time fined $5 and costs $3.86.

☞ Mrs. E. A. Bliss, a fine Inspirational Speaker, will address the Spiritualists, and all who care to hear, at the Temple, to-morrow Afternoon and Evening (Sunday.) 1t

☞ The valuable and interesting detailed Report of Dr. Hall, of the Provost Marshal's office, which we are kindly permitted to publish this morning; and which we give in full, to the exclusion of other matters—is well worth a careful reading by all. The Doctor, who is a gentleman of large experience and close observation, gives some facts and conclusions, of importance to young men and the community in general.

MASONIC.—The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons held its annual convocation at Concord on Tuesday. John Knowlton of this city, was elected E. G. T.

The M. W. Grand Lodge held its annual communication at the same place on Wednesday. The attendance was very large and the deliberations of the body were entirely harmonious. A charter was granted for a new Lodge at Ossipee, and dispensations extended to the Lodges in Alton and Epping. John Knowlton was elected R. W. G. T. for the ensuing year. The following appointments were made:

Wm. P. Walker, of Portsmouth, R. W. Dist. Dep. Grand Master, District No. 1. Thos. Spurlin, of Dover, District No 2.

John R. Holbrook, of Portsmouth, Grand Lecturer, District No. 1. Oliver Wyatt, of Dover, District No 2.

— The Times' special Washington despatch says the battle-monuments recently erected on the Bull Run battle fields, have been destroyed by the inhabitants in the vicinity. Our soldiers are greatly exasperated, and threaten to leave no vestiges of civilization for 20 miles square in the region.

The last of Sherman's army left Washing for the West Thursday.

— Rio Janeiro papers of the 7th of May announce the termination of the war with Uruguay, and it was thought pending hostilities with Paraguay would soon also terminate.

The City Physician shall receive for his services in attending the sick at the Almshouse, and paupers not in the Almshouse, the sum of one hundred dollars per annum.

The City Clerk shall receive in addition to the fees by law allowed the sum of one thousand dollars per annum.

The Town Clerks of Wards No. 1, 2 & 3 shall receive in full for their services in attending Ward Meetings, recording the proceedings of the annual election, and two dollars and fifty cents for each and all other meetings in the year, and recording the proceedings of the same. All disbursements of each other meetings are to be considered a separate meeting.

The Street Commissioner shall receive in full for his services the sum of five hundred dollars per annum, that whenever the Mayor of the City shall perform the duties of said office the salary shall not exceed one hundred dollars per annum.

The Physician of the Board of Health Officers shall receive in full from the City for all services required of him as a member of said Board the sum of fifty dollars per annum; and the other members of the Board shall each receive the sum of thirty dollars per annum, which respective sums shall be in addition to the legal fees to which the members of said Board may be entitled from any individuals or parties other than the City.

The pay of the Surveyors of Highways shall be two dollars per day for every day actually employed.

The City Solicitor shall receive for his services as City Solicitor, and for all duties appertaining to said office, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum; and when his attendance is required out of the City, his reasonable traveling expenses shall be allowed him.

There the sum of ten dollars shall be paid each per annum, be allowed in full for lighting the Street Lamps and cleaning the lanterns; the service to be performed under the direction of the Committee on Gas Lights.

This Ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage.

Passed May 1, 1865.

MARCELLUS BUFFORD, City Clerk.

NEW SCHOOL SYSTEM IN PORTSMOUTH.

On Wednesday last, Mr. Stevens of Portsmouth introduced into the Legislature a bill providing for the election of the School Committee of this city, and for the disbursement of the school money. The main features of the bill are as follows:

A general School Committee of eighteen is to be elected at the annual City election—six from each ward next November, of whom two are to serve for one year; two for two years, and two for three years; their term of office to begin in January, 1866. Thereafter each ward is to elect two members annually, who are to serve for three years. The whole board will constitute a Committee for the general oversight of all the school affairs of the city. Sub committees are to be assigned to the oversight of the several schools, provision for the High Schools to be made the same as for schools of lower grades, which dispenses with the present High School Committee. The school districts into which the City is now divided will thus be entirely abolished. The money will be drawn from the City as needed and placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Committee, who is to give bonds for not less than $7000. The committee are to make their annual report to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have the advantage for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

Advantage of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in due form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which Patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at as reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications for FIFTEEN ADDITIONAL YEARS, of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. Having had the benefit of the practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have been found the first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret habit, which so much ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's care more a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Chapelets, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1834, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and working wells, was known to some of the gentlemen promoters in starting out many years ago as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the property they did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Hon. W. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Mr. Daniel Hamilton, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the last year to the Stevens Farm, known as the Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The boy's lies the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on the side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have been made. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—this flowing 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells sunk on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is now held by the Company is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $1 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs less than $200 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. In the Oil Belt, on Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of the Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richly in the oil region, and possess all features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent more time than any other man in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally in the valleys of the East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Harris, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if not equal to the best of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 12 wells, and 12 good wells would make a fortune. Just the computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they were good wells, is three times the cost of the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is more than double that the Company do not expect any such results, but more than these facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the oil belt to Watts Farm, East from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately been worked with good success, and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally wel. to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 100 barrels daily, the battery that flows 500, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The excitement will be not. It began to flow about the middle of January, and will its Fountain rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 200 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the rocker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The Byles Farm will have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundant flowing. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is pushing down a well that looks already better than the Fraser well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Fraser and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm. It is well wooded, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, lease for ninety years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, each down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as freely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 340 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and flooded it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they stee rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the coal can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1865: 167. No. 120.

The Chronicle.

☞ We have received the first annual report of the State Auditor, as submitted to the Legislature, a document of considerable length and marked ability, throwing much light on the condition of our State finances and the demands of the hour. Mr. Rinlett, in his new and untried position, has acquitted himself with infinite credit to himself, and very general acceptance to the public.

The extraordinary demands upon the State for State bounties, State aid and miscellaneous war claims, have compelled unprecedented expenditures of money, and the borrowing of still larger sums, which provision must now be made to meet—the State tax for 1863 being wholly absorbed with nearly $40,000 additional,in reimbursing the aid paid out by cities and towns to the families of volunteers. Bounties to the amount of $1,779,500 have been paid during the year to soldiers, a large portion of this amount being adjusted by State notes that will mature the present year.

With regard to State aid, the Auditor states that the amount reimbursed to cities and towns for the sums advanced by them for the year preceding May 1, 1854, was $537,077.63. A tax of $130,363.97 has been levied upon the railroads of the State and paid in during the past year. The State retains under the law $69,210.84 of this tax, and the balance, $61,153.13, has been distributed among the cities and towns entitled thereto.

Estimates are next submitted for the current year which show,

Ordinary expenditures,	$206,050.
Extraordinary expenditures,	3,369,000.
Total,	$3,575,050.
Estimated receipts	$930,600

The amount of bonds sold, authorized by the last Legislature, he reports at only $424,000, and suggests the propriety of issuing other bonds whose intrinsic value shall make a more tempting investment than the last year's bonds have been.

GENERAL HOOKER VINDICATED. The Congressional Committee on the Conduct of the War, after careful and extended examination, vindicate Gen. Hooker from the charge of being under the influence of liquor at the battle of Chancellorsville, and call Henry Ward Beecher sharply to account for lending the story the influence of his name.

A GOOD THING.—The New Hampshire farmers are beginning to send their butter to Boston market in a new car, which has an inside lining of an inch board, placed three inches from the outside covering; the space between is packed with sawdust, making five inches in thickness for the ends, roof, and sides of the cars, entirely protecting the contents from heat in the warmest weather. The doors are also double.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Its convenience. A child can carry to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with the ink fill the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleaned my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever saw. There is no pale Ink in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours, GEO. H. HOLMES.
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co, Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent me, and say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what i should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community that need your discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1865.

☞ A delegation of colored men, who arrived at Washington on Wednesday from Richmond, were at the White House on Thursday, awaiting an interview with the President for the purpose of asking a special inquiry into their condition under the military restrictions at Richmond, which condition they allege is not better than when they were in slavery. President Johnson is said to have informed the delegation that their wrongs should be redressed and the evils remedied of which they complained. In reply to the delegation of Quakers who called upon him, the President informed them, in effect, that he is opposed at present to granting negro suffrage.

☞ It appears that Buckner and Price surrendered the troops of the rebel trans-Mississippi Department without the consent of Kirby Smith, who, having been abandoned by his Texas forces, counseled the rest to return to their families and resume the occupations of peace. It was reported that Smith had gone to Mexico, with 15,000 troops and $1,600,000 in gold.

☞ Numerous inquiries are made as to what military organizations are entitled to muster out under the order to reduce the army. Under the instructions of the War Department, these are, all regiments or men being white volunteers, except veteran reserve corps, whose term may expire before the 1st of October. Also, most of the volunteer artillery, without regard to service, and all men who have been prisoners of war. No other orders have yet been issued. It is said that all white volunteers will be discharged in their turn; i. e., those being discharged first who have the least time to serve. There is no law to deprive any class of veterans of their bounty, and they will receive all contacted for.

— Gold in Boston, Saturday, 145 3-8 to 144 7-8.

— The Times' dispatch says Robert E. Lee and Alexander H. Stephens have applied for pardons. The latter enters at length into an apology or vindication, and among other reasons cites the fact that the Tribune advocated the right of the Southern people to independence, and he was led to believe it would be accorded them without the fear of a war.

— Orders for the arrest of Benj. Wood of New York, it is said, were telegraphed from Washington Friday. We don't believe it.

— William B. Astor, of New York, who is worth fifty millions, is a tall, straight, spare man, on the cloudy side of sixty. A. T. Stewart, the merchant, is about 60 years of age, tall and thin, of nervous sanguine temperament. Commodore Vanderbilt, worth at least twenty millions, is 70 years of age, and is a tall, white-haired, red-cheeked handsome man.

— The elegant mansion-house at Cambridge, Mass., once Washington's headquarters, now occupied by Henry W. Longfellow, was erected by a noted tory, and was among the estates forfeited and sold by order of the general court at the close of the revolution.

"I was walking the other day with a well-known author, when I happened to remark on the fondness for dress displayed. He replied, 'I can assure you our women are such slaves of fashion, that if the Empress Eugenie issued a decree that all the people were to go about without clothes this hot summer, they would blush—at finding themselves dressed.' "—Vienna Correspondence — President Johnson's daughter, Mrs. Patterson, is expected to arrive next week, to take charge of the Executive mansion.

— George Holliday, a boy of 16 years, shot his father, Gavin Holliday in Saugus, Tuesday afternoon, and then killed himself. It is believed that he had become insane from the effect of a sun-stroke. The father it is hoped will recover.

— Mary Kirby, 45 years of age, was killed in Lynn, on Wednesday evening, by falling down a culvert on the road bed of the Eastern railroad, about ten feet. There were four bruises on her body and apparently no bones broken.

— The Selectmen of Nantucket have placed the name of a colored citizen in the jury box. The Islanders are either far ahead or behind the age. Which is it?

— Didn't Gen. Sherman effectually spike a copperhead tweety inch Parrott, when he visited and accepted the hospitalities of the Union League of New York city? It is hardly to be supposed the so-called Democrats will put any more President powder in that gun. They must look somewhere else for a candidate.

— If the loyal blacks whom the nation has called to its aid in its extremity, are now to be ignored and not allowed a voice in the Government they have aided in saving, while red-handed traitors are to be restored to their former rights, then as a nation we are not far from the last ditch—of ingratitude and shameless infidelity.

— The Nashua Telegraph says a letter from Col. Donahoe, who is commanding the brigade, states that the 10th, 12th and 13th N. H. Regts. would start for home about the 20th, and would come in transports to Boston.

— The New York papers have stated that "Dr. Delany" was pardoned, but the Concord Monitor says "G. M. Delany, of Augusta, Me., who was sentenced in Washington to pay a fine of 45,000, and be imprisoned in the N. H. State Prison for ten years, for the crime of forging enlisting papers, arrived in Concord Thursday, in charge of officers Allman and Woodhall, of Col. Bakers detective force. He was safely lodged in Warden Foss' hotel, and will have ample time to meditate upon the uncertainties of money-making by fraud." He may have been pardoned, however, for all that; for news by telegraph travels much faster than passengers by mail.

N. H. HISTORICAL SOCIETY. — The forty-third annual meeting of this institution was held in Concord, Wednesday. The annual address was, by vote, deferred to an adjourned meeting, the 14th of September; will be delivered by Prof. S. G. Brown, of Hanover, and a paper will be read in memory and honor of Col. Louis Bell. Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett is President, and among the resident members we oserve Rev. A. J. Patterson and Rev. Thos. F. Davies of this city.

☞ That standard Monthly, the Atlantic, begins a new volume with the July number, which gives us its usual variety of useful and entertaining articles. Ticknor & Fields, publishers, Boston. "Our Young Folks," for July, is also received from same publishers.

— John Craig, who enlisted in the navy fourteen months since, and had sent his pay to a young woman in Haverill, Mass, to whom he intended to be married on the expiration of his term of service, returned home a few days since and ascertained that his intended was on the point of being married to another, whereupon he took a dose of bed bug poison and ended his troubles.

— The tax of 25 per cent. on cotton is removed by the President's proclamation repealing the trade restrictions east of the Mississippi.

— Subscription to the 7-30 loan on Thursday amounted to $1,730,000.

— The first oil well in California has been opened in Humboldt County, at a distance of 30 feet. The flow is small.

— An explosion at Navasola, Texas, on the 23d ult. destroyed 200 buildings and killed several persons: loss over $100,000.

— The report that the Bull Run monuments were demolished proves to be false.

— 240,000 persons to the square mile is the modest way in which some parts of New York city are packed.

— $100,000 is demanded for Ford's Washington Theatre.

— Punch says the real Derby "hamper" is when your wife insists upon going with you.

— At Yokohama, Japan, two English newspapers are now published.

— Barnum, who ploughs with elephants, and is literally a fancy farmer, says his corn costs him 50 cents per ear. Acknowledging the corn, with a vengeance.

— In all the French colleges the students are to make tours in France once or twice a year, that they may see their native land.

— It is said that cheese exhales odors that are fatal to human life when abundant, and that a cheesemonger in Marseilles was recently found dead in his shop from this cause.

NORFOLK, June 13th.

Dear Chronicle:—The intimation in your paper that the Sons of Portsmouth will celebrate in your city on the coming 4th of July, [No, the idea is since given up—"deferred."—Ed. Chron.] meets the approval of all the "Sons" that I have seen, and quite a delegation will go up from here and hereabouts. These celebrations are so much like the Christmas gatherings of our forefathers, that I do not wonder they find so much favor with every one. It will also be a fitting time to give those defenders of our Union a welcome home.

Reconstruction has already been commenced in Virginia, but I am sorry to say that much fault is being found with Gov. Pierpont by the truly loyal people of the State. The most of his appointments are those who have been identified with the rebellion against the Federal authority. Sooner or later it will cause trouble, and the sooner it comes the better it will be, for then it will be easier settled.

The right of suffrage is the great question. Never will the rebel portion of this State permit the negroes to vote, as long as they can help it; and this will be the next Presidential question, as any can see—and until the negro can vote, secession is not dead. It is the only remaining breath of the rebellion. The truly loyal of the South are small in numbers, and they need all the help the North can give them. They must be encouraged to work out this problem, or the country, instead of progressing, falls back into its old track, —and the many lives lost, the vast amount of money spent, go for nought.

Too much conciliation has already been extended to the rebels. They are insolent already. All of the elections yet held in Virginia have been controlled by the rebel element, and this is not as it should be for the welfare of the nation.

The "Old Man of the Sea" gave a call the other day; also visiting the Navy Yard, where he was escorted around and shown the improvements by the officers of the Yard. He bears his age remarkably well, and carries his head high, (over six feet.)

Mr. B. P. Chandler, son of the Civil Engineer at your Navy Yard, and the able assistant of the Civil Engineer at the Norfolk Yard, I understand is about to make a survey of the Eastern Branch of the Elizabeth River. Although but a young man, he has already established quite a reputation as an Engineer; and I have no doubt that whatever he undertakes to do will be promptly and well done.

Lieut. Com'r F. H. Baker, well known in your community, has been ordered to the Norfolk Navy Yard as Executive Officer. Thus do New Hampshire boys fill high and honorable positions wherever they may go.

Mr. I. B. Upham, jr., another son of Portsmouth, is now here, attached to the U. S. S. Chicopee. He has been quite sick, but is now out again and attending to his legitimate duties.

The weather has got quite warm—the thermometer going up daily to 93 a 95, yet we endeavor to take things coolly. Mint juleps, claret punches and "sich," are in profusion, and I don't see but the demand is brisk—as usual. P. K. S.

☞ Those of our readers who are conversant with the environs of New Orleans, will regret to learn that a fire destroyed about twenty buildings at Milneburg (Lake End) on the 24, including the magnificent restaurant kept by Boudro, familiar as household words to all epicures in that vicinity.

— A hotel is to be built at Bull Run.

NEW HAMPSHIRE BIRD LAW.

AN ACT to promote the interests of Agriculture.

SEC. 1. If any person shall at any season of the year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called robins, thrushes, barks, blue-birds, orioles, sparrows, swallows, martins, woodpeckers, bob-o'-links, yellow-birds, linnets, fly-catchers, or warblers; or shall, between the first day of March and the first day of August, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called snipes, woodcocks, plovers, rails, yellow-legs, or sand-pipers; or shall between the first day of March and the first day of September, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called partridges, or grouse, or quails, or shall within the respective terms, sell, buy, or have in possession, any of said birds, taken or killed, whether in the State or elsewhere,—he shall forfeit for every said partridge or grouse, quail, woodcock, snipe or plover, taken, killed or had in possession, the sum of Three Dollars; and for other birds named above, the sum of One Dollar; to be recovered by complaint before any Justice of the Peace.

SEC. 2. Any person owning or occupying land may forbid the destruction of birds on the same at any season of the year, by public notice in any newspaper published in the County, or by posting notice on the land; and any person taking or destroying birds on said land, in defiance of said prohibition, shall be subject to the penalty of One Dollar for each bird so destroyed, in addition to the penalties named in section first of this bill.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Selectmen of towns, and of the Mayor and Aldermen of cities, throughout this State, to cause the provisions of this act to be enforced within their respective limits.

SEC. 4. All forfeitures or penalties recovered for violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall inure, one-half to the use of the complainant, and one-half to the use of the town or city where the same shall be recovered.

Approved, July 8, 1862.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

Over gray, red and sandy heads of hair. The obnoxious hue is wiped out in five minutes, and a magnificent brown or black, glossy and natural, takes its place. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. my29

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world beside; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. my29dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but wonderfully to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers.

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or 81 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1286, New York City.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

U. S. INCOME TAX, 1864, in Portsmouth. This list comprises all persons in Portsmouth who are liable (or rather all who have acknowledged themselves liable) to pay any tax on their Income—that is, all who owe up to receiving more than $800 per year or so, this being about the minimum amount exempted. For instance, the house-rent, taxes, &c., having already been deducted, the sum given here is liable to only the $600 deduction allowed by Government—so that a man reported $1000 here, pays 5 per cent. tax on $400, or $20, and so on.

THE HUTCHINSONS.—One of these Bands or Families of sweet singers appear at the Temple to-night, with one of their best programmes, including "The Old Granite State." The Hutchinsons are an institution—a musical institution; and despite all opposition and all sorts of criticism, have kept the favor of the American people longer and stronger than almost anybody else. Their music, never pretentious, is always sweet, true and grateful; and the sentiments they inculcate, progressive and benevolent. We suppose they believe in "the good time coming," yet; and that "Emancipation will be the blessing of this nation." Of course all their old friends, and others, will go to hear them.

☞ Few of our readers are aware of the great labor involved in the preparation of the United States tax lists. That for this division of the First Collection District was prepared by the Deputy Collector, Mr. John Hodgdon, 2d, of this city, during the month of May; and from his vast mass of figures, (embracing sixty-eight large pages) we have been kindly permitted to cull some details—as the Government allows it—to show that we are a tax-paying, time-keeping, carriage-driving, music-loving people.

The number of gold watches taxed in this city is 336; carriages 212; piano fortes 141. Of silver plate 7666 ounces is returned by sixty-seven persons; but as the law exepts forty ounces, but forty-two of these have to pay a tax. The largest amount returned by a single individual is 931 ounces; twenty-five others return from 100 to 416 ounces each.

Newington returns 5 gold watches, 21 carriages and 1 piano forte; Newcastle 1 gold watch and 2 carriages; Gosport none of these desirable articles, though we have seen such there in times lang syne.

We regard Mr. Hodgdon as eminently fitted for the responsible position he holds—a gentlemanly business man; quiet and cool, but earnest and firm; and while not disposed to unnecessarily pry into affairs, and willing to believe there are some honest men in the world—yet, we should judge, neither slow nor dull in discerning where fraud is intended, and ferreting it out.

The Number of Licenses of all sorts granted, from $5 each up to $600 Bank Licenses, is 407.

This sub-district is the largest, but Collector Lovering states that the returns were made from it the soonest of any. The amount collected this year is more than double that of last year, and the total of taxes and licenses for 1864 is $1,315.46.

There are 79 returns of $2000 and over: of which, 35 return between $2000 and $3000, fourteen $3000 and old, ten $4000 and more, six $5000 and odd, four plus $6000, three $7000 and odd, two $8000 and more, one $9000; and four above a round $10,000 — one, a merchant, just coming inside the $11,000, a banker running above it; and two others, the largest incomes in the city, one a merchant and the other a merchant's estate, topping $13,000.

POLICE COURT, June 17.—Patrick Hennessey, keeping shop open on the Sabbath, fined $5 and costs, $4.63.

George Brace braced up his fore and main yards preparatory to a grand squall or drunk, and after a big hurricane and scare, a calm of $3.00 and $3.86 followed the commotion.

Wm. S. Haynes, not drunk, but under the influence of powerful stimulants, was fined $3.00 and costs $3.86.

☞ The unprecedented amount of rain with which we have been favored this spring has caused grass to grow with astonishing rapidity. Haying has already commenced in this vicinity, some farmers there having begun last Monday. It will doubtless be remembered that the 12th day of June is very early to cut grass. Everything else which requires wet weather is uncommonly forward. Peas (not imported from Boston) are quite plentiful in our market, also strawberries at 50 cents a box.

☞ We hear it stated on good authority that there will be before long, an important sale of public property at the Navy Yard, consisting of two fine barques, the "Roebuck" and "Ethan Allen," together with the steamer "Dawn," the two former being fast vessels of about 500 tons; the latter a fast steamer, capitally adapted to the coasting trade, or packet line between home ports.

There is also—we understand—to be a sale of white oak knees and other timber which has been rejected. This sale will be to pay the expense of storage and moving. Parties either interested in the purchase or saving the timber had better be on the lookout.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " $500 "
30 " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

SURRENDERING THE OLD FLAG.—The 9th N. H. Vols. turned over their arms at Concord Wednesday, and then, preceded by their fine band, marched to the State House Yard to surrender that dear old flag, riddled with bullets, and torn in shreds with shot and shell, to the Governor and State authorities, on the same spot where Gov. Berry, three years ago, presented it to them, charging them, as the Spartan mother did her son, to bring back the shield or be brought back on it. How well they performed their trust, their battle-flag will testify, covered all over with the names of the battles they have fought in, from South Mountain and Antietam through the long three years of carnage, to the surrender of Richmond.

Col. Titus presented the flag to Gov. Smyth, making an eloquent and touching reference to the scenes they had passed through, and referred to the valor, heroism and patriotism of his Regiment in all the dark periods of its truly brilliant record.

Gov. Smyth received the flag with deep emotion, and in a very appropriate and feeling speech acknowledged the services of the regiment, and heartily thanked the officers and men in the name of New Hampshire for all their gallant deeds.

Senator Clark was then introduced, and received with rousing cheers as the soldiers' sincere friend. He eloquently alluded to all the hard service performed, all the hard marches made, all the hard battles fought, and the glorious record the 9th N. H. Volunteers had made, and how proud New Hampshire felt of such sons. His eloquence brought tears to the eyes of these sun-burned soldiers, and when he concluded, and the old flag was slowly folded by the Governor, as the Band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner," these eyes were filled with tears as never before. The old battle-flag—never yet surrendered to the foe, was at last surrendered to the "loved ones" at home to preserve forever.

JOHN NEPTUNE, Lieutenant Governor of the Penobscots, died on the 9th of May, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mitchell Nicola, on Orson Island. His exact age is not known, though it is known that when some ten years of age, in company with his father and other members of the eastern tribes, he visited Gen. Washington, then at White Plains. That must have been about the year 1776. Neptune must have been nearly 100 years old. He was a chief of gigantic stature, comely in person, sagacious in intellect, and endowed with a native eloquence.

— "Jeff. Davis as taken" was hung in effigy at Felchville, Vt., on the 15th ult., dressed in gown and bonnet. He was brought to the gallows in a cart, guarded by ladies armed with broomsticks. He was tried with military honors.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen promoters of this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the property they did so. Col. H. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Foggs, Esq., a firm in Boston, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel A. Lancister, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six million of dollars. The last of March, E. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich underlaid Coal vein on one side. Every state of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil Basin of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have been made. Here the Steele & Reed well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain State—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 50 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flats below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $18 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel last year was $10 at the wells, after furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. A well per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I have acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Warren and Crawford Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, have the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valley of the East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Mr. Shepherd and Prof. Maynard, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have paying wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those close by, would be worth to me of incalculable value. There are hundreds of wells on such acre for 19 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. I just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and my interest in this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. This I mention do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let others make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions."

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Clarions pass into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally wel. to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 100 barrels daily, the Jerod flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right lands. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began a flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod, and the pipe seven-eights full of machinery, it has flowed 300 barrels per day since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod for fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 8,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and show it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in mud rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $60,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing so fairly as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 125 feet; at 180 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, pleasant and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville reports that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of the Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Subscribers. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. DAVIS, Banker, No. 25 State street, and at the OFFICE OF THE COMPANY, NO. 47 CONGRESS STREET, BOSTON.

Proposals for Fuel.
QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE U. S. M. C.,
Washington, 3rd June, 1865.
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until FRIDAY, the seventh day of July, 1865, at 2 o'clock P. M., for supplying the WOOD and COAL to the U. S. Marines at Portsmouth, N. H., during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1866.
The Wood to be good merchantable Oak, and to be delivered, piled, measured and inspected, at such points within the walls of the Marine Barracks as may be designated by the Commanding Marine Officer, free of expense to the United States.
And both Wood and Coal to be furnished upon the quarterly requisitions of the Commanding Marine Officer, showing the quantities required, agreeably to regulations.
Payments will be made upon the receipt of accounts duly authenticated by said Commanding Officer.
A guaranty to be signed by two responsible persons, whose responsibility must be certified to by the U. S. District Judge, U. S. District Attorney, or U. S. Collector, must accompany each proposal; otherwise it will not be considered—to be endorsed "Proposals for Fuel," and addressed to the undersigned.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles, round pine sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Recommend. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing Powders, whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—Farmers sifting Grain, Seed, etc., nothing will take its place. Price $4.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. It can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIDDLE AND ARMENUM OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARK.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given the public. I have made ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Galls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good ink, but my customers will be gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some to my inkstands whose profile some and half full, I filled just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write twice as much faster with it than with any other INK. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, A. W. FOGG.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain, yours, GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but do not express half what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have from this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place and sold a quantity of it, and find it gives a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of Ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moore's, Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.
PRICE OF a POWDER.
An Ink Powder will be sent by mail to any address in the United States, free of charge, on the receipt of forty cents. Address

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1865.

VIRGINIA.—Richmond correspondence says Gov. Pierpont had a conference last Thursday with members of the Virginia Legislature on the subject of extending the right of suffrage beyond the limit imposed by the Alexandria constitution, by which all who have taken part in the rebellion are excluded from the privilege of voting.

There is no lack of candidates for Congress, some of whom would consider themselves insulted a short time ago to be called citizens of the United States.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says there is a secret confederation among the rebel real estate owners in Richmond not to sell to any Northern purchaser. This explains why property is held from 100 to 300 per cent. higher than before the war. [All such counsels are vain, and will turn out to be foolish. Yankee buyers will not trade so, but buy elsewhere, till the late rebels come down from their high horse.—And Congress, next December, may have a word to say about any bogus members that offer themselves.]

☞ The Netherlands, France, and Britain, have withdrawn belligerent rights from the vessels of the defunct "confederacy." Earl Russell, in his official announcement in London, says:

"Intelligence has reached this country that the late President of the so-called Confederate States has been captured by the military forces of the United States, and transported as a prisoner to Fortress Monroe, and that the armies hitherto kept in the field by the Confederate States have for the most part surrendered or dispersed. In this posture of affairs, her Majesty's Government are of opinion that neutral nations cannot but consider the civil war in North America as at an end. In conformity with this opinion,"—he then goes on to give instructions to close the British and Colonial ports against them, &c.

This looks as if the capture of Jeff. Davis was of some use.

☞ At Saratoga Springs on Sunday afternoon about 4 1-2 o'clock, fire was discovered in the north wing of the United States Hotel. A short time after, a second fire was discovered in another distant part of the building. The flames spread with fearful violence, and in a few minutes the north wing was a sheet of fire, and soon after the whole edifice was wrapped in flames. So rapid was the progress of the fire that it was with difficulty the guests succeeded in escaping without their effects. Before 6 o'clock the building fell in with an awful crash. A portion of the furniture only was saved. The flames communicated to the Union House, which was also destroyed. The bank adjoining was seriously threatened. The fire was still burning at 8 P. M. It was generally believed to be the work of an incendiary. All other hotels were safe.

DEMOCRATIC RIDICULE.—It will be recollected that when the President, in April, 1861, called for 75,000 troops with whom to put down the rebellion, Democratic papers ridiculed the proclamation, and declared that 75,000 men could not be raised in the United States. It seems by the inaugural address of Gov. Smyth that New Hampshire alone—small as it is in comparison with some commonwealths—sent 33,427 men to the war.

SAVANNAH COTTON.—The Times' despatch says the claims to the Savannah captured cotton are now being presented, and nearly the whole will be claimed, though well informed citizens of Savannah say not more than 6000 out of the 39,000 bales can be proven to belong to loyal citizens.

THE CORPSE OF THE REBELLION.—The rebel General Dick Taylor, on being asked whether the Trans-Mississippi army ought to be surrendered, quickly replied: "Yes, surrender as soon as possible. You are only sitting up with a corpse. I sat up with it until it was blue, and if you delay much longer it will become too offensive for decent burial."

KENTUCKY JUDGES.—At Frankfort, a majority of the Court of Appeals, consisting of Judges Peters and Robertson, declared the act of Congress making Treasury notes legal tender, unconstitutional. Judge Williams dissented. This decision will doubtless be reversed in the U. S. Court, when it gets up there.

— Large numbers of repentent rebels apply daily at the Provost-Marshal's office in Washington to take the oath of allegiance. Two, having over $20,000 in property, were detected on Thursday trying to come in under the general amnesty.

— A little girl named Schiller died in Hartford, Conn., on Sunday, from the effects of "jumping rope" the Monday previous. It is said she jumped over five hundred times without cessation.

— The Sanitary Commission has distributed over $250,000 worth of stores to the troops around Washington during the past few weeks.

— The once beautiful city of Jackson, Miss., is now called "Chimneyville," as expressive of its desolation.

☞ T. B. Peterson & Bros., Philadelphia, have just published in cheap form, accessable to all, a volume entitled "Illustrated Life, Services, Martyrdom and Funeral of Abraham Lincoln, Sixteenth President of the United States." It contains many important documents from the president's pen, worthy of preservation.

Messrs Peterson have also nearly ready for publication, "Mildred Arkell," a new Novel by Mrs. Henry Wood.

The July Number of the American Phrenological Journal, is said to be the best ever issued of this valuable publication—and it commences a new Volume. $2 a year, or 20 cts per No. by mail. Fowler & Wells, New York.

From Hon. Daniel Clark, U. S. Senator, we have received the Navy Register of the United States, for 1865.

☞ The lists of National Taxes on Incomes are now open for inspection. They show a large advance over the year previous, not so much indicating greater incomes as more perfect returns. The largest income reported by the Herald in Newburyport, is $31,000, by a merchant; the second, $20,000 by a lawyer; and the third, $18,000, by a merchant. There are many from ten to eighteen thousand—incomes which the Herald says would have been fortunes a generation ago, when our fathers practiced economy in living, and still lived as well as we do.

— The most experienced and successful Strawberry growers, now agree that the land should be made very rich indeed for strawberries. One says that the finest strawberries he ever raised were grown on ground which had been manured two spades deep with all the manure that could be got into it.

— Friday afternoon a horse belonging to Mr. Pinkham, of East Boston, attached to an express wagon loaded with flour, backed off from one of the East Boston ferry boats as it was coming into the slip on this side, the whole team going to bottom, drowing the horse.

— Theodore Hook once saw an exceedingly pompous man walking in the street in London, whom he immediately accosted thus: "Sir, may I inquire if you are anybody in particular?" He then walked on without waiting for reply.

— The Raleigh Record says that in 1860 the population of North Carolina was 631,498 whites, 30,097 free colored persons, and 331,051 slaves, and that in 20 of the 86 counties the free blacks and the slaves outnumbered the whites.

— Hon. Mannasseh H. Smith, a prominent citizen of Portland, Me., died suddenly at the City Hospital in Boston on Thursday. He arrived here on the same day and proceeded to the hospital to be treated for an internal disease.

— A somewhat juvenile dandy said to a fair partner at a ball, "Don't you think, Miss, my moustachaios are becoming?" To which she replied, "Well, sir, they may be coming, but they have not yet arrived."

— The Navy Department has information of the surrender of the only vessel left of the Rebel navy of the Southwest—the ram Missouri, lying in the Red River. She was given up on the 3d inst.

— The Emperor of Brazil, in opening the Legislative Chamber, referred to the Florida affair, in which the United States Government acknowledged the justice of the Brazilian reclamations.

— Judge E. H. Sears, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has arrived at Raleigh, N. C. Offices for the collection of the revenue have been opened at Newbern and Beaufort and the citizens are said to pay their taxes promptly.

— It is stated that the anxiety about Mexican affairs continued undiminished in Paris, and speeches on the subject were anxiously awaited in the Corps Legislatif.

— Advices from Richmond represent that the odious colored pass system has been abolished and the Freedmen's School reopened.

— There is a set of inhuman charlatans going about the country, applying sulphuric acid to the teeth of their dupes, which while it gives a temporary whiteness to the teeth, in a short time ruins them forever.

— The colored delegation from Richmond held quite a lengthy conference with the President. The latter listened to the story of their wrongs and promised redress.

— A meeting has been held in Turin to protest against the continued recognition of the temporal power of the Pope.

— It is reported that the Spanish troops have been ordered to withdraw from San Domingo at once.

— The report that the Bull Run monuments have been defaced and demolished is contradicted.

— Three thousand baskets of strawberries were furnished to the soldiers in New York on Saturday.

— The "Hermitage," the last dwelling place of General Jackson, is in a very dilapidated condition.

Local.

POLICE COURT, June 19.—Owen Henwood, an indiscreet youth of some forty five summers, under the influence of rotgut stimulants, imagined that his honor and integrity had been insulted and questioned, and sought to adjudicate matters by an appeal to the code duello, or what will be better understood by Owen, the trusty bunch of fives prominently located at the end of a pair of stalwart arms. Alas for human expectations! that did not settle the affair however; but $3,00 and $3,86 did.

S——B——, the antagonist of Mr Henwood, was the man who received the bottled wrath of Owen in the form of telling blows, but returning them in too good style for a first class Quaker, was arraigned for assault and battery, and fined $3,00 and $3,86.

William Alton, keeping open shop on Sunday, fined $3,00 and $3,86.

Patrick Scott, for a like offence, was fined $5,00 and costs $3,86.

Frank Brown was so thoroughly intoxicated on Sunday evening that he was unable to appear before the judicial tribunal on the Monday morning following, and so a special court convened in the latter part of the day, found him guilty, and fined him $3.00 and cost $3.86.

RESIGNED.—Charles Chesley, Esq., Chief Clerk at the Provost Marshal's office in this city, resigned his position on the 17th of the present month. Mr. C. has occupied that office from the commencement of the Provost Marshal's Department, and has given universal satisfaction. He resides in Wakefield, N. H., and was for a long time County Solicitor of Carrole County, being a gentleman of marked legal ability. We are pleased to inform his many friends that he has been appointed to a $1600 clerkship in the Internal Revenue Department at Washington, D. C., for which place he will leave the last of this week.

☞ Dennis McCarthy, aged 26 years, was drowned in the Merrimac river, on Sunday morning, near Concord, while bathing. He belonged in Portsmouth, where he was known and respected; he leaves a mother and two brothers.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The St. Louis Republican says Maj. Thomas K. Osgood, U. S. Paymaster, was found dead in his office, having died of congestion of the brain. Maj. Osgood was thirty eight years of age, and a native of New Hampshire.

—— The Lebanon Free Press states that Mr. J. Bowen, of that town, planted last fall, a single kernel of rye. From this there sprang seventy spears of rye. There is a network growing from the kernel, about six inches in circumference, and from this springs the rye, some three feet tall.

—— One of the wintry wonders at the White Mountains not yet departed and likely to linger for some time to come, is the snow in Tuckerman's ravine. A day or two since it was not less than from five to seven hundred feet in depth. The snow not more than a mile from where the farmers are putting in their crops, is three feet deep in many places—enough to last all the year round, unless there is an unusually warm summer. Trout fishing was never better that it has been this year.

—— On Sunday noon fire was discovered in Drake's Hotel at Pittsfield Village. It burnt four stables, the Hotel and the adjoining house and buildings of Mrs. Theodate Butler. There were destroyed two horses, thirty harnesses, ten carriages, fifteen sleighs, considerable hay and grain, and three thousand dollars' worth of shoes belonging to parties in Lynn, Mass., and in charge of Louis Kimball, who was freighting them on teams.

The hotel and stable were owned by Albert Stevens of Concord, and are reported insured. Drake, who kept the hotel, was insured eighteen hundred dollars. The whole loss ten thousand dollars. It is not ascertained how the fire originated.

A GREAT BORE.—That of the two 15-inch Rodman guns now lying on the wharf at Fort Constitution.

ANOTHER GREAT BORE.—The steam drill at Fort McClary. Dia Bolus on witnessing it remarked "It augurs well," but was somewhat chopfallen, when a workman standing by answered "No, 'taint a well neither, 'tis only drilling to blast, and we don't go down but eleven feet."

☞ Two children, John E. Boyce aged 12 years, and his sister Isabella aged 14 years, who had been missing from Boston several days, were found dead on Sunday, in a wood in West Roxbury, where they had gone out to play; having been abused and murdered by some unknown hands. W. W. Clapp, Jr., Esq., in behalf of the citizens of Ward Eleven, in which the children resided, has offered a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrator or perpetrators of the crime.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

Burno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1285, New York City.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one-half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

ROBBINS & APPLETON,

Local.

☞ We think Portsmouth has rarely improved more, as to streets and buildings, in a year, than during the past. Besides the dwellings and stores repaired, and the new buildings built on the ruins of the Pen hallow Street fire; Mr. Jas. N. Tarleton has erected on Middle street, at the head of Cabot st., a very large and substantial wooden house—one of the most commodious in the city; Mr. Jas. Moses on Islington, near Cabot, and Mr. Leach at the lower end of Pleasant street, have each put up a handsome house; and Capt. Parrott and A. L. Jones esq. have in course of construction on Middle Street, spacious and elegant brick dwellings—no doubt the finest and most costly ever erected in the city, and singularly enough we think, the first buildings having French roofs here. Col. J. W. Peirce has also recently commenced to build, on Congress street, a brick block containing two stores with dwellings over them, which of course he will do in the most thorough manner. Besides these, and several smaller and less prominent structures built, old Jefferson Hall and the Temple have been remodelled—and we no doubt have omitted others.

But after all, these fine buildings have not added one-half so much to the appearance of the city as they might have done. With scarcely an exception, the new ones are crowded in where there were already too many buildings before; and in two cases at least, good houses were torn away to give site for the new. This we think is to be regretted, and we speak of it only to express the hope that a wiser and wider course may be adopted in future. Why, even B. F. Webster himself, who was almost the pioneer in opening up Middle Road to the public, (which is fast becoming one of the most popular as well as beautiful thoroughfares in the city,) and who besides putting up any number of buildings for other people, we should judge has built on his own account more houses than almost any other man in the city, and generally in locations well chosen too—even he in choosing a home for himself, settled back into the old rut, and fitted up an old house in a block, where he could hardly get breathing room—though, to be sure, he has made a nice place of it, and greatly improved his corner. But Postmaster Adams, by his purchase and enlargements at Wibird's Hill, and Mr. Wm. Plaisted, in erecting his new and neat house on Park street, still farther out—do something to extend the city.

Portsmouth is much too crowded and huddled together, for beauty or convenience. We have buildings and population sufficient to extend continuously to Greenland, if judiciously arranged, instead of being crowded into a single mile. Then both the North and South Ponds ought to be bridged, and the beautiful sites on the shores of either, built upon. Then might we hope to see the area of our city extended to its natural limits, and the time come when a man residing fifteen minutes' walk from Market Square would not be considered as living out of town.

HOTELS. — The Summer Houses are about to open for the season. The Atlantic, at Rye Beach, we have already announced as open. The new Ocean, at Rye, is to open early in July. The Sagamore we believe is not to be open to the public this season. The Surf House is open, in charge of Messrs. H——— & Hodgdon.—

Mr. Freeman we presume will hang out at Cape Neddick, as heretofore. Mr. Frost of the City Hotel in this city, will open his new Atlantic at Wells Beach to-day, and visitors will find it a good place to enjoy themselves. This leaves Mr. Lamos in charge of the "City;" and George "knows how to keep a hotel" too, as he has proved. And John Lord can run the stable, too, in good shape; no matter if it is a Stone one, and was heavy enough to sink old Jo Robinson who built it.

Mr. Kibby, recently of the Franklin, is to found at Appledore this summer, and no doubt our equable friend Caswell at his Gosport Atlantic as usual. — In which connection, we call upon the Laightons, Rev. Dr. Bebee, Caswell and all hands, to restore to these Isles of beauty, their original, appropriate and significant appellation of Smith's Isles, which was wrongfully filched from them, in place of their present absurd and meaningless title of Shoals.

☞ As was to be expected, there were a few trifling errors in our Income Tax report of yesterday. We give a few corrections and additions:

Adler Henry	760	Green F	715
Badger A J	801	Morse J P	908
Brown J U	824	Penhallow O W	1195
DeNormandie Jas	3527	Simpson C E	1759
Fernald Wm D	2052	Maxwell Isaac	971
Libby Daniel	2227

The total amount of Tax in the sub-district is $31,515.46. And there is no allowance to be made on the amount of silver ware reported—all who are included in our number, being fully liable, their deductions being already made. It should also have been stated that Government salaries are not reported here at all, the tax being deducted when the salary is paid.

☞ Riding by Mr. March's fine estate, at Greenland, a few days since, and stopping for a ramble over the beautiful premises, at the invitation of the proprietor,—we were surprised to see, among other rarities, quite a crop of ripe Peaches, which were grown in pots, in his hot-house, and which we found luscious indeed to the taste. Some of this tempting fruit, was ready for the table early in May. Mr. March's buildings and grounds have been vastly improved, under the skilful direction of Mr. Rufus Sargent, his architect and designer.

☞ Our thanks to Mr. Cyrus T. Lane, of Candia, for a box of superior Strawberries — the largest and finest we have seen this year — received through Mr. Avery. They are Wilson's Albany, we believe. He says he can send us some bigger ones, by and bye; and all we can say is, we should like to see him do it.

For the Chronicle.

"TEMPTATION TOO STRONG FOR RESISTANCE.—Mr. Editor: — If there are circumstances presenting a strong temptation to steal, none is perhaps stronger than the sight of a box of delicious strawberries, with an empty stomach and an empty pocket. When a boy we were as strict as most boys in our estimate of moral duty, but we have to acknowledge the recollection of several stampedes out of mowing fields, with the evidence of guilt clinging to our red lips or finger tips. It was very naughty, but if the farmers knew the keen relish of the youthful tooth for strawberries, they would forgive the trampling of a little of their clover. But when it comes to stealing the same fruit from their boxes, into which they have been packed, with the fullest and ripest on top, it is quite another thing.

And this leads to an incident which occurred the other day, which may as well be told by the Chronicle, for the better caution of dealers in this paradisiacal fruit. A young and well-to do farmer called at our house to sell us some strawberries; he had, he said, six boxes, exhibiting one; we were disposed to buy more, and he returned to his wagon in front of the door, and opened the other five boxes, looking into each. He looked perplexed, as we stood waiting for him; and after his first survey, he walked around his horse, looking at him suspiciously, and returning to to the wagon again to convince himself that he was not dreaming, he opened each individual box, to find it but too true that they were all empty—nothing left but the red stains of their recent occupants. He remarked then, coolly, that he hadn't any strawberries; and farther, that half an hour previous he had six full boxes, which he left in the wagon while he called in at a grocery store to make little purchases. We paid him for the remaining box, and he left our door in a reflective state of mind: a wiser and a poorer man. Look out for the Gamins with their baskets: their sin must be a sweet morsel to roll under their tongue. N.

COAL AT COST.—We understand that Mr. Harvey has secured for the citizens of Portsmouth a small porrion of the capital stock of the Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company,—one of the most successful companies in the Boston market. The design of the enterprise is to furnish stockholders with their supply of coal at the actual cost of mining and shipping; and we learn from reliable authority that the saving upon the coal distributed and the cash dividends paid since January last have amounted to upwards of fifty per cent. Such an opportunity is rarely offered them. Mr. Harvey will give callers all the information desired.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.
THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bills the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents	"	"	" $100 "
Ten	"	"	" " $500 "
20	"	"	" " " $1000 "
$1	"	"	" " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscription.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Middle Street and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 39 feet on the Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Claims, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unknown to any, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for prosecuting inventions so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full acquaintance of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most reliable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more skilled in putting their applications in a form to secure for them a early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have issued, and that one is now pending, with unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him in preference to others as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in one of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which were decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, is well known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man of truth, honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and is commissioned to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, editor of the Daily Mirror, Manchester, A. P. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel K. Lancaster, 3d (brother of Hon. Jos. Lancaster), were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of by Bates in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best in Oil Creek Valley. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, Pine Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and twenty miles from one to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Ilsley, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make farther examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 96 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek. The bay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on one side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and East Oil Creek flowing well on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil Belt south of Titusville, from which immeasurable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Fountain 250—the Parker 100—and scores of wells now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well is a fortune, forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the East below Titusville. The average section is worth $10 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $1000 to sink a well to the depth of 500 feet, and can go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. F. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting the best section of country, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professor Hall, who is a recognized authority in the science of Petroleum, and a man of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek, and Pine Creek, agrees in the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells, and the flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be a considerable source. There is abundant room on each acre for 12 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of 900 wells, at so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield 10 barrels a month, and the well on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm will be over one million of dollars. The Company do not speculate, but simply state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and South of the Farm Section, and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek, where have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A large flow of oil on this large farm would enable the Company to sell by tens of the inside for great sums. The remarks about the Farm South of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Cooper Well and down the Creek a mile, the Jersey that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 2,500 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been drilled, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the Tidewater, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a spouting well, is located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in parcels for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and twenty-seven are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as lively as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek, gas at 140 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 160 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cast iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the property of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Windell, John Sise, and others.

The properties of this Company consist of 642 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhanny farm, now commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no property yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more early dividends may at once be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOHN S. BARRY, Banker, 35 State street, and at the OFFICE OF THE COMPANY, No. 47 CONGRESS STREET, BOSTON.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to make a Quart of Ink, for two.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles (the size retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Alepo Galls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one seems to give it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. There is no fault. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours, GEO. H. ELLMES.
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent me, and say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt.
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—Thus far is certainly that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky nature about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.
PRICE of a POWDER.
An Ink Powder will be sent by mail to any address in the United States, free of charge, on the receipt of forty cents. Address

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1865.

☞ The Trial of the Assassins and Conspirators at Washington, it is now said, will be concluded by Friday. All of the arguments of counsel will be submitted by that time. A Mr. Clampitt read Reverdy Johnson's argument against the jurisdiction of the Court. The argument of F. Stone, in behalf of Harold, was read, counsel contending that the accused did not aid or abet in the murder of the President, and that there is no evidence to show that this boy conspired with Booth and others in aid of the rebellion, or aided in the overthrow of the Government, as charged. That he aided and abetted, however, in the escape of Booth, there was no doubt, and he said he must take the consequences.

Mr. Cox read an argument in favor of Arnold and O'Laughlin, reviewing the evidence and insisting that they were not engaged in the conspiracy charged, and demanded their acquittal.

PEACE IN HAYTI.—By an arrival at Boston from Hayti, it appears the rebellion in that country is subdued at last.—The rebels had been beaten near Gonaives, when they surrendered to the national forces and dispersed after laying down their arms. The leaders had fled the country, in a vessel for Nassau, N. P. President Geffrard offered pardon to all the insurgents except the leaders, and as the latter had ran away it was thought there would be no further trouble. The flush of easy victory in the northern part of the island had inspired the rebels with hope of success, but the determination of the government in defending its supremacy caused the population of the southern part to remain faithful to its rules, and the insurgents, finding no response to their efforts, were quickly overpowered by the loyal army. Thus, as the Spanish troops have left St. Domingo, the whole island is now at peace.

☞ Among the passengers from New Orleans at Fortress Monroe, are the rebel Major General Maury and family and a man called Colonel Gayley, who is said to have offered a reward of a million dollars for the murder of President Lincoln. The latter is accompanied by two rebel witnesses to testify to the facts.

President Johnson has pardoned George W. Jones, formerly a member of the federal Congress, but latterly a rebel Congressman. He was the first prominent civilian rebel who made application for pardon under the amnesty proclamation.

Secretary Seward has taken the application of Alex. H. Stephens, Ex-Vice President of the Confederacy, for pardon, under special advisement.

Henry C. Burnett of Kentucky, an ex-member of the federal Congress, and the late Senator from that State in the rebel government, is now in Washington, applying for a pardon.

ATTEMPTS TO BURN THE SPRINGFIELD ARSENAL.—The Springfield Republican says attempts were made last winter to destroy the arsenal there, which have hitherto been kept quiet for prudential reasons. It appears that a torpedo, made in imitation of a lump of coal, was discovered under a flight of stairs, in the arsenal last December, and on being opened proved to contain powder and inflammable material enough, if exploded, to entirely destroy the building. Investigation showed that the infernal machine was left by two women, or men in women's clothes, who were disturbed just in time to prevent them from igniting its fuse. The Republican details two other attempts to cripple the armory in different ways, both of which fortunately failed as completely as the first.

THE ROXBURY MURDERS.—Great interest is taken in efforts to discover and apprehend the murderer. In addition to the reward previously offered by Alderman Clapp, the Selectmen of West Roxbury have offered the sum of $1000, and Thomas Motley, who owns the land where the crime was committed, has offered a reward of $3000 for the apprehension of the guilty parties. As may be supposed, the people living at Jamaica Plain, are in a state of deep excitement. A painter named Thomas Ainsley has been arrested, and is in prison on suspicion.

☞ The French paper in New York, called the Courrier des Etats Unis, mentions the proposition made by The N. Y. Herald to give the right of suffrage to those negroes who have been in the Union army, who are land-owners, who know how to read and write, who have been for ten years members of a regular church; and it avows its entire concurrence with this proposition. It would also desire that all those who do not belong to any of the four classes be instructed as soon as possible and join their more enlightened brethren.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for July 1865, is truly "a perfect Fashion Number," containing six full page engravings beside the colored fashion plate of six figures.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Commonwealth says—"Individually the President is in favor of negro suffrage, and will give the weight of his official position for it. It will be found that the President will change his policy quickly and boldly in the matter of re-organization, if his present policy fails of the desired end." If this is reliable, he will need all the quickness and boldness he has; for failure is framed into the plan. It appeals to an Aristocracy, in favor of a Democracy: but such appeals are usually in vain, unless backed by outside pressure.

METHODISTS IN TENNESSEE. — The most important event which has yet occurred in the way of Church reconstruction in the South is the recent organization of an Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in East Tennessee. Bishop Clark having constituted the Conference by the transfer of six ministers from Conferences of the Loyal States, admitted into it no less than 43 ministers from the Southern Methodist Church. The new Conference starts with a membership of 6,494, and has preachers stationed in Tennessee, North Carolina and Georgia. All the ministers accepted in the most explicit terms the rigid anti-Slavery rule of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

☞ Many Rebel Officers and other public men are applying to President Johnson for pardons! On Tuesday 34 North Carolinians were pardoned on the recommendation of Gov. Holden. The President gives precedence to persons in humble life, and will hold under advisement those from men of distinction.

AN ECCENTRIC CRICKEN COME HOME TO ROOST. — Ex-rebel Vice President Stephens is reported to be an applicant for pardon. He is of course hard up for excuses, justifications and claims for mercy. In his desperation he avers that the New York Tribune advocated the right of the Southern people to independence; and so he was led to believe that it would be accorded to them without a war. Poor Stephens! what a mistake he made in seeking a knowledge of Northern public sentiment, with a view to ascertain how it would do to play the little game of secession.—Transcript.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE.—The shortcake, some three inches thick, is first baked and then cut into slices three-fourths of an inch in thickness. Upon one of these slices a layer of Strawberries is spread, and covered with genuine cream, when a second slice is placed over it, thus sandwiching the strawberries between the two. The cake thus prepared is placed for a moment in the oven to warm the strawberries through, when it is eaten hot.

GOLD, Tuesday, 139 to 138, with a depressed aspect. It is said $500,000 in U. S. 5-20s were sold in New York Monday, to order for London.

— It is said that Secretary Seward in his dispatch to the British Minister on the subject of the withdrawal of belligerent rights to the rebels, renews his protest against the joint action of the British and French governments in conceding such rights to insurgents as an unfriendly act, and contrary to international law; also expressing regret at the reservation in favor of rebel cruisers, and demands that such piratical vessels shall be given up to the United States; also declares the right and intention to capture such craft under whatever flag they may be placed, refusing to recognize the validity of any transfer that may be made.

— Cooper Gobbs, Commander of the Post at Andersonville, is in Washington.—Capt. Wise, who had control of the prison pen there, is in confinement, awaiting trial for murdering our prisoners.

— Major-Gen. Meade says Hancock's Corps will be mustered out of service.

— Mr. Joseph Lovett, clerk of a grocery in Topsfield, went to the depot for a couple of boxes of sugar, when his horse took fright and threw the boxes upon him, crushing him so that he lived but a half hour.—The same day his son, just discharged from the army, reached home in the 9 o'clock train; and it was at 11 that the father was killed.

— The "Southern Mechanics' Employment Office," in Boston, which advertised to employ Masons, Carpenters, &c., for twelve months, at four dollars per day, and pay their passage to Southern ports, turns out to be a swindle. A number of mechanics of Portland were bitten by the rascally operators.

— The Providence Journal announces as an interesting fact, that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States has a grandson, who is a native of Rhode Island. Mrs. Senator Sprague and family are quite as well as could be expected.

— It is said by the N. Y. Commercial's Washington dispatch, that it has been definitely determined that Jeff. Davis shall be tried in the civil courts, before Chief Justice Chase.

— It is stated that Benj. Wood has offered to testify as to the $25,000 he received, saying that it was sent him by Thompson to speculate in gold, which he did for a friend of Thompson.

Local.

☞ U. S. District Assessor Herring, of Farmington, was in this city on Tuesday, to hear applications for abatements in U. S. taxes; and honored us with a call, though not professionally, as we never should ask to be relieved from any of the responsibilities of what little money we can get. We presume he was not troubled with a great press of business here; but he is a brisk, live man—and one of those pleasant, agreeable fellows who can persuade the last dollar out of your pocket, in so graceful and courteous a manner as to cause you to feel yourself under obligation to him all the while, and esteem it a favor in him to receipt for your money.

☞ On Tuesday morning while some workmen at the Navy Yard were engaged in blasting on a ledge in the neighborhood of No. 27 Timber Shed, a heavy charge blew a rock weighing upwards of one hundred pounds a height of two hundred feet, and in its descent it struck upon the roof of the end of the Shed Building, where is located the Cabinet Shop, passed through and, dropped within a foot of a man at work at a bench underneath. The bench was seriously damaged, together with a lot of tools lying exposed. A workman had just a moment before left the identical spot where fell this heavy stone.

☞ Not to be slow in expressing the measure of our gratitude, we will state that the largest of those Strawberries sent us yesterday by Mr. Lane of Candia, measured nearly five inches around, and many of them girted four and a half. They are called the Wine variety, and are very dark in color and of rich flavor, and firm flesh.

Mr. J. E. Emery of Stratham, also sends us (through Mr. Avery) a handsome box of the same fruit—but little less in size, and not inferior in appearance to that bunch of grapes which all good Sunday School children will remember as bending the pole on the breaking backs of the two chaps from the land of Canaan or some other good place.— Avery receives this most delicious of all fruits, fresh from the vines four times a day; and we are coming to receive ours almost as often. Another friend also yesterday sent us a box from his garden, at a greater distance; and they were none the less acceptable because sent for our benefit solely and not for his own.

☞ It is a matter of surprise to us that the vox populi of this city is not in favor of sustaining the police in their endeavor to maintain the laws and preserve order in our midst. The more so, when we consider the popular clamor for the proper enforcement of the laws by those appointed for that purpose. The habit of lounging on street corners has become chronic with a large number of individuals, and should be abated or removed; and while our policemen seek to bring about this end, arresting indiscriminately every person persisting in obstructing the sidewalk after being admonished, unless said offender is an Irishman or has "no friends," a great hue and cry is raised in regard to "arbitrary arrests," "usurpation of authority," &c., proving conclusively that men don't always mean what they say. REF.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The First New Hampshire Heavy Artillery reached Concord Monday. There were nine companies, containing about 1,300 men, commanded by Col. Long. They were welcomed home by Gov. Smyth, Speaker Pike and others, in appropriate speeches. Happening to meet ex-Gov. Gilmore in the street, each company cheered him heartily, as they passed. They were mustered into the U. S. service last September, and have been chiefly employed to garrison the forts round Washington.

☞ The annual business meeting of the N. H. Colonization Society was held at Concord, June 15th; and the Society, in appropriate resolutions, commemorated the loss of two of its respected Vice Presidents by death during the past year—Hon. John H. White, of Lancaster, and Hon. David Culver, of Lyme—and passed resolutions expressing the belief "that the cause of African Colonization had received a new impetus, and had become of unspeakable importance, as the result of the momentous events which have marked the history of this nation during the last four years; and that the noble work which the Society had been organized to promote, must receive increased favor and be greatly enlarged at no distant day."

— The City of Portsmouth, Va., last Saturday, was turned over to the civil authorities.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

Duruo's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH. Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHEST QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship; is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF OF the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE.—Messrs Editors,—Having seen a petition in circulation for an alteration of the School Laws in our city, we were led to enquire, "why the necessity for any change." We believe our schools are as well conducted as any in the State, and we have the assurance from the President of Dartmouth College, that they rank with the first. Every person who has visited our schools and especially the High School, has expressed their surprise, at the efficiency and the high grade which these schools have attained. So we certainly cannot see the propriety of changing the system under which they are conducted; and this would be the case under the law which is about to be presented to the Legislature. If our schools are good, why the necessity of any special legislation? Let well enough alone.

Let us examine some of the features of the proposed new law. It seeks to abolish the present district system, and have a committee elected at our municipal election. This will bring two tickets into the field, and both will be composed, necessarily, of strict party men, over whom we shall have political action and control. This must extend to the teachers, whose politics must conform to the Committee's, be it on either side; and of course must enter the school, destroying the harmony and interrupting the course of instruction by party strife, which cannot be avoided.

Another feature of the bill is that sub-Committees are to be appointed from the general committee. This will be done by the Chairman, who is to be elected at the first meeting of the eighteen men composing the committee. There will necessarily be rivalry for the position, and those who assist the successful candidate the most, will of course be appointed on the most prominent committee, which is that of the High School, without regard to their qualifications, and the people will not, as now, have anything to say in the matter.

In the debate in the Legislature, it was stated that some shield was wanted to be thrown around the disbursement of the monies. And the bill contemplates the appointment of a Treasurer, who is to receive a salary and be placed under bonds of $5000. Now if the School money is to be withdrawn from the City Treasury and placed in the hands of the School Treasury, the city will lose the use of the same, and have to hire money to work on, to replace that which is laying idle in the Treasury of the Schools. If he is not to draw from the city, only when wanted for paying-out, why the necessity of the salaried officer and the Bond?

As at present conducted, we understand the money is drawn from the City Treasury by a joint order of the Chairman and Treasurer, at the expiration of each term, in sums not exceeding the amount of bills due; and this order must be signed by the Mayor before any can be bad; and he seldom, except in cases of emergency, will sign an order until within forty-eight hours of the time it is wanted to liquidate the claims on the School Treasury, so that no Treasurer has more than eight hundred dollars at any one time in his hands. These gentlemen receive twenty dollars each per annum for their services, a Secretary and Treasurer.

Another argument in favor of the new bill is, that it abolishes the District lines.—Now if some lines were not adopted, the schools a little distance from the thickly-settled portion of our city would be thinly attended, and others in a more favorable locality, or by a partiality for teachers, would be crowded. As for instance, take District 3; it has but one school-house.—Now if all who please are to go to the nearest school, as this bill contemplates, Court Street Schools will be crowded and the South School vacant. Thus we see that the District lines as arranged at present, keep all the schools full, and give general satisfaction. Then why change them?

We think we have given the main arguments in favor of the new bill, and they can be easily summed up. If we want politics introduced into our school, let us sign in favor of the new. If we want our children to receive an education, leaving politics outside,—let well enough alone. If our city has never been cheated by District Treasurers, let well enough alone. If our schools have been conducted in a satisfactory manner, and our children stand in education in those schools equal to any in the State, let well enough alone.

We hope our citizens may think of these suggestions, and that they will not change that which has proved a success,—by trying a new course, which may prove disastrous to the cause of education, in our midst. ALPHA.

☞ Somebody wants to know why the Watchmen begin to blow out the street gaslights at 10 o'clock, when (he says) it is the specified hour and early enough. He suggests that they be not lighted so early, but be allowed to burn till the proper time.

☞ Act. Vol. Lieut. Henry J. Coop, of New Bedford, has been ordered to duty on board the Vandalia, at this Naval station.

POLICE COURT, June 20.—George Morgan,—no relation to the celebrated Vermont trotting stallion, as none of that breed have ever disgraced themselves thus,—drunk, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

Thomas Brackett is naturally a clever, good-hearted, jolly fellow, yet under the influence of bad rum, (it is all bad, however,) he is metamorphosed from the mildness of Thomas Brackett to the fury of an untamed Thomas Cat, and while in this condition is discovered by the watchful police, and the sequel is $3 and $3.86.

George Murch, a sailor, drunk, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

Wm. Griffith,—tight,—not in his purse, as he paid his fine promptly—but in the head—fined $3 and costs $3.86.

John Hickey, for drunkenness, fined $3 and $3.86.

William Patterson, not of the firm of Patterson & Hiss, as his name was Billy P., —but it would have been better for the said William if he had been Billy, because he would have then been engaged in solving the problem involving the query as to "who struck him" instead of being idle and getting drunk—fined $3 and $3.86.

Ellen Cutler, drunkenness, fined $3 and $3.86.

William F. Fernald, for obstructing sidewalk, was fined $1.00 and costs $3.86.

NEW BAND.—We understand that Knight's Cornet Band of this city, have accepted an engagement to play at Newburyport on the 4th of July, having selected this from numerous offers they have had.—This Band has only been in practice and organized as a band some three months, but by close application and the careful teaching of Mr. John Knight, are so far advanced as to be open for engagements; but there is an opening for improvement, and they will with practice succeed in placing themselves in the list with some of our first-class bands. A FRIEND.

☞ "Good as the Bank"—the new Signs Mr. Coffin has just put up on the Mechanics & Traders and New Hampshire National Banks in this city. They are elegant specimens of burnished gilding, such as many citizens think you must send to Boston for. Mr. Coffin is an excellent letterer, and no doubt received valuable ideas concerning this branch of art, from his experience at the printing profession, in the Chronicle Office and elsewhere. The N. H. Bank sign especially is certainly one of the handsomest in the city.

☞ Our sweetest thanks to the charming young lady, who brought us that lovely bunch of June Roses early yesterday morning—she called it early, but we had then been on duty for four hours or more, and so sweet a presentation was decidedly agreeable. Perhaps we may be permitted to say, that we were unable to decide whether the fair donor's cheeks had stolen the tint of the flowers, or the posies her's; but as well as we could distinguish in the excitement of the moment, (perhaps we had a touch of rose fever,) we thought them marvellously alike, and the blushes on both equally becoming.

☞ A returned soldier belonging in this city, called in on Tuesday, who has been in the U. S. service nearly four years; he is now a home citizen, and desires to be a workingman at his trade, which is that of a caulker. He enlisted first for three years, and then re-enlisted. He received seven wounds; the last a bad sabre cut over the right eye, inflicted by a cavalryman who fell almost instantly from the wounded man's fire. This wound sent him to the hospital, whence he was mustered out of the service.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscription.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises,

On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next,

at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 30 feet on the Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. B. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837, 76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relating to Patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All needed by a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made many FOREIGN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unusual success is evident and shows ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications for patents, 8 APPEALS, EVERY one of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. B. EDDY.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the lands now owned by the Co. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of Boston, and Messrs. Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Ollf, Banker, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the lands spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated on Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the Oil Company's lands, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and E. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make farther examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west of the farm one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 40 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy five acres of Cherry Creek Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flats below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the coal should not work well it would be a fortune in itself. Its spiers did coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $60 at the wells, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to run after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm specifies:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I have seen, and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the opinion that regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Maynard, Prof. Shepherd, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is a small room on the farm for 10 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and you have sums that will make one is over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person form his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek Petroleum Oil Wells have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or bore the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally wel. to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Cogset Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jerry Run Well, the Farrer Well, and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is a spouting well on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod rattling, and the spouting wells, of machinery, it has flowed 230 barrels per day ever since. They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another flow well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In spite of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has proved so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and very rich and well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Cogset well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent prospects for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as well as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 160 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling, or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and pure, quite—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Pee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhoe farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain Dividends may at once be expected. Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Revised. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the articles sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each 4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MILROSE AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. they make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARK.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 8, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article I have ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in color in a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. I ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1866.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without it. I remain, yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt,
GEO. W. JARRELL.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever saw. I have used J. Moore's Sayward & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Among the persons who have applied for and obtained the President's pardon under his proclamation, is the Superintendent of the Capitol police at the time President Lincoln was first inaugurated, and when there were apprehensions of gunpowder plots to blow up that building.

John Hart, Superintendent of the Public Printing under President Buchanan, is among the returning rebels who have taken the oath of allegiance.

The rebel Senator H. C. Burnett, of Kentucky, who took the oath of allegiance Monday, was arrested at Willard's Hotel Tuesday.

Rev. Dr. Garnett, of the Fifteenth street Presbyterian colored congregation, made an application in writing to the President to allow the members of his church to celebrate the Fourth on the grounds adjoining the White House, which was granted.

The N. Y. Commercial's Washington dispatch says Charles A. Page, newspaper correspondent, has been appointed Consul to Zurich, Switzerland.

It is confidently expected that the army will be reduced to 100,000 men by New Year's. President Johnson is known to favor retrenchment as a means for returning to specie payments, which he will recommend to Congress.

Secretary Seward has been warmly congratulated for his foreign policy since the publication of his official announcement of the withdrawal of belligerent rights by France and England from the defunct Confederacy.

Mrs. Secretary Seward is not expected to live. She is very low with fever.

Gov. Hahn of Louisiana publishes a card contradicting the statement that Louisiana has not ratified the Constitutional Amendment. He says the official record of her approval is on file at the State Department.

☞ At the Conspirators' Trial, Tuesday afternoon, nothing was done in the Court except the reading of an argument by Mr. Ewing, to show that Spangler had no complicity whatever with Booth in the assassination. During one portion of the argument, the prisoner seemed very much amused;—perhaps at some absurd supposition in the plea.—Mrs. Surratt, who was taken ill in the court room Monday, was not sufficiently recovered to resume her seat with the other prisoners on Tuesday.

CONSERVATIVE SOPHISTRY.—By way of defending what is mis-called the conservative policy, it is plausibly said that each State in the Union has the right to regulate its own internal affairs, in its own way, subject only to the Constitution. True, (says the Transcript,) but to the last phrase should be given a comprehensive meaning. It must be understood to read—subject only to the safety of the Constitution as providing for the safety of the nation as a democratic nation, wherein all men are to be free as to personal rights and political privileges. The Constitution has a spirit as well as a letter; and the spirit is above the letter.

— Gen. Grant in his correspondence with Lee, at the surrender of the latter, said he hoped the war would be terminated without the shedding of any more blood. It becoming the settled opinion that such will be the case—that not a man will be executed for treason. It requires some time, however, yet to determine that question.—Exchange.

Gen. Grant, in hoping no more blood would be shed in war, did not mean to say that no man ought to be hung for murder or treason. The two ideas are quite distinct and different.

☞ It is stated that official returns in the War Department show that the deaths in the army during the entire period of the war, so far as heard from, with estimates made from returns not yet handed in, including prisoners starved and otherwise so maltreated as to cause death, will reach an aggregate of three hundred and and twenty thousand men. It is estimated, officially, that the ordinary mortality in time of peace for the number of men in the field, would be 40,000, which, deducted from the total just named, would leave the extraordinary mortality 285,000. The loss on both sides, in dead and permanently disabled, is placed by careful authorities at about 600,000.

☞ It is stated that Ben. Wood will endeavor to show that the $25,000 check sent to him by Jake Thompson, the rebel agent in Canada, was in part payment for the whole pages of "Personal" advertisements from the South which appeared in his paper for months during the rebellion. Ben. and his paper ought to have been suspended long ago.

— Richmond papers of Monday say that Dick Turner, late keeper of Libby prison, was recaptured on Sunday, and is now in one of the cells of the Libby.

—Gen. Dix has been ordered to Montreal on Government business.

REV. MR. HATCH'S EXPLANATION.—Our notice of the Parish trouble in the Unitarian Society at Concord, and particularly our suggestion as to the Sabbath, has brought a letter from Rev. Mr. Hatch, of which we publish enough to make the case plain as to its merits, and suppress the name of a leading man in the "barring out."—From the letter we infer that disappointed expectations of preferment by one political party, created a leaning towards another, in the posture of a prominent parishioner, who has taken an active part in the contest.

Mr. Editor:—Allow me to thank you for your charitable consideration of the charge of "advocating the non-observance of the Sabbath," brought against me by those who favor the movement to exclude me from the pulpit of the Unitarian Society in this city—published in the Chronicle of the 15th inst. In this case, (I think it is often so,) the charitable view is the correct one. I have never said one word, in my pulpit or out of it, in advocacy of the non-observance of Sunday (commonly called "the Sabbath") as a day of rest from ordinary labor, and of religious worship.

I have, however, endeavored to place the observance of Sunday on what seems to me (and, as you observe, has seemed to Dr. Wayland and others,) the true ground, viz. Christian agreement and not Divine injunction in the Mosaic Law, or elsewhere in the Scriptures. And I have plead for a voluntary and cheerful, rather than a constrained and rigid observance of the day. This is the view of the subject to which liberal and intelligent men of all denominations incline, I believe, at the present day. Henry Ward Beecher has recently taken this view in one of his published discourses: Rev. Dr. Greenleaf of the Episcopal Church, Rev. Dr. Chapin of the Universalist, and Rev. Drs. Farley and Dewey of the Unitarian, among others, have endorsed the same views. But not one of them can be justly charged with advocating the non-observance of the first day of the week.

With regard to this, and the other false charges mentioned by the correspondent of the Boston Journal, I desire to say they are nothing more than a stall and cover to the real charge against me, viz. that I have, "against repeated warning," persisted in preaching what they are pleased to designate as "political discourses," even "going so far as to advocate negro suffrage."

A very curious feature of this complaint is, that it comes from men who call themselves Republicans, and not, as might be supposed, from Democrats in the Society. The man who presses it most strenuously—the man who shook his fist in my face and called me a "puppy," as I came out thro' the entry of the meeting-house, after preaching a discourse on Emancipation, in which I advocated negro suffrage, two weeks ago last Sunday—and the man who then threatened that he would never pay another dollar to support the Society, or set his foot in the meeting-house again, if I was allowed to preach in it even once more—was ——, who warned me some two months or more ago that there would be trouble if I delivered any more anti-slavery discourses in that pulpit. * * * *

He has of course some influence—has induced several prominent members of the Society, who have always been sensitive with respect to anti-slavery preaching, to join him—and expects, apparently, to carry his point of closing the pulpit against the minister, in spite of all opposition, and in defiance of right and justice. It remains to be seen whether he can do it. I think he will not succeed. The matter will be determined at a legally warned meeting to be held next Saturday P. M.

I will only add that at a meeting held last Sunday P. M., it was voted unanimously, that the Church feels aggrieved at the action of the Society at the informal meeting, in voting to close the house, and hopes that at the approaching legal meeting the vote will be to re-open it. J. L. HATCH.

Concord, June 20, 1865.

CHARLESTON S. C.—The N. Y. Herald's Charleston correspondent says the first choice of the Loyal people of South Carolina for Provisional Governor is Ex-Governor Aiken; second, General Gurney, Post Commandant at Charleston.

The late rebel Secretary of the Treasury, Trenholm, has been arrested at Columbia and placed in confinement at Charleston.

☞ Dr. Mackay, of Charleston, S. C., publicly announced in the Astor House, N. Y., on Tuesday evening, that the Committee which came to wait on the President, were all original secessionists, and remained rebels through the war. He denounced their visit as an outrage, and an insult to the government.

— Thos. Ainsley, who was arrested on suspicion of connexion with the murder of two children at Roxbury, Mass., has been discharged as on examination he was proved to be far away from the place when the crime was committed.

— Horace Maynard is talked of as successor to the late Judge Catron, of the Supreme Court. Judge Sharkey, and Attorney-General Speed are also mentioned in the same connection.

DIVIDENDS.—The Nashua Manufacturing Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 10 per cent.

The Boston & Maine Railroad Company has declared a dividend of 4 per cent., payable July 1, to holders of stock June 19.

— Ten of the parties arrested for stealing from the Philadelphia Navy Yard have been sentenced to a fine of two thousand dollars and three years imprisonment.

— The business portion of the town of Rolla, Missouri, was burned Monday night. Loss $200,000, little insurance.

—General Grant has commenced writing his report, and will probably finish it this week.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Sergeant Samuel J. Gillespie, of Co. B, 2d New Hampshire regiment, was drowned in Richmond, Va., on the 13th, while bathing in the James river. He belonged in Northwood, N. H.

—— In Lyndeboro', June 10, the barn of Nathan Richardson was struck by lightning, killing a valuable horse and setting the barn on fire, which was readily extinguished. A pair of oxen in the barn were not injured; a calf slightly.

—— The dwelling-house of Sleeper Stevens, in Orange, was struck by lightning Saturday afternoon. The charge passed down the chimney and through a room occupied by the family and several men who had come in to avoid the rain. Several were struck insensible but no one seriously injured. The barn of Mrs. William Chellis was also struck and badly shattered during the same shower.

—— New York papers state that a man named Amos Griffin, whose residence is in Nashua, N. H., and boarding at Nautilus Hall, Tompkinsville, Staten Island, was drowned on Friday night last, at ten o'clock, while bathing opposite the hotel. His body has not yet been recovered.

☞ In the N. H. Legislature, Monday, Mr. Montgomery, of Manchester, introduced a bill authorizing towns and cities to appropriate money for fourth of July celebrations, [authorizing an expediture of one per cent of money raised by taxation.]

On motion of Mr. Johnson, of Enfield, the Committee on Finance was instructed to inquire into the expediency of raising a tax of one half of one per cent. on the taxable property of the State, to be assessed and collected and paid into the Treasury on or before the first day of January next, to be appropriated to the payment of the floating debts, and report by bill or otherwise.

NEW ENGLAND STEAMSHIP COMPANY. Reduction of Fare between Portland and New York.—This Company, now owning and running the line of steamers between Portland and New York—have got their arrangements all complete for the summer season, and their boats in the best running order. The steamer Franconia, recently purchased, is a new vessel, built at Kennebunk less than a year ago, of the best materials and in the staunchest manner. She was built to run between Boston and Halifax, and was on that route a short time before she was purchased by this Company. About 150 passengers can be handsomely accommodated on board this fine steamer. The arrangements for freight are of the best order to keep it secure from injury by water or anything else. Capt. H. Sherwood commands this beautiful steamer. She leaves Portland Saturdays, and New York Wednesdays, at 4 o'clock P. M.

The Chesapeake, owned by this line, is another fine boat. We do not wonder the rebels were anxious to obtain possession of her. She is commanded by Capt. W. W. Sherwood, has excellent accommodations for fifty passengers, and leaves Portland Wednesdays, and New York Saturdays at 4 o'clock P. M.

In addition to these two fine steamers, the company have now in process of building, on the stocks in the yard of Mr. J. W. Dyer at Cape Elizabeth, a steamer of about 800 tons burthen. She is to be first class in every respect, as to strength, speed and accommodations. She will have accommodations for 150 first class passengers, and will be ready to take her place on the line next autumn.

The old Admiral of steamboats, Capt. J B. Coyle, is President of this Company, and under his careful supervision there is no danger of having bad boats or poor accommodations. He knows just what is wanted, and looks out that it is furnished. Messrs. Emery & Fox, who have always proved themselves courteous and obliging, still continue the agents of the line in Portland, and Messrs. H. B. Cromwell & Co., continue the agents in New York. In the latter city the company have leased a new pier on which they will erect commodious storehouses.

The fare for the summer season has been fixed at $6 for stateroom passage, and $5 for cabin passage, meals extra. The time occupied in the passage between the two places is about thirty hours. A pleasanter trip by water cannot be made, outside, than between Portland and New York. The run from here to Cape Cod, and from thence by the Sound up to New York will give a sufficient taste of the pure sea breeze, besides affording various interesting objects to note during the passage.

The passengers on this route are increasing every year. And now that the Company have fitted up such handsome accommodations upon the line, travelers will find it to their advantage to take this route. Leaving Portland Saturday afternoon, after a pleasant passage, they find themselves in New York in season to transact business at the earliest hour on Monday morning.

The commanders of these steamers are popular, for they are courteous and obliging, leaving nothing undone to secure the comfort of passengers. The stewards are attentive, and passengers will find themselves well and attentively cared for.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and confirmed sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

Duruo's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchors," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or Hunting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

It will not stain the skin or the finest linen.

It will instantly arrest the hair from falling off; causes a hair to grow on BALD HEADS when fallen off by disease; and is a complete dressing for the hair, keeping it moist and glossy and perfumed longer than any other preparation in the market.

This article is warranted to do as represented, or the money will be refunded. It is positively the greatest discovery in hair preparations of the age.

For sale in Portsmouth by J. H. THACHER, Apothecary, opposite the Post Office, and at No. 12 Market Square.

Local.

☞ We are gratified to be able to state that the Mechanic Association of this city have decided to open a public Reading Room at an early day, for the benefit of members and others. After several weeks' consideration of the matter, and three or four evenings devoted to its discussion,—on Tuesday evening last, it was voted to authorize the Board of Officers to provide a suitable room for the purpose. The premises proposed are the lower floor of the new, spacious and well-located building corner of State and Pleasant streets, beneath Mr. Nowell's shoe manufactory; and a place in all respects so desirable, could scarcely be found elsewhere in the city.

It is designed to establish a Reading Room thoroughly supplied with newspapers and periodicals, and which shall also combine the features of a general Exchange of mechanical, manufacturing, commercial and mercantile interests, as is general in other cities. It is perhaps to be regretted, that the strength and experience of one or both our other public institutions, so far as they are similar—the Athenæum and Mercantile Library Association—could not be combined in this movement; but we presume this is hardly practicable—though with the "Mercantile's" lower chambers fitted for a Reading Room, the premises would furnish good advantages for joint occupancy.

The interest awakened and the acquaintance opened with the Mechanic Association, during the somewhat public discussion of this matter, has resulted in adding several new members to their roll; and when the advantages of such membership are generally known, every man eligible in the city, will desire to join "the Associated Mechanics and Manufacturers of the State of New Hampshire." The new Reading Room will probably be opened in a few weeks; and the arrangements will probably be, for the free admittance of members and their apprentices, and to admit outsiders for a moderate yearly subscription.

[Communication.]

"THE PHILHARMONIC."—Mr. Editor: It was a refreshing half hour, although the evening (Tuesday) was very warm, in which we were dropped upon a side seat at the rehearsal of the Philharmonic,—refreshing to at least two senses, sight and hearing,—you know that the two should be enjoyed together, to produce the happiest effect; the pleasant fragrance of the rose would lose half its charm if we could not see the flower. The ivory throats, the bloom of health, and the air of grace among those fifty or more maidens, added not a little to the stirring of the soul, as we listened to their volume of sweet sounds. Indeed, the fifty or less young men who joined in the hallelujah chorus, seemed to have caught inspiration from their surroundings, and played at battledore, tossing their hallelujah back and forth with great spirit.

The gentlemanly Director is a perfect pendulum, with the time of day written upon it; and when in full swing with the thermometer at 80, he leads the host through running streams and the wildest chorus flights, with remarkable precision.

We are really anxious to hurry along the Summer months, to that autumnal treat, when we shall reap the ripe fruit of this seed sown in drills—and we predict that some of the solos on that occasion will show us that the day has come for the development of our home talent, and our appreciative public will be regaled with some of the higher order of music, rendered in a manner to do much credit to the performers and give great delight to the listeners. N.

☞ The steamer Pioneer, Capt. Amazeen, which commenced her regular trips to the Shoals a week ago, came very near meeting with a serious accident on her return trip Wednesday afternoon. When rounding the point at the Narrows, the government tugboat Portfire tried to cross the bows of the Pioneer, in consequence of which ill-advised maneuvre the two boats collided, the Pioneer receiving a quartering blow on the prow from the guards amidship the Portfire, which started the wood ends at the bow of the Shoals boat and caused quite an active movement in the crockery and glass ware line—in fact, Perkins, who runs the saloon, thought for a few moments that he had opened a glass store a la Alnaschar.

This little boat admirably supplies a long existing want among pleasure seekers in this vicinity, the sailing yachts from this city to the Shoals having proved so entirely inadequate to run with regularity with fickle winds and strong tides, that people unwilling to risk a pedestrian trip from Newcastle have been averse to taking passage therein. BER.

☞ The great annual Richards Avenue Pic-Nic came off at that favorite watering place, Rye Beach, on Wednesday; and water was plenty, at any rate. "We have been there, and still would go," but couldn't get away all day; so we just drove down to the Atlantic House in the afternoon—and such a bevy of beauty, and such a feast of good things, we haven't seen for many a day. Heigho! How did all those girls ever pack in the Ivanhoe? and query, did Jack Sides have any the less load, for all those baskets being empty? It were well to have a Dr. along, after such appetites, wasn't it?

POLICE COURT, June 21.—We believe in phrenology. This statement is necessary preferatory to remarks which we are about to make involving this interesting science. John Millings has a very large head. On the morning of the 21st inst., it was 8 plus. Causality was strongly developed, which fact gave material aid to John in tracing effects to their cause. Not content with a superficial examination of any matter, he speculates, philosophizes, and probes the subject under consideration, until he solves the problem. Being a phrenologist by nature as well as by practice, he applies his pet science as the skilled locksmith adapts the key to the stubborn lock, and lo! it magically yields and opens to view a vast amount of buried knowledge. As illustrative of these remarks let us pen a few of his best things. 1st, The earth (or world) moves; (admitted postulate.) How known? Because couldn't lie down on the night of the 20th without holding on 2d, All men are equal. Why? Because on the aforesaid night they were all equally drunk. 3d, The rebellion is put down. And how known? Because, large part of it is embodied in bad liquor, which Millings put down in his stomach on the night mentioned. Mr. Millings gathered himself together while the trial was in progress and passed the following resolutions:

Resolved that in endeavoring to obey the command to "love your enemies," we get most thoroughly intoxicated.

Resolved that as an act of patriotism it is our duty to get drunk, as we thereby consume a large amount of taxable whiskey.

Resolved that the most reasonable manner in which to discharge the National debt, is to continue the tax on liquor a few months longer.

The above meeting was suddenly broken up by the cry of $3.00 and $3.86.

Henry Palmer, drunkenness, fined $3.00 and $3.86 costs.

Mary P. Hodgdon, plead guilty to the charge of keeping a house of ill fame and secreting stolen goods, and was fined $3.00 and sentenced to pay twice the value of the property stolen, $12 96.

Joseph Summers, drunk, $3.86.

BURGLARY.—On Wednesday morning, about 2 o'clock, the house of Rev. Dr. Burroughs was entered by burglars, who effected an entrance by means of a ladder taken from the north side of the house and carried to the opposite side, and raised to an open window in the second story. The burglars searched drawers and boxes, taking a gold watch and some valuable jewelry. Mrs. Burroughs, awakened by what she supposed to be a shutter blown to by the wind, spoke to her husband, and, being told there was no wind, arose. The conversation alarmed the robbers, who escaped hurriedly, dropping some of their plunder during their flight.

☞ A Dover correspondent of the Mirror says:

"The steamer Alice Riggs, some few months since established [not exactly, was it?—Ed. Chron.] on the new Dover, Portsmouth and Boston line, has been withdrawn, and will be sold at auction at Union wharf, Boston, Monday, June 26, subject to a mortgage. This line was started by an enterprising gentleman of Dover, who was not so far-sighted and experienced as he was high-minded, public-spirited and zealous. 'In business have safety, in society have liberality,' is an excellent motto. From a lack of capital the enterprise failed, but it was a good idea and it is hoped may yet succeed, as tide water comes up to the centre of the city and there is a large amount of freighting done here in prosperous times, a faint glimmer of which can be seen in the distance.

"Regatta at Dover Point," "Exercise of Muscle," "All Aboard." We expect to see something of this kind posted in our streets in a few days. Arrangements are being made for "such an affair" at Dover Point by some Portsmouth gentlemen. The boat has been already secured and is a neat one, only 24 feet long, weighing 30 pounds. The other will soon be on hand, as arrangements are being made in Boston for it. In a few days the programme will be out and our Manchester and other N. H. friends had better take a trip hitherward on that occasion. It will undoubtedly be a gay affair.

Yes, we hear plenty of "blowing" about boat-races and horse races, between the two sides of the river; but no money up yet, that we hear of.

☞ The splendid fragrant linden tree on Linden street, just off Daniel, will be in full feather in a day or two — fully a week earlier than ever before.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. B. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, U. S. for the Ast of 1836.]
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on short terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or scientific advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unsurpassing superior to, any other which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

There, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. B. Eddy has made hundreds of WRITTEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part, enable me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at the lowest possible charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications (WITHOUT ADDITIONAL FEES) one which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. B. EDDY.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their hands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to be one of the prominent gentlemen in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Mar. tin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. G. Cilley, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel K. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and he was solicited to aid in selecting among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, Allegheny River and Brokenstraw Creek, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six millions of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a skilled business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 16 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the title of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence o. Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 2000 barrels for days—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells located on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judge that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the flat below Titusville, and that section is worth $10 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, Cannel, or Block Coal.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $600 to sink a well to Cherry Creek, and few go deeper, if more than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. F. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining the principal Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors Mather and Rogers, both high authorities of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of Oil Creek and Allegheny River Hills, and the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be 100 barrels daily. Oil there is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the value of 900 wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum amount. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be 100 barrels daily. Oil there is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the value of 900 wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum amount. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be 100 barrels daily. These facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and Oil Creek runs through it, and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. Joseph Ball sunk a well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally wel. to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Copper Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the derrick that flows 200, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. The Fraser well is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Fraser well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January last, and with a rocker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 220 barrels per day ever since.—The Byles Farm is a fine place for a rocker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 2,500 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yet be abundant. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Fraser well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Fraser and the one which has raised a bright hope, is the Byles Farm, which is level, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Byles thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve hundred rods, each down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot escape, and are burned up by the addition of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

RICHMOND.—The Richmond Republic says sales of property on Main street have been made within a few days at low and reasonable rates. A decided improvement in the feeling on the subject of prices has been manifested, and if men from the North desire to make investments on advantageous terms, abundant opportunities may now be found for doing so in Richmond. So it seems the high horse was too hard,—and so the rider came down.

Some Richmond firms announce that they are prepared to make advances of cash to farmers, and to furnish them with all kinds of agricultural implements, in anticipation of the coming crops.

☞ A gentleman who has recently visited Canada informs the Albany Journal that Sanders, Tucker, and Dr. Blackburn (of yellow fever notoriety) were loafing about St. Lawrence Hall, Montreal, drinking whiskey copiously, talking largely, vigorously denouncing the "vulgar Yankees," and strutting quite in the old pompous way. The landlord of that house, week before last, gave them notice that it was no longer desirable to have them as guests, when they packed up their duds and went over to the Ottawa, an American House, the keeper of which, by the way, is, or was two years ago, a good Union man. The position of these men in Canada is anything but enviable. They have lost caste. They have suddenly ceased to be personages of importance. With the collapse of the rebellion came the collapse of their power as "representatives." The Canucks, who had hitherto treated them with great consideration, now turn the cold shoulder upon them.

— A majority of the Savannah delegation in Washington express themselves as favorable to the extension of the elective franchise to the negroes as soon as they are sufficiently educated to exercise it understandingly, and they believe that the Union men South will be compelled eventually to go for it as a necessity.

— All the States which seceded have been supplied with loyal Governors except Alabama, South Carolina and Georgia.—Seven of the States have Governors of their own choice, and four have provisional Governors appointed by the President.

— The War Department has designated Rock Island, Ill., as the depot at which shall be stored the artillery, arms, ordnance and other trophies captured during the war by Northwestern troops. They will be arranged and preserved.

— Bishop Gregg of Texas, in a pastoral letter, instructs the clergy of the Episcopal Church to return to the liturgy as it was before the war.

— Large amounts of cotton are reaching New Orleans from Red river, although there is but a small quantity in market.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Rarely. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to their best meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, taking thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to make a Gallon of Ink for a year.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Inveterate cases can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one says it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Shook in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, a few days ago. I say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires easy access of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. DOREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that stickly substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1865.

ODD LOGIC.—Mr. Botts and others argue against giving the ballot to the Southern negro, in the assertion that he would be likely to vote just as he was told to do by his employer, who in the great majority of cases would be his old master, and thus the former oligarchy of the South would make sure of resuming its political supremacy. A New York paper, recently Democratic, takes the same ground, affirming that the negro will vote, if allowed to do so at all, with the planters, and both will vote the Democratic ticket, which will thus prevail in the country.—The New Hampshire Copperhead says it is "sure that their votes will be made to count against the common enemy of both sections and all races—the Abolitionists."

If these things were true, we should look for two things: a desire among the late slaveholders that their negroes shall be allowed to vote; and, secondly, a general expression to the same end in Democratic newspapers and conventions. We do not see it; but we see the contrary. Are these people so disinterested? Let anybody believe it who can.

These new objections resemble those which were so often interposed against giving the negro a Union musket. "There was no fighting material in him." "He had so long stood in awe of his master that he could not be brought to face him in battle." "The rebels could arm ten negroes to our one, and the latter would go with the former." But the negro made a good soldier. We have yet to see any evidence that, under proper regulations, he would not be as good a voter.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Edmund Ruffin of Va., who fired the first gun on Fort Sumter, committed suicide near Richmond, Saturday, by blowing his brains out with a gun. A memorandum found among his papers, says he could not live under the government of the United States—preferred death. So let all rebels die.

There is as yet no decision as to when and where Jeff. Davis will be tried.

Gen. Wilde of Massachusetts, has been assigned duty under Gen. Howard of the Freedman's Bureau, and will be put in charge of the State of Georgia.

Among the petitions for pardon Wednesday were Gen. Ewell, Ex-Governor Aiken of S. C., Trenholm and Gen. Echols. The latter is charged with inhumanly hanging five citizens of Virginia for being Unionists. Three citizens, P. Lee of Kentucky, J. R. Davis of Tenn., and J. L. Seward of Ga., were pardoned.

The South Carolina delegation had an interview with the President. They are evidently not in very good odor.

The Herald's dispatch says Caleb Lyon, Governor of Idaho, denies being driven out of the Territory. He is in Washington on official business.

— In Pennsylvania, Governor Curtin is making efforts to have a number of prisoners in custody at military posts, charged with various offences, brought before the proper authorities for trial,—and will no doubt be successful.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The storehouse of the Sanitary Commission in Alexandria was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning It was a large building, and located near the Orange & Alexandria Railroad depot

Sec. Seward's report of the operations of his Department for the last year of the war is published, from which it appears there were forwarded to the field 486,626 soldiers, and mustered out and discharged 268,114. Over two hundred captured flags from the enemy were received. There were 101,250 colored troops in service.

The Paymaster General's report is up to June 30th, 1864, and shows disbursements up to that time amounting to $313,484,865.87.

General Order No. 116 from the War Department directs that all enlisted men of the Veteran Reserve Corps who, if they had remained in their original regiments, would, under existing orders, now be entitled their discharge, be immediately mustered out, excepting those desiring to serve their full term.

The Paymaster General at the request of the Quartermaster General has ordered the stoppage of the pay of several hundred officers, until they square up their accounts with the government.

It is understood that an order will shortly appear directing the mustering out of all troops whose term of service expires before January next.

GOLD, Thursday, 142 1-2 to 142 1-4.

— June 21st, is the longest day in 1865, in the Northern, and the shortest in the Southern Hemisphere. The sun attains its greatest North declination. The length of the day is 15 hours, 17 minutes.

— An Englishman is arguing in the London Post that the Southern States will pay the Confederate bonds, and advices the holders not to sell.

AT THE CONSPIRATORS' TRIAL on Wednesday, Mr. Doster read a paper in the case of Payne. He considered that there was but one question, namely: how far the conviction of the prisoner in doing what he thought was right in attempting the assassination of Secretary Seward, should mitigate his punishment. The counsel gave a history of the prisoner, and excused the crime as the result of his Southern education, slavery having trained the assassin. The accused was a fanatic, an enthusiast, a hero,—not a hired tool. Mr. Doster said that, apart from the crime Payne had committed, he had formed an estimate of his character little short of admiration.

Mr. Doster then read a letter from Atzerott, saying that he was one of the party who agreed to capture President Lincoln, but that when Booth broached assassination, he (the prisoner) positively refused to have anything to do with the affair. Booth wanted him to murder Vice-President Johnson, but this he peremptorily declined to do.

Mr. Aiken read an argument in favor of Mrs. Surratt. The Court then adjourned until Friday.

By permission of the Secretary of War, Annie Surrat has been permitted constantly to keep her mother company. Mrs. Surrat, owing to her feeble physical condition, has been removed from her cell to a comfortable room in the penitentiary.

KIRBY SMITH, it turns out, was not only a thieving general, but a general of thieves. —His spirit was contagious and extended to the ranks. After issuing his first address to the army, expressing his determination to fight to the last, his soldiers at once took a practical view of his position, coolly abandoned their colors, spread over Texas plundering all the public property they could find, and then returned to their homes. When Kirby arrived at headquarters he learned the facts of the case, obtained a dissolving view of his army, and sent the following farewell flying after his pillaging soldiers:

HEADQUARTERS TRANS-MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT, HOUSTON, May 29, 1865.

Soldiers: The day after I refused the demand of the Federal Government to surrender this department, I left Shreveport for Houston. I ordered the Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana troops to follow. My purpose was to concentrate the entire strength of the department, await negotiations, and, if possible, secure terms alike honorable to soldier and citizen. Failing in this, I intended to struggle to the last, and with an army united in purpose, firm in resolve, and battling for the right, I believed that God would yet give us the victory. I reached here to find the Texas troops disbanded and bastening to their homes. They had forsaken their colors and commanders; had abandoned the cause for which we were struggling, and appropriated the public property to their personal use. Soldiers, I am left a commander without an army, a general without troops.—You have made your choice. It was unwise and unpatriotic, but it is final. I pray you may not live to regret it. The enemy will now possess your country, and dictate his own laws. You have voluntarily destroyed your organization, and thrown away all means of resistance. Your present duty is plain. Return to your families. Resume the occupations of peace. Yield obedience to the laws. Labor to restore order. Strive both by counsel and example to give security to life and property. And may God in his mercy direct you aright, and heal the wounds of our distracted country. E. KIRBY SMITH, General.

This is or was (says the Transcript,) the army which, according to the London Index, will fight the United States to the death, and which, according to the London Times, may prolong the resistance a year or two. But Kirby's veterans did not see it. They took another view of the matter. The only thing left for them to do, was not to die, but to steal. There is an exquisite dramatic propriety in having for the denouement of the rebellion an act of ludicrous rascality, with "Exeunt Omnes" to the melody of the Rogue's March. Nothing could be better for the mock-epic completeness of the slaveholders' insurrection against any limit to universal man-stealing, and which was inaugurated by the plunder of mints and the "occupation" of navy yards and custom houses, than that it should end, as it began, in theft.

THE NAVAL ACADEMY.—The Providence Journal says the naval officers appointed to attend to the examination of the Naval Academy, at Newport, are decidedly favorable to retaining the institution where it is. An examination of the spot and a view of the unequalled facilities and advantages which it offers for a naval establishment, have brought to this conclusion the men who, of all, are best qualified to decide the question. The first naval school ever had was in this country was at Newport, on Long Wharf. Commodore Porter, of the old Essex fame, the father, of the present Admiral, was at the head of it, and Admiral Farragut was a pupil.

— On Wednesday, during a reception of volunteers at Staten Island, a collision occurred between the soldiers and citizens. A platoon of soldiers fired upon the crowd. Lieutenant Nelson, of the 66 N. Y. Regiment, was wounded, it is supposed mortally. Two citizens and one soldier of the 33d N. Y. regiment were also wounded. Several persons were injured by stones and bricks.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A town meeting has been held in Tuftonboro' to see if the town would pay back money to individuals who, through fear of the draft, went down to Portsmouth and obtained subs. It was motioned to adjourn indefinitely; carried.

—— The indications are that the grasshoppers will be numerous this year. In some fields thousands of spears of grass have a small bunch of froth attached, enclosing an incipient grasshopper. The turkies will fare well.

—— Died at Wilmington, N. C., of typhoid fever, Albert Gilman, son of Joseph Gilman, Esq., of Tamworth. He served three years in the Union army, and then went into business in Wilmington.

—— In Concord on Tuesday, the Heavy Artillery had a street parade and review, with over 1300 muskets and their superior band, in front of City Hall. In the evening the band serenaded Gov. Smyth, at Eagle Hotel.

—— A lad named Abbott, was drowned in the Merrimac, at Concord, on Tuesday P. M. just after school. He went in to bathe, at the same dangerous place where Mr. McCarthy was drowned.

—— A private named Major E. Parker, from Lancaster, belonging to the N. H. Heavy Artillery, was found lying dead on the sidewalk in front of the Sherman House, Concord, on Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock. He had taken lodgings in the fourth story, where several others were sleeping, and must have walked, or fallen, out of the gable window, which goes nearly to the floor and closes with a hing. At the Coroner's Inquest, some of the witnesses testified to Parker having been in the habit of night-walking and talking a great deal in his sleep. The position of the bed would indicate that he arose and dressed himself, and got over the front of the bed and walked out of the window. When found, he was lying upon his face, with both wrists broken, his skull fractured in front and behind, and a pool of blood across the sidewalk. He must have been killed instantly by the fall: he leaves a wife and two children in Lancaster. He was about 35 years of age.

—— The Manchester Veterans, at their meeting the 16th, passed resolutions highly complimentary to ex-Gov. Gilmore, and expressing much gratitude for his courteous liberality to them.

—— The Yearly Meeting of the Free-will Baptist denomination of New Hampshire was held in Dover on the 8th to 11th inst., and was a season of more than the usual interest. Delegates were present from all parts of New England in large numbers, and also from New York and even Canada, evincing a deep religious interest at this time which is pervading the land in the wake of War, only awaiting an opportune moment to make itself heard and felt. The attendance this year was larger than for many previous ones.

—— The 10th N. H. Regiment, Col. Donahoe, have sailed for home, and will probably reach Boston on Sunday.

THE UNION CAUCUS at Concord chose Mr. Hackett as Chairman, and Mr. Stearns of Rindge Secretary. Col. Harriman was nominated Secretary of State, by 128 votes out 131. Peter Sanborn, Treasurer, by 91 votes in 180. Geo. E. Jenks, printer; Robt. E. Shillaber, Commissary; David D. Ranlet, Auditor.

FROM HAVANA, June 17.—The rebel Gen. Slaughter, who was driven out of Brownsville, Texas, by his own soldiers, had reached Havana.

John C. Breckinridge, Col. Wood Taylor, Captain Wilson, Aide-de-camp to Jeff. Davis, and two soldiers and a negro arrived at Cardenas in an open boat on the 11th, probably from the Florida coast. Breckinridge was accompanied from Cardenas by a Spanish officer, charged by the Governor of Cardenas to present him to the Captain General, and is now in Havana.

The Haytien war continued, but President Geffrard's troops continued victorious in all engagements, and the forces of the rebels were decreasing. The United States steamship Pallatin nightly lands a force at Cape Haytien to protect the residence of the U. S. Consul.

The news from Venezuela is of a satisfactory character. Gen. Falcon has been elected President.

A petition signed by the most wealthy inhabitants of Cuba, has been forward to Spain, asking that Gen. Dulce may not be superseded as Captain General.

The weather at Havana was very warm, with the usual amount of yellow fever.

— M. Theiss, the historian of "The Consulate and the Empire," recently made a speech in the French legislature on the finances, and took occasion to urge on the French government the expediency of a prompt and final withdrawal of the French from Mexico.

— Col. King has been appointed High Constable of Massachusetts. He is on his way home. The first news that will meet him is, that his house was robbed, during the celebration at Roxbury.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

Duran's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anores," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Local.

[Communication.]

Messrs. Editors:—We believe the people of this city are in favor of sustaining the Police in their endeavors to preserve order, but we cannot see the propriety of hustling some of the most respectable citizens from the sidewalk, when stopping temporarily to speak with a friend, when at the same time they allow our traders to pile up on the sidewalk all day long, and day after day, boxes, barrels, wheelbarrows, skids, &c., at one end of the street,—and at the other slinking beef bones, hides, and all the offal that naturally collects in a provision store; and that too, on corners where the sidewalks are so very narrow that passers-by have to take the street, or get their clothes torn or besmeared with grease.

It is expected that all good citizens in the winter time will keep their sidewalks clear of ice and snow, but is that any more obstruction than boxes or barrels? Men can move when in the way, but boxes cannot. But men must be dragged before the Police Magistrate and fined. Why not fine the man who obstructs the walks every day, excepting the rainy ones? Why not set the Marshal and his aids to work to keep off all nuisances? They are paid a regular salary for preserving the peace of the city, and why not look around and clear the corners in the day time, as well as pick up a few persons who may by chance be stopping a minute or so on Congress Street in the evening. —— VOX-POPULI.

Remarks.—Yes, that's always the story, when any nuisance is touched: Why not take something or somebody else? From snow to slaughter-houses, from boxes to boobies, from trunks to strumpets, from fast driving to standing stock-still—no matter who or what; we have yet to see the man or woman who likes to have their nuisance abated, or who enjoys having the law enforced on themselves. For our part, we hope that if the Police can't correct all the evils, they will do what they can; and we never did, and we never shall, offer any opposition to them in their operations. This loafing (or stopping a moment or a month) on sidewalks, day or evening, is an intolerable nuisance, no matter who is guilty of it; and the least the most respectable man can do when told, is to "move on"—and if he won't instantly, he ought to be fined.—Ed. Chron.]

☞ A pity—that those beautiful Norway spruce trees, which a gentleman offered to give the High School Committee to plant in the School yard, not long since—should not have been accepted. They are rare and costly evergreens, and we wish the Aldermen had received them.

Another pity—that the liberal offer to the town of Portsmouth, made years ago by Mr. Elwyn, to give a roadway across his beautiful fields, provided the town would build a suitable bridge over the South Mill Pond, had not been improved, and the project carried out. Why not then? Why not now? or must we wait until all the present generation have taken their last (and in some cases only) ride down the Avenue, and are actually "dead?"

☞ A Sign of the Times"—Mr. Preston's elegant new gilt mortar, surmounted by an American eagle. It is one of the finest things of the kind we ever saw, and will bear examination. The cost was near $70. It may be seen at present in his window, but is soon to be mounted on the liberty pole in front of the store. That's right—"let the eagle scream." Mr. Preston has in times past done much for beautifying the city, through the adornment of his own premises and otherwise; and it seems he is not weary of the good work.

☞ We are told that arrangements have been made for a boat-race on our river, to take place on the 30th day of June. The stakes are $1000, forfeit $600. The parties belong in Eliot and Portsmouth, the Eliot boat having six oars, and the other being a light scull, weighing about 30 lbs.

☞ Carpenter Henry Philbrick has been detached from service at the Navy Yard and ordered to the Macedonian; Sailmaker Thomas O. Fassett having been ordered to fill the vacancy on the Board of Survey.

☞ The steamers Wamsutta and Arkansas arrived at the Navy Yard a day or two since.

POLICE COURT, June 22.—Oliver Dennett was arraigned for getting drunk, found guilty and fined $4 and $3.86.

Edward J. Tower, for assaulting Mrs. Tower his wife, was fined $1 and $3.86.

☞ Don't forget, the original and veritable Morris Brothers, Pell and Trowbridge's Minstrels, of Boston, give one of their tip-top, bang-up entertainments at the Temple to-night.

— Maj.-Gen. Anderson, the defender of Fort Sumpter, will participate in the festivities of the city of Boston on the Fourth of July.

MRS. SEWARD, wife of the Secretary, died at Washington Wednesday morning, and the funeral will take place at St. Paul's church in Auburn, N. Y., on Saturday.

☞ Mr. Foster has for sale at his bookstore, Madame Demorest's July Fashions; also Godey's Lady's Book, the Atlantic Monthly and Peterson's Magazine, for July.

Also "Yankee Doodle," in handsome pamphlet form, graphically illustrated by F. O. C. Darley. It is the old version, but dressed in better clothes than ever before.

Ticknor & Fields, Boston have just published, Songs for All Seasons, by Alfred Tennyson,—the second in their series of Companion Poets for the People, illustrated

☞ Those interested in Army and Navy Pensions, &c., are directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Ripley, Barker & Flanders, of Washington, who possess good advantages as Army and Navy Solicitors.

— The President declines appointing General Steel of Alabama, Provisional Governor of that State, on the ground that he served in the rebel army.

— Blackberries and fruits of various kinds are now quite plenty in North Carolina. Figs and grapes will be in the market in a few days.

— It is said the Young Men's Christian Association have purchased Ford's Theatre, where the President was killed, for $100,000,—and mean to use it for public worship. It is to be dedicated July 4.

— It is curious that the chief reason against negro suffrage, given by the northern friends of the late slavemasters, is that the negroes will vote as their former masters direct.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$250,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten "	"	"	"	$500 "
20 "	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscription.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street, 36 feet on this Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost, in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

TO KEEP HENS FROM SITTING.—One farmer says, have a small lath coop, with the bottom of the same; set it upon blocks about two feet from the ground. Whenever a hen wants to sit at an unseasonable period, put her in that coop; the wind drawing up between the slats makes it too uncomfortable for the fowl to sit down long, and she will soon get out of the inclination. Another says tie a bright red rag to her tail. When a hen nestles herself into her seat she always takes a very composed look at her surroundings, and as she catches a glimpse of the fiery object behind her, it is very amusing to see how quickly she will start and run from her nest.

— A dispatch from Mobile says Bishop Andrews, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, has issued an address in which he counsels submission and a peaceful acquiescence in the new order of things. Gen. Buckner's address to his soldiers is in the same spirit.

— The transport Kentucky, with 1200 paroled rebel troops, struck a snag twelve miles below Shreveport on the 9th, and sunk in three minutes. Over two hundred lives were lost.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The following testimonials prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other Agency of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty-five past years, enables him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, together with a superior library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications WINNING APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private disease, at his old established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are unequaled in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World, of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for those diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat and Nose, Pains in the Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Piles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of Dr. Teller's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 30,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, cannot employ themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, until they, that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course well aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK,

A book for everybody—certainly discloses. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts., or Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Hospital, by Dr. Teller, are to be obtained of the Author—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be the best work of the kind ever asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their superiority as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

Caution.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the price, (one dollar per box,) the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or observation.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M., and on Sundays from 8 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world, all cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing intervale of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of property, as they are located on a Dividend Paying Basis, and are sure of success. The Officers of this Company, in making this prospectus, feel sure the New England public, have full confidence that no property yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. B. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this Company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 54 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Region extends for about twenty miles along the Brouse and Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of this Company are within the Brouse and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, an hundred 40 dollars and gentlemen. Apply on board the Yacht, at the Wharf, foot of State St., Portsmouth, or at Mr. PHILBRICK'S Stone Works.
☞ Lovers of a fine craft, and the public generally, are invited to call and examine the "Pilgrim." Capt. JOHN DIXON.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK,
—OF THE—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is thus vitiated, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, and many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot escape, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the tuyeres, which distributes them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the concave can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel, over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without one hour's care.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would put up them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, " Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, " John Sise, and others.

"THE CHICAGO CONSPIRACY" is the title of an article in the last Atlantic of more than ordinary interest. It gives the details of two rebel-copperhead plots to burn that city, and free the rebel prisoners in Camp Douglas. The means by which these plots were discovered and guarded against, are as curious as any recorded in the annals of the detective police. The article is a piece of the secret history of the rebellion of much value.

— A woman who had not seen her husband for three long years, caught sight of him in the ranks of one of the returning regiments in Portland last week, as it was marching through the streets. Affection got the better of strict decorum, and the overjoyed woman rushed to the ranks, embraced and kissed her husband, and marched along by his side amid the cheers of the spectators.

— The Engineer Department has received orders to dismantle all the forts and fortifications around Washington, except twenty-two forts and three or four batteries. These are to be improved and strengthened, and constructed in a permanent form to stand the test of time.—They will be so selected as to form a circle of Washington, and be sufficient for its defence in all directions.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. Those who have tried long enough to be satisfied that they cannot be cured by the first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain, can be cured by treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under the care of Dr. Dow. Dr. Dow has been long confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stand higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FEMALE REGULET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.
Boston, April 7, 1865. eod&wly

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
TO
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed for virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, peculiar to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.
His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.
Office, No. 33 Endicott street.
Persons at a distance can consult DR. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. Briscoe, at No. 33 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secresy observed in every case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 15, 1864. ThSly
DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 33 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, sea, to the mines, to any of the distant countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.
MERROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Receipt, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good, but very dear article. My business now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands freeze and thaw twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It should be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without it, if I remain yours, GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and thawing, and not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Proof Tree's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it. It would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used it in behalf of Messrs. Noyes', D. J. Kidcout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1865.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Gov. Smyth has just issued, June 21, the following Proclamation:

Peace smiles once more upon our whole land. The devastation of war has ceased, and the fearful waste of life is ended. The armies of the Great Rebellion, which for four long years have desolated our country and defied our authority, are broken and dispersed; and organized armed resistance to the Government is everywhere suppressed. Traitors who have so haughtily defied our Flag are now bowed down in submission before it, and suing for pardon and mercy at the hands of the Government they sought to destroy.

Our war-worn veterans, who left their peaceful pursuits for the hardships, the privations, the sufferings and perils of the camp, the march and the battle-field, are retracing their footsteps to the homes they have so bravely and successfully defended. To them we owe no ordinary, no common welcome. The masterly achievements of our armies, which so recently secured to us these wonderful results, owing to the tragic events by which they were succeeded, have not as yet received that formal and public recognition which their momentous importance should secure, and which they will ever hereafter receive.

I, therefore, with the advice of the Honorable Council, recommend to all the people of the State to embrace the approaching anniversary of our National Independence as a fitting day and opportunity to extend a cordial public welcome to all our returning soldiers; and also in addition to the customary observance of that day, to appropriately commemorate the heroic and brilliant achievements of our armies and navy in preserving the life and enhancing the glory of the Republic, which our fathers on that day, eighty-nine years ago, gave to the great cause of Liberty and Justice upon the shores of the New World.

Never before had we such occasion for thanksgiving and praise to that merciful Providence which has held us in its guardian care and keeping, and I trust that throughout the State, in every town and city, the people will unite in such demonstrations as will suitably express the gratitude and joy which all feel at this great deliverance from war and National peril.

☞ In the Legislative, Tuesday, the Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred the petition asking for "a bounty on the Crow," present the following report:

We believe "the crow" labors under the misfortune of a great and unjust prejudice, so that people generally are more disposed to blazon his failings than to note his virtues. There are a great many birds that prey upon the crops and fruits that are raised on our farms; yet the crow seems to be singled out as the object of peculiar spite and vengeance. We see no good reason why he should be thus exclusively hunted with traps, snares, poison, and "villainous gunpowder"; and we have endeavored to go down to the root of the question, for the purpose of finding the source of this unreasonable prejudice; and have come to the conclusion that it proceeds altogether from color. The crow is black!

Furthermore, we believe that catterpillars are a greater pest than the crows; and that while the latter have many redeeming qualities, the former are an unmitigated curse; far more destructive to the farmer's interest, and more worthy of legal pains and penalties. We therefore recommend passage of a resolution that it is inexpedient to legislate on this subject. The resolution was agreed to.

Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Albee of Winchester,—authorizing any city or town to raise money to erect monuments to the memory of citizen soldiers who have died during the late rebellion, in the army or navy, [not costing over $2000.]

By Mr. Little, of Manchester—A bill relating to dealers in old junk, metals and second hand articles. [To be licensed by town or city authorities; record of purchases to be kept.]

By Mr. Connor, of Manchester—a bill for the relief of poor debtors.

Among the claims presented, one by Mr. Hackett, of Portsmouth—Of the town of Gosport for State bounties.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The 13th annual meeting of the N. H. Homœopathic Medical Society, was held in Concord, on Wednesday, the 21st inst., the President, Dr. A. Morrill in the chair. After a Dissertation entitled, "Cures by One Remedy," the Society adjourned to the Phenix Hotel, where a bountiful dinner had been provided for them by the President and Clerk, of which the members freely partook, forgetting for the time their prejudices in favor of Homœopathic doses.

—— The Canker worm has destroyed or greatly injured many apple-trees in Hampton, and some in Greenland, this year. The crop of grass, in all this region, is abundant, and corn looks well.

Mosby Surrendered and Released. The Lynchburg, Va., Republican says the brother of Mosby inquired at the Provost Marshal's office if that notorious guerrilla would be paroled if he surrendered himself, and was answered in the affirmative. Mosby then presented himself, but in the meantime an order to arrest him arrived. The Provost Marshal was in honor obliged to let him go, ordering him to leave Lynchburg instanter, which he did.

— Gov. Hamilton has gone to Texas, to restore order there.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by Uncle Tony.

Rev. Dr. Langdon—New Hampshire Convention, 1775—Revolutionary Movements.

The Corporation of Harvard College made choice of the Rev. Doctor Langdon, as President of that institution. After due consideration, and by advice of his friends he accepted the appointment. His parish was strongly attached to him, and consented to the separation very reluctantly. The connection between them was dissolved, on the 9th of October 1775. He was born in Boston in 1722, of respectable parents, though not opulent. He discovered early marks of genius, which he improved by diligent application to study, while a pupil in the north grammar-school, where he laid the foundation of his future learning. His amiable disposition procured him many friends, who assisted him in obtaining an education at Harvard College, where he was graduated in 1740, with a high reputation as a scholar. He came to this town soon after, and had the charge of the grammar-school. His government and discipline in school were severe, but as the children improved under his instruction, he very generally met the approbation of their parents. In 1745, he was appointed Chaplain of Colonel Meserve's Regiment, and was present at the capture of Louisburg; after his return, he was invited to preach at the north parish, as assistant to Mr. Fitch, whom he succeeded in the ministry in the year 1747. He projected a map of New Hampshire, in company with Colonel Blanchard, which they published in 1761, and inscribed it to the honorable Charles Townsend, Secretary at war. In return for this compliment, the Secretary obtained for Mr. Langdon a degree of Doctor in Divinity, from the University of Aberdeen, in Scotland. On the formation of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in Massachusetts, he became a member. Doctor Langdon's publications are numerous. A thanksgiving sermon, preached at his own parish in 1759, on the anniversary of the birth-day of his Majesty King George the 2d, entitled Joy and gratitude to God for the long life of a good King and the conquest of Quebec, from the 21st psalm, is said "to be one of the best occasional discourses extant." Doctor Langdon professes to be a Trinitarian, and a Calvinist, in his religious sentiments. In politics, he was zealously attached to the cause of his country.

Doctor Langdon's situation at Cambridge soon became unpleasant. Some of the officers of that institution conceived a strong prejudice against him, and he was not treated with that respect which his character deserved. He resigned his office in 1780, and the following January was installed over the church at Hamptonfalls; where he spent the residue of his days in usefulness and peace; a blessing to the people of his charge, and happy in the enjoyment of their affection and respect. He died Nov. 9, 1797.

In 1775, a convention was holden at Exeter, on the 25th of January, to which Portsmouth sent seven deputies, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the General Congress, which was to meet at Philadelphia the 10th of May.

The Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, at February term, at the request of the selectmen, laid out a highway to the ferry, through land of John Rindge, Esq., at the north end, twenty-five feet wide; and awarded him the sum of seventy pounds for the same.

The British troops commenced hostilities, by firing on the people, collected at Lexington, in Massachusetts, the 19th of April. The news of this attack spread rapidly through the country. This town met on the 20th to consider what measures are most expedient to be taken at this alarming crisis. They recommended every man, to furnish himself with a good firelock, bayonet, powder, and balls, and every other requisite for defence; that they form themselves into companies and obtain what instructions they can in the military art; that one hundred men be enlisted, and properly equipped to march at a minute's warning that they divide themselves into two companies of fifty men each, choose their own officers, and enter into such agreements, as that the strictest subordination and discipline be preserved among them. They then chose a committee to consult with the provincial committee, and adopt such measures as they shall judge necessary. They voted to use their utmost endeavors to keep up good order and peace in the town; to support all civil officers, and pay ready obedience to the law, to avoid the horror and confusion, which a contrary conduct may produce. And as groundless reports and false rumours had prevailed, that the person or property of his Excellency John Wentworth was in danger, it was unanimously voted, "that we, the inhabitants of this town, will use our utmost endeavours to prevent any insult being offered to his person or dignity, and that we will take every method in our power, to assist and support him in the due and legal exercise of his authority." A committee was chosen to wait upon the Governor with the above vote.

Virginia.—At the session of the Virginia Legislature in Richmond on Tuesday, the message of Gov. Pierpont was read. After referring to the fact that the status of the African race, State sovereignty and armed resistance to the National Government are disposed of by the war, and recommending the avoidance of any legislation calculated unnecessarily to irritate the people of the State, the Governor announces his conviction that the Alexandria Constitution is entirely too restricted in its provisions regarding the elective franchise, and recommends the extension of that privilege to classes of white men now deprived of it. He is in favor of the substitution of some such oath of allegiance as that contained in President Johnson's amnesty proclamation for the more exclusive one of the State Constitution as it now stands.

Regarding negro suffrage the Governor says: "As neither you nor I have control over that matter, it will, of course, not be a subject of your deliberation." He recommends that the State tax be increased from ten to fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars, and the legal rate of interest to 7 3-10 per cent.

A joint committee of the two Houses was appointed to prepare a bill extending the elective franchise.

The Times' special Washington despatch says the President has pardoned Joshua Hill, ex-member of Congress from Georgia, Francis L. Smith of Virginia, and G. J. Hyams, connected with Dr. Blackburn, the yellow-fever fiend.

Hard Times for Traitors.—We have already mentioned the arrival at Havana of Breckinridge, Col. Wilson and Taylor Wood, ex-commander of the Tallahassee. Gen. Breckinridge and Col. Wilson state that they were within forty miles of Jeff. Davis when he was arrested, and expected to be joined by him on the following day. Wood was with Jeff. at the moment of his arrest, but escaped and joined Breckinridge. The party crossed Georgia into Florida Inlet, where they met a party of deserters from the Federal army. From these they got a boat which they dragged across the country till they reached the sea, where they sailed for Cuba, which they reached after three days and nights passed almost entirely without eating or sleeping.

Fatal Joke.—An officer arrived in Washington in charge of Mr. Gayle of Cahawba, Alabama, who advertised for proposals to assassinate President Lincoln for $1,000,000. The prisoner is a lawyer by profession and claims that the affair was a joke.

Suppose he should be tried by a drum head court martial to-day, and hung to-morrow morning—all for a joke! It assassination be a joke, why is not banging? Gayle is the author of the advertisement published in the Selma Advertiser last winter, calling for a million of dollars to have peace by taking the lives of Abraham Lincoln, Wm. H. Seward and Andrew Johnson. Will some rotten tool of the late rebels be kind enough to set up a howl or a whine over his death?

Railroad Connections.—It is reported that an arrangement will probably be made by the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, whereby close communications may be had between the Northern cities and the Southwest. Negotiations are going on for working the Orange Road not only upon its Southwestern extension towards Tennessee, but also to Richmond. The Intelligencer calls this arrangement a plan to corner Washington. This would be no damage to the country. There is no good reason why all travel should go through Washington, or through New Jersey, or through Portsmouth.

☞ It is well known that in the Assassins' trial, a Montreal bank clerk "testified that Jacob Thompson in August last made a draft for $25,000 in favor of Benjamin Wood of New York, on the N. Y. City Bank, &c." A professed democratic paper before us says—"We do not see the object of proving all this. Wood was then in the interest of the Republican party, and laboring to secure the re election of Mr. Lincoln. If he received this money for any improper purpose, it was probably to be used to that end." We copy these sentences as a specimen of the most unmitigated, deliberate lying. The writer of them barely imposes on his ignorant and credulous readers, who may not know, as he does, that Ben. Wood's News is the leading copperhead organ in New York.

— Carrington, who killed policeman Dill, at Buffalo, N. Y., has been sentenced to be hanged August 11.

— It is now said Gen. Hancock's corps is not to be disbanded, but filled up by recruiting. And also repeated, that it is to be disbanded. So much for Washington items.

— The N. Y. Journal of Commerce announces the suspension of Eastman & Co., 42 Broad street, and of E. T. H. Gibson, both in the provision trade. It is said that these two houses have been exchanging paper, and have lost largely in pork.

Drowned.—On Thursday morning, a lad, James Farrow, aged 12 years, nephew of Mr. Joseph Knight, miller, and in his employ, was bathing in the pond at Knight's Mill, Newbury, when getting beyond his depth he sank, and before assistance could be rendered, drowned.

— Mr. Renton M. Perley's store, in Newburyport, was broken into on Wednesday night, and the drawer robbed of $20. The robbery was undoubtely committed by some person accustomed to visit the store who remained concealed within when the store was closed for the night.

China Wedding.—On Monday evening, the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hatch, Newburyport, assembled at their home to celebrate with them the twentieth anniversary of their marriage.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m19dawlm

Duma's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1585, New York City.

At Wholesale by DEMAS BARNES & CO., New York. spnDawlymy28

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, by hand. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "mores," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in proposed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is and held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

☞ One more chance for to lay on a streak of fat—at Morris Bros., Pell & Trowbridge's Minstrels, at the Temple to-night. Don't fail to see 'em.

☞ Rev. Thomas Holmes, for several years pastor of the Christian Church in this city, will occupy the pulpit of the Christian Chapel on Court street, on Sabbath next, morning and afternoon. His old friends will, of course, be pleased to see and hear him again.

☞ The Spiritualists' Meeting will be in Mercantile Hall to-morrow, instead of at the Temple, as advertised. Mrs. Bliss will speak.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Randall has hitched out his City Express once more, and is ready for orders from old or new patrons.

☞ Nobody knows better how to take care of nice horses than "Alex," to whose advertisement of new Stable we refer those interested.

☞ It will be seen that Artemus Ward, the veritable, is to tell his little story at the Temple, next week. Artemus is a rouser, sure, and gives a grand show.

☞ Many of our readers will be glad to learn that there is to be something going on in this city on the 4th, and Sagamore Grove is to be the place, as will be seen by advertisement. This is a beautiful retreat for a day's enjoyment, and the proprietor will have everything in the Ice Cream and Refreshment line to suit.

☞ The body of young Mr. McCarthy, of this city, who was drowned in Concord last week, had not been recovered at last accounts, though much exertion was made for it; while the body of another young man, drowned in the same place since, was found in a few minutes after. Mr. McCarthy was an industrious and highly respectable young man, and his sad death is a great calamity to his relatives in this city.

POLICE COURT, June 23.—But a small amount of discernment sufficed to discover the fact that Robert Thompson had been imbibing bald whiskey at a fearful rate at a very recent period. The sense of sight and that of smell were swift witnesses against him, and assisted the Judge in despatching his case with a remarkable degree of brevity. The dispatch was $3 and costs $3.86.

What has the fact of the abundance of toads, worms and multifarious insects making their appearance on the surface of the earth after a heavy shower, to do with drunkenness? Nothing apparently; only that as coincidental with this fact, it is also true that a larger amount of drunkards are arraigned after a big rain than in a time of drought. We solve the problem, (and if this solution is not satisfactory to others, let them work it out themselves,) by concluding that in both cases it is owing to a natural antipathy to water, dating from the time of the flood, when there was such a fearful sacrifice of life.

THAT BOAT RACE promises to be quite an interesting affair, judging from the general excitement prevailing in regard to it. We stated that it was to occur on the 29th of June, but have since learned that it takes place on the 30th. The Eliot parties are represented by Timothy Dame, Esq, of So. Eliot, and Portsmouth by a firm styling themselves George B. Odell & Co., a young man named Brown rowing the boat. He is at present at Dover Point undergoing a course of training for the race. The heat is a straight one, from Portsmouth Bridge to the Beacon—one mile. There are to be four judges and two umpires. Capt. Josiah A. Stover of Kittery, and Hon. Daniel A. Hill, of Eliot, constitute two of the judges, the others not having yet been selected.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received the new song "Nichodemus Johnson," published by Oliver Ditson & Co. of Boston, which is sung by Charley Pettingill of Morris Minstrels with such great success. Mr. Pettingill by special request will repeat the song the song to-night and will also sing the "Intelligent Contraband," composed by a gentleman of this city.

THE PRESIDENT'S WORDS: a Selection of Passages from the Speeches, Addresses, and Letters of Abraham Lincoln. This is the title of a neat little volume just published by Walker, Fuller & Co., Boston, and for sale by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth. The selection is admirably made by Rev. Edward E. Hale; and the book is at once popular and valuable.

☞ Harper's Monthly, for July, has an illustrated article—Prison Life; another, Washoe Revisited,—and many good articles besides.

— An official document, just received at Washington, states that in Missouri only 286 colored people are dependant on the U. S. Government for support, while 4452 whites draw their daily food from the same source.

— All vagrant negroes were expelled from Macon, Ga. The Telegraph of that city says it was a sad sight, but the proceeding was necessary.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises,

On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next,

at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 66 feet on Meeting Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot, upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost, in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

THE EUREKA GIFT ASSOCIATION

would call attention to the fact of its being the Original and Largest Gift Association in the country. The business continues to be conducted in a fair and honorable manner, and a large and greatly increasing trade is proof that our patrons appreciate this method of obtaining rich and elegant goods.

During the past year this Association has sent a very large number of valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, or an article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are NO BLANKS.

Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return mail or express.

The following parties have recently drawn valuable prizes from the Eureka Association, and have kindly allowed the use of their names.—

Andrew Wilson, Custom House, Philadelphia, Penn. Oil Painting, value 100 dollars; Isaac Harris, Greenpoint, Brooklyn, N. Y., Oil Painting, value 100 D.; E. V. AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

Our patrons are desired to send United States money when it is convenient. Long letters are unnecessary. Letters should be addressed to our Box, 5708, Post Office, for greater safety.

Orders for SEALED ENVELOPES must in every case be accompanied by the CASH, with the name of the person sending, and Town, County and State plainly written. Letters should be addressed to the Managers as follows:

GOODWIN, HUNT & CO.,
Box 5706 Post Office, New York.

Morning Chronicle.

Gen. Butler says that but one in eight of the Confederate soldiers sign their names. This is reason enough for rebellion—ignorance.—Exchange.

Yes:—ignorance in the masses, and craft and wickedness in the leaders, who imposed on the ignorant, and by their continued and continual harping on State sovereignty and the divinity of slavery, imposed on their families and on themselves a false standard of ethics, which led them to ruin. They propose to revive the same nonsense now,—and there are foolish men at the North who favor it:—but the body of the people do not.

THE PRICE OF PROVISIONS.—It is said that the food crop of the United States, in 1865, will be the largest crop known to our history. This fact seems to be understood by everybody but the dealers in food. The latter find it as difficult to get out of the habit of charging, as if they were Kilpatricks or Sheridans.—Trans.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by transmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is more SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services more moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of decisions and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, enable him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All expense of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and the exceptions are clearly unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber has prepared of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures in cases that other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World) as enable him to do the most as well as the latest remedies for three diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syhilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles, Pain in the Back, Groins, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus disqualifying themselves for the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage, with numerous—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married Man or Woman should buy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets concerning the married state. Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will procure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the care of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. Teller still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichols' Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their superiority as a safe remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 8 to 5 P.M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Pennsylvania, upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable property—but all of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married Man or Woman should buy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets concerning the married state. Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will procure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the care of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. Teller still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichols' Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their superiority as a safe remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 8 to 5 P.M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest business men and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sober, active, and well fitted for the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. F. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 24 Union St., Boston, and Daniel E. Salmon, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Bullfinch seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Bullfinch on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as shown by Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well known lawyer of Titusville, Hon. Jeremiah Curtin, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 70 Wall Street, New York, arrived, and on to see the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek—The best of the land is within four miles of Titusville, lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steers Well has well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Harker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 50 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, will be found to be on the low Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $100 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. F. Bell of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of the Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and preventing geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands well generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Bell, of Mr. Bates, will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm, for over 900 wells. I do not pretend to estimate the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are south of Titusville, or even the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. This conclusion is not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, half a mile from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have sunk one well on this farm where the Steers and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums of money, and the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil City, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 500, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 220 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another flow well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is spouting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between them and the place at which has sunk down to high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. Half a mile north are good oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs rocky ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 26, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 30 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly."

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk forty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which lights them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the coal.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and so as to be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Clemes, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles wanting to be sifted. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Rapid (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to boil their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body is delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. For forty cents will buy enough to fill common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mine, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 31, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. Our daily ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Galls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my mouth is slightly sore now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. While it has no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid one night, but not corroded the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and find it a quantity of it. It is cheap and a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I will cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is in most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moore's Mazeppa & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1865.

☞ The Biddeford Union favors rotation in office, and says:—

In New Hampshire the term of gubernatorial life is two years, and the custom of rotation in that office seems to be fixed with all the binding force of law. We believe this to be eminently practical, and that we in Maine would do well to profit by it.

Rotation in office has its advantages; and in some offices frequent rotation is a very great disadvantage to the public, for whose benefit offices are supposed to be made.

Rotation in the office of Governor of New Hampshire was never the fashion in the old Republican and Federal parties. In the 50 years from 1776 to 1826 only ten men held the office. John Langdon held it 7 years, at different periods in that time; and John Taylor Gilman held it 10 years in succession at one period, and 3 years in succession. Wm. Plumer held it 4 years—3 in succession. Sam'l Bell held it 4 successive years, and David L. Morrill 3.

When the Democratic Party (so called) was formed, as soon as Gen. Jackson came into power, one of their hobbies was rotation in office,—and such was the skill and success of the managers, that one of their opponents gave a new definition of their kind of Rotation, viz, that it consisted in rolling out of one fat office into another.

Nevertheless, rotation kept a foothold among them; and when a few thousand of the best men in that party revolted from under the domination of the slave power, and rallied round the Republican Union Standard, they brought this custom with them, and it has generally been followed—but not always in all offices.

☞ At the Conspirators' Trial on Friday, George B. Hutchinson, of Canada, testified as to being present at a conversation at St. Lawrence Hall, Montreal, on the 2d or 3d day of June, between Dr. Merritt, Beverly Tucker, General Carroll and ex-Governor Westcott, and that Tucker said he had burnt all the letters for fear the Yankee sons of b—s would steal them out of his room. These parties had been talking about the trial.

Mr. Ewing read an argument in favor of Arnold. Mr. Ewing also argued against the jurisdiction of the Court, and after examining the case of Dr. Mudd, claimed that his client was entitled to an acquittal.

The Court adjourned until Tuesday, when Assistant Judge Advocate Bingham will commence summing up for the Government.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The N. Y. Herald's Washington telegram says the President looks forward to a disruption of the Republican party. If it takes place, it will not be his fault, but of the faction that will not be quiet under any circumstances. [The Herald's telegram knows as much about Pres. Johnson's looks forward, as it did about Jeff. Davis's voyage from Fortress Monroe to Washington, i. e. nothing at all.]

The same authority says: "It is understood that General Sherman will be the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio."

John Minor Botts has succeeded in getting an order for the payment of $10,000 for wood represented to have been taken or destroyed since the war began.

The South Carolina delegation are not likely to have much influence in shaping the course of things in that State, their rebel record being of so ultra a character as to destroy any claim to confidence or regard, either for their sincerity or honesty of purpose.

Duff. Green has not yet been pardoned.

No prisoners above the rank of Captain are being released at present.

The World's dispatch says the rebel Gen. McCausland, who sacked and burned Chambersburg, Pa., is living in luxury on his farm in West Virginia. It is understood that a squad of cavalry has been sent after him.

☞ Pres. Johnson has announced his policy as to Indian affairs, and set Hon. W. P. Dale to carry it out, with what army aid he may need. The policy is briefly, they must quit roving and idling, and work or die. "There is no longer any region left in the United States where their rude habits and modes of life can prevail as formerly. They are being pressed in on every side by the advancing settlements of an enterprising people, and they must, therefore, adapt themselves to the new order of things, and live in peace among themselves and with their white neighbors, or they must inevitably perish. The policy of settling them upon suitable reservations, where they may with the aid and friendship of the Government be able to subsist themselves by agricultural and other industrial pursuits, is left without alternative."

— Mr. Abraham Day died at Cornish, Me., on the 14th inst., at the extraordinary age of one hundred and nine years and eight months! He is reported as having been the proprietor of the first iron foundry ever established in America.

PRES. LINCOLN'S VIEWS on a very important subject, have just been given to the public in a letter which he wrote to Governor Hahn of Louisana. It is as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, March 13, 1864.

Hon. Michael Hahn:

My Dear Sir: I congratulate you on having fixed your name in history as the first free State Governor of Louisiana, now you are about to have a commission which, among other things, will probably define the elective franchise.

I barely suggest, for your private consideration, whether some of the colored people may not be let in, as, for instance, the very intelligent, and especially those who have fought gallantly in our ranks. They would probably help in some trying time to come, to keep the jewel of Liberty in the family of freedom. But this is only a suggestion, not to the public, but to you alone.

Yours truly A. LINCOLN.

In close connection with this, we perceive it stated that the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger learns from a reliable source in Louisiana that it is the determination of the citizens of that State to make short work of the negro suffrage question, and to set the seal of the Pelican State at once upon her positive refusal to entertain the project in any shape whatever. That is to say, the few are determined that the many shall have no voice in public affairs. This is not republican, we think: it is certainly not democratic: but it is exactly what we should expect from ex-slaveholders, especially ex-rebels, viz. that if they can't have slavery, they will try to have something near it as possible. Nevertheless, circumstances may alter their case in the future, as they have in the past.

Hon. Michael Hahn, U. S. Senator elect from Louisiana, in a note allowing the publication of Mr. Lincoln's letter to him favoring negro suffrage, thus speaks of the work of the Louisiana Constitutional Convention:

The Convention, besides decreeing instantaneous, uncompensated emancipation, constitutionally provided for the education of all children, without distinction of color; for the enrolment of all men, white and black, in the militia; and invested the Legislature with power to extend to the colored man the highest privilege of citizenship.

BLOCKADE RAISED.—President Johnson, on Friday June 23d, issued the following Proclamation, which is the end of the Blockade.

Whereas, by the proclamation of the President of the 15th and 27th of April, 1861, a blockade of certain ports of the United States was set on foot, and whereas the reasons for that measure have ceased to exist,

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby declare and proclaim the blockade aforesaid to be rescinded as to all the ports aforesaid, including that of Galveston and other ports West of the Mississippi river, which ports will be open to foreign commerce on the 1st day of July next, on the terms and conditions set forth in my proclamation of the 22d of May last.

It is to be understood, however, that the blockade thus rescinded was an international measure for the purpose of protecting the sovereign rights of the United States. The greater or less subversion of the civil authority in the region to which it applied, and the impracticability of at once restoring that in due efficiency, may, for a season, make it advisable to employ the army and navy of the United States towards carrying the laws into effect wherever such employment may be necessary.

In this latter paragraph there is valuable matter, viz. U. S. sovereignty, and power to coerce all rascals, in states or elsewhere.—The President's reservations of power in army and navy to keep ex-rebels in order, is significant, and wholesome.

A GREAT FAMILY LITERARY PAPER. We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the New York Weekly, which will be found elsewhere.—The paper named is one of the very best papers of the kind published. Its matter is entirely original, and consists of first-class Stories, Sketches, and varied departments; and while the stories selected for publication are invariably exciting and deeply interesting, they are at the same time free from that unhealthy excitement which generally marks the newspaper literature of the day, and full of sound morality. It will be seen by the advertisement that two new serials are just commenced, entitled, "Owen, the Convict; or, The Heart's Devotion," and "The Cuban Heiress; or, Old Hepsibah's Secret." 1t

GOLD, Saturday, 142 1-2 to 141 7-8.—Sent to England by steamer, $214,275.

☞ A Buffalo dispatch of June 23 says, Charles Carrington who was yesterday sentenced to be hung, escaped last night with three other prisoners by breaking jail. It is not known what direction they have taken.

ADMIRAL DUPONT, U. S. Navy, is dead, after 50 years' service, honorable and arduous. He was especially distinguished for his decisive and splendid victory achieved at Port Royal, S. C., on the 7th November, 1861, for which he received the thanks of Congress.

— A fond mother in Ohio died with sudden joy the other day, at the return from the army of her only son, whom she had not seen for three years.

BALTIMORE, June 20th.

Messrs. Editors:—For two weeks past this city has been full of released rebel soldiers, and the cry is, still they come. They do not tarry long, and the loyal people do not regret it; but it is a notorious fact that they find plenty of friends while here, who take great pains to make them comfortable, by paying their bills at the hotels, &c. It shows the feeling of a certain class here, who have always been rebels, and who never would give a penny to a sick or wounded Union soldier, and who never had a word to say against the brutal treatment of our poor starving prisoners at Andersonville and other places.

This same class of people are now at work getting up what they term a "Southern Agricultural Aid Society," which has for its purpose, (so they say) to furnish the farmers in Virginia with agricultural implements, &c., as a loan, to be paid when convenient—and it all looks very well, and at a first glance would appear to be a very good thing, showing how ready and willing the North is to forget the past, and how anxious it is to assist her "erring sisters." But the thing has received a ventilation through the columns of the "American," of this city, which shows it to be a plan for certain notorious rebels here to get back a part, at least, of their Southern debts, contracted before the war. It was a very shrewd plan, and a few Union men were deceived by it, and subscribed towards raising a fund to advance the object; but since it has been made manifest that these rebels are the prime movers of the concern, the Union men hold back.

Thousands of soldiers on their way home have passed through Baltimore during the past three weeks,—and among them several New Hampshire regiments, who looked and appeared about as well as those from any other State. All seem delighted at the prospect of getting home, feeling, no doubt that they have done their duty well, and can now return to the pursuits of civil life. What a contrast in this respect between the Union and rebel soldier! The former on his way home rejoicing, with plenty of money, and with the expectation of a warm greeting at a pleasant and cheerful home; while the other, released from prison, without a cent of money, and as it were, no place to go; for in many instances, their homes have been made desolate by the ravages of war. But it is no more than right that they should suffer, for did they not bring this desolation upon themselves by their own acts? Sympathy with rebels may be a very good thing, but it is not every one that can see it.

The weather has been fearfully hot for a week past, but a heavy shower this evening cooled the atmosphere a trifle. Those who can are thinking of taking their summer tours,—and Cape May, Saratoga, Newport, and perhaps Rye Beach, will be the abiding places of many Baltimoreans during the next two months. Truly Yours,

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A burglar was arrested in Concord, on Thursday night, who had just entered three stores. He gave his name as Samuel Slader, of Brattleboro' Vt.,—and seems to be an experienced thief. He had been begging about town some days, pretending to be a returned soldier. The evidence against him is conclusive.

—— The N. H. Statesman takes plain and strong ground in favor of suffrage without regard to color, as the only path of safety—and looks for a struggle, in order to get it.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The Seventy-fifth Annual Meeting of the New Hampshire State Medical Society, will be held at the Court House in this city, to-morrow, (Tuesday,) at 10 o'clock. The Council will meet at the Rockingham House this Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The Society will find quarters at the Rockingham; and dinner will be served by the landlord of that establishment, at the new Temple Hall. Of course our citizens will see to it that this body of prominent gentlemen are tendered the hospitalities of the city.

PARDON AND PROPERTY.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser makes the following explanation:—

Lest some newspaper reports should lead to the inference that the President is granting large numbers of special pardons, it seems proper to say that such is not the case, scarcely one in ten of the applications thus far received having been granted. Most of the pardons thus far issued are to persons whom the provisional governors need as office holders in the work of reconstruction.

Many persons are applying for pardon, whose property has been confiscated and sold, and they invariably seem to suppose that they can get their property back, if they are pardoned; this is wholly a mistake, the President's Amnesty Proclamation expressly declaring that they cannot. The leading feature of the pardon as granted is, in all cases, that the person receiving it is forever debarred from owning slaves, hiring slaves or in any way whatever having any thing to do with slaves, or slave labor; and the use at any time or in any way of slave labor will without action on the President's part cancel the pardon. The intent of the government is to thoroughly root out the system of slavery among all classes excepted from general pardon by the Amnesty Proclamation.

FATAL DISPUTE.—The New Albany, Ky., Ledger reports a terrible accident on the Mississippi Railroad, near Loogovtee, Indiana, Thursday. A freight train bound east and a soldier's train going west collided. The engineers and firemen of both trains were killed. While the conductors of both trains were in angry dispute as to which was to blame, another freight train from the east ran into the soldier's train at the station, killing fifteen men and wounding one hundred and fifty, many fatally. The soldiers belonged to Illinois and Mississippi regiments, and were homeward bound.

GRATIFYING FACT.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says that among all the vast number of applications for pardon filed at the White House, there is not a single instance where the applicant does not assert that he opposed the inauguration of the rebellion. [No doubt some of them speak falsely in this;—but it goes on the record against the rebellion.]

— The $1000 dressing case at the Chicago Sanitary Fair, for the prettiest girl in Chicago, was voted to Miss Anna L. Wilson, who received 1073 votes to 1068 for another lady, and 722 for a third. The whole number of votes, at a dollar each, was $471. The committee very sensibly agreed not to publish the scattering ballots.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m19d&w1m

Burno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. BURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH. Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

We have put up and sold this article for over 80 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Local.

☞ We regret to hear that we came very near having a Fourth of July in Portsmouth this year,—or rather we regret that having come so near, we shall probably fail of it. It appears that a couple of distinguished balloonists, after considerable correspondence, offered the City Government to make an ascension on the 4th, at a low figure—$300, which is but three-fifths their regular price. Then the new steam fire-engine is expected on the 3d, and a display and performance of the two steamers on that day, with fireworks and music by the Cornet Band in the evening, would have made up a very pleasant celebration, at a cost of only $800 or so.

But—but—but Portsmouth people are asleep, a good many of them; and so when it looked as if the motion was going to pass, one of the City fathers (or gran'-fathers) motioned that the celebration be had, if the money could be raised by private subscription! Another moved that a committee of one be appointed, to solicit the funds from the people; and His Honor the Mayor very properly appointed the mover as that one. So the matter slumped, and there will hardly be anything done besides the Sagamore Picnic—except that we hear the steamer Pioneer runs three trips to Smith's Isles on that day, affording all who wish, a rare chance to visit those fast-anchored Isles.

☞ The bill relating to Schools in this city, which is now pending in our Legislature, contains a provision referring the same to the people of Portsmouth for their action, before it can become a law. If the bill is enacted by the Legislature, its details will be published in our newspapers, and every citizen will have the privilege of voting to accept or reject it, as best accords with his judgement.

☞ The great showman, "yours trooly," A. Ward, will open his "wax figures"—not figures literally, but figuratively—at the Temple, Wednesday evening.

☞ Uncle Toby's White Hat has no prejudice against color, and not much against national birth-places or religious sects; if it had, it wouldn't suit his head.

Worth makes the man,—the want of it the fellow; The rest is all but leather or prunello.

☞ It is said that "figures won't lie," but they will most confoundedly, unless written or set up right. That Boat Race is to occur on Thursday, the twenty ninth day of June inst.

☞ It will be seen by report of State Officers elected, that Mr. Robert E. Shillaber of this city has received the appointment of Commissary General of the State. He has just returned home sick, from cavalry service, but is recovering. So General Shillaber will out-rank Captain Bob, won't he?

POLICE COURT, June 54.—Otis Hewins' presence graces the Court Room this morning, he being charged with an assault on Henry Ham, a returned soldier. From the testimony it appears that this man Hewins acts as an errand-boy for Mrs. Ham in —— Street. Mrs. H. has a husband absent at sea, and the son Henry has just returned from service in the army. The young man received a terrible contusion from an instrument unknown held in the hands of the said Hewins. The altercation arose from a discussion involving bad men, bad women, and bad whiskey, of which latter article they could easily decide, as all had imbibed enough. Hewins was ordered to pay costs $4.97, and sentenced to 15 days in jail, which sentence was just right, only the man couldn't see it, and so appealed.

John Dow, a rustic gentleman of strong Southern proclivities, with a voice as melodious as a crow's, attempted to instruct the unlettered crowd which nightly throng Congress street, in the rights of American citizenship. His manners as an orator are not pleasing to a fastidious people not disposed to give due allowance for the fact that J. was terribly in earnest, and fearfully drunk. This is not his first appearance before the public, but will be his last for three months, as he was arrested in the middle of one of his peroration, rudely incarcerated in a gloomy cell, (a la J. Davis) and brought before the Judicial tribunal on Saturday morning, fined $3 and costs $3.86, which of course he couldn't pay (all great men are poor,) and so went up (in a balloon) to the H. of C

Charles J. Brown, not of Mormon fame, but rather from a house of ill fame, in an intoxicated condition was fined $3.00 and $3.86. He went up to the suburbs.

Mary P. Hodgdon, on complaint of neighbors, keeping a noisy and disorderly house, case continued until last Monday in Sept. In a former report we should have stated that Miss Hodgdon plead guilty to keeping a house of ill fame and was bound over in the sum of $200. And on the charge of secreting stolen goods (spool cotton) she plead not guilty, but was proved guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $10.00 to the city, costs $7.62, and pay the Factory Co., twice the value of the goods amounting to $12.96.

☞ The present unprecedented growth of grass,—not in our streets exactly, but in the roads on the outskirts of the city,—proves not only the rare and rank grass-season, but also shows that the highways are not so thickly infested with stray cows as formerly. For which improved and happy condition of things, we think Chas. Robinson, esq., for former exertions, and Pound-keepers Adams and Shillaber, later, merit the thanks of all good and decent citizens.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE OFFICERS.—Secretary of State—Col. Walter Harriman. Treasurer—Peter Sanborn. Warden of State Prison—Joseph Mayo of Weare. State Printer—Geo. E. Jenks. Commissary General—Robert E. Shillabor. State Auditor—David D. Ranlett.

SUICIDE ON A RAILROAD TRACK.—Friday afternoon, as the 2 1-2 o'clock train from Salem for Boston on the Eastern railroad was approaching the Swampscott station, a man deliberately laid himself down before the engine and was run over, being crushed in a most terrible manner. It was impossible for any one to recognize him.

Everybody Should Read It!

WE MEAN THE

NEW YORK WEEKLY,

NOW READY, CONTAINING TWO

Charming, Exciting, Startling, Thrilling

ROMANCES!

THE FIRST, ENTITLED

OWEN, THE CONVICT:

OR,

The Heart's Devotion!

not excepting the most popular of Dumas' works. It is the story of a youth pushed into crime by the force of circumstances, and of a pure, devoted, whole-souled woman, who refused to believe in his guilt, and nobly stood by him till the last.—While it has all the touching pathos of the "Ticket-of-leave Man," it at the same time is brim full of the most extraordinary and soul stirring adventures by land and sea. The hero gets out of one difficulty into another with a rapidity which is wonderful, and which shows the most unexampled ingenuity on the part of the highly-gifted author, who holds his readers as if spell bound from the beginning to the close. Old romancers who have read the manuscript—men who have been familiar with story-reading and story-writing throughout their lives, have been so entranced with this truly wonderful story that they have found it impossible to lay it down till they have read to the very last line.

THE NEXT STORY IS ENTITLED

The Cuban Heiress;

OR,

OLD HEPSIBAH'S SECRET!

It is from the pen of our highly-gifted contributor,

Mrs. Mary Kyle Dallas,

and is, beyond question, the finest thing she has thus far written. It is full of love and mystery, and possesses a charm which cannot fail to fascinate all who may read it.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT. In the kitchen it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Rapid. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—We guarantee satisfaction after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I will heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Stark's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as the first, and is not changed in the least. It is a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community here long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Stark was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. FARRER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a clear black.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I have ever seen. I have used J. Moody's, Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 1865.

PRES. JOHNSON has had a long dialogue with the South Carolina reconstruction delegation. We have not room for a quarter of it. Among other things the President says:

The slaves went into the war as slaves and came out freemen of color. The friction of the rebellion has rubbed out the nature and character of slavery.

The loyal men who were compelled to bow and submit to the rebellion should, now that the rebellion is ended, stand equal everywhere.

He would say to the delegation that slavery is gone as an institution. There was no hope that the people of South Carolina would be admitted into the Senate or the House of Representatives until they had afforded evidence by their conduct of this truth.

Now he did not want the late slaveholders to control the negro votes against white men. Let each State judge of the depository of its own political power. He was for emancipation; he was for emancipating the white man as well as the black.

Mr. Holms asked:—"Is that not altogether accomplished?"

The President replied that he did not think the question fully settled. Government cannot go on unless it is based on right. The people of South Carolina must have a convention, and amend their constitution by abolishing slavery and this must be done in faith, and the convention and legislature must adopt the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which prohibits and excludes slavery everywhere.

One of the delegates said:—"We are most anxious for civil rule, for we have had more than enough of military despotism."

The President, resuming, said that, as the Executive, he could only take the military steps to enable them to do the things which it was incumbent upon them to perform.

Another of the delegates remarked that it was assumed in some parts of this country that in consequence of the rebellion the Southern States had forfeited their rights as members of the Confederacy, and that if restored it could only be on certain conditions, one of which was that slavery shall be abolished. This could be done only through a convention.

The President repeated that the friction of the rebellion had rubbed slavery out, but it would be better so to declare by law. As one of the delegates had just remarked that the Constitution of South Carolina did not establish slavery it were better to insert a clause antagonist to slavery.

Judge Frost said substantially:—The object of our mission is the appointment of a governor. The State of South Carolina will accept these conditions. Certain delusions have been dispelled by the revolution—among them that slavery is an element of political strength and moral power. It is very certain that in supporting the old notion respecting State rights in maintenance of which those who made the rebellion acted, South Carolina erred. With a new system of labor South Carolina will cordially co-operate with the government in making that labor effective and elevating.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It is understood that Gov. Fierpont declines signing any more recommendations for pardon, because the President does not see fit to pardon such men as the Andersons of the Tredegar Iron Works, who have made large fortunes out of the rebel government during the war.

The Times' dispatch says the rebel Senator Burnett of Kentucky has been sent home to be disposed of by the civil authorities.

The Tribune's dispatch says orders have just been issued to muster out the following among other regiments: 16th, 28th and 32d Mass., 5th N. H., and 1st Me., and 5th, 6th and 8th Vt.

—At Washington, Saturday, Judge Crowley had an interview with the President, and laid before him the complaint of the friends of colored suffrage in Charleston against General Hatch and General Gwyn, who refused them permission to hold political meetings in Charleston. The interview was very satisfactory, the President having assured the Judge that their grievances should be redressed at once, and that the fullest liberty for political discussion should be secured to all.

—The Cresent (rebel) regiment of New Orleans went out 1100 strong. Its remnant has just come back, numbering 61.

The Richmond Times (pro-rebel paper,) has been warned by the proper military authorities, and accordingly hauls in its horns.

EDITORIAL EXCURSION TO PLYMOUTH, &c. — On Friday afternoon last a party of gentlemen connected with the press of Mass. and N. H. left Concord by the B. C. & M. R. R. to pass the night under the hospitable roof of Col. Hiram Bell of the justly celebrated Pemigewasset House at Plymouth, where they were welcomed at 6 o'clock and set down to one of Col. Bell's liberally provided tables. In the evening Gov. Smyth was serenaded by the Band connected with the House, and the Gov. appeared with ex-Gov. Gilmore and made a speech. He was followed by ex-Gov. Gilmore, and hearty cheers were given after the remarks of both speakers; after which the audience listened to remarks from Maj. B. Perley Poore, Wm. H. Hackett, E. C. Bailey and others. The party left next morning for the Weirs, and embarked on board the Lady of the Lake for a lake excursion and visit to Centre Harbor. During the forenoon the party reached Centre Harbor and were cared for by our former townsman J. S. Huntress in good style. After dinner, re-embarked on board the "Lady" for the return. On board the steamer, Capt. Sanborn extended hospitalities with generous profusion: and the feast of reason commenced as soon as the steamer left the wharf, when Maj. Hackett of this city proceeded in behalf of the projector of the excursion to welcome the gentlemen from Mass. to the green hill-sides, the fertile valleys, the silvery lakes and the mountain air of the Granite State, closing with the sentiment, "The Press of Massachusetts — distinguished alike for enterprise and liberality; we welcome its representatives in these our borders:" and called upon Maj. C. O. Rogers of the Boston Journal, who responded, thanking the gentlemen of N. H. for the pleasures of the occasion. At the sentiment, "the State of New Hampshire: may her patriotism endure like her own Granite Hills," Maj. Hackett called upon Gov. Smyth, who responded in an excellent speech which was warmly applauded. The chairman then gave, "the President of the U. S.,—the People's president, 'born of poor but respectable parents,'" and called upon Maj. B. Perley Poore of the Journal, who responded fitly and alluded to the Military record of N. H. in a handsome manner. This suggested the chairman to call up the gallant ex-Col. of the 9th N. H., and Mr. Gilmore replied in a patriotic speech which was loudly applauded. To the sentiment,—"The Commonwealth of Massachusetts; well stocked with New Hampshire blood," the chairman called upon that son of N. H., Col. E. C. Bailey of the Herald, who made a capital speech, closing with an anecdote of Daniel Webster. "The City of Boston, celebrated for the purity of her waters," was responded to by Mr. Waters of the Advertiser.

The closing sentiment was, "The Rivers of New Hampshire and Massachusetts: as the noble Merrimack rises in New Hampshire, and empties at the seacoast of Mass., so the Editor of the Herald at Newburyport rises on this occasion, but will not slop over."

Mr. Colby of the Herald in response, made a speech full of interesting reminiscences of his Concord editorial experience, although we should imagine that though the editors he described lived at the Capital, they could not be said to always "dwell in concord." He gave an interesting account of the early history of the free soil movement in N. H., which established the first free soil paper; and concluded just as the Boat neared the Wiers. Maj. Hackett, in behalf of the company, returned thanks to Capt. Sanborn of the Lady of the Lake, who responded; and also expressed the gratitude of the company for the kind attention of John E. Lyon, esq., President of the B. C. & Montreal R. R.

The company reached Concord Saturday P. M., after the enjoyment of a most agreeable excursion. The Press of Concord was fully represented; and among others was Dr. Hawkins, editor of the Boston Courier, Stone of the Lowell Courier; Hanscom of Manchester Daily Union, and lots of other good fellows, whom we would mention did we not bear in mind the proverbial diffidence of editors at seeing their names in type. The excursion is to be followed by a similar affair in a few weeks, when Smith's Isles will be visited by the tourists.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT VESSELS. The steamers Quaker City, Ladona, Accacia (tug), Cambridge, and E. B. Hale (tug) and the barque J. L. Davis, belonging to the Government, were sold at Philadelphia on Tuesday. the Quaker City brought $35,000; the Ladona $35,200; the Accacia $1,400; the Cambridge $17,500; the E. B. Hale $4,600; the Davis $12,500. The competion was spirited, and the prices are considered excellent.

—A Montreal correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune states that Gen. Dix's recent visit to Quebec was for purpose of informing the Governor-General of Canada in his own plain, patriotic and convincing way, that the shameful abuses of the right of asylum so long practiced by the Canadian Government, in behalf of the vile criminals of secession, must be reformed.

The total receipts at the Chicago Sanitary Fair, are about $275,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The house of William Hale, esq., of Dover, was entered by burglars about 2 1-2 o'clock Thursday morning and two gold watches and some silver taken, to the value of $200. One of the watches was taken from a room occupied by a daughter of Mr. Hale. His room was entered, when he awoke and the robbers fled.

—— Mr. Dexter Harris of West Canaan, after working in his corn-field during the day, June 17, Saturday, in his usual health, was taken suddenly ill, about seven o'clock P. M. and died in about two hours. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause.

—— It may be said with perfect safety that this Legislature will neither enact a law by which the State would assume the war debt of cities and towns, nor one authoring cities and towns to refund to drafted men the amount paid for substitutes.

—— The Manchester police are after unlicensed dogs sharply. About twenty have been shot, and more will be unless their owners comply with the law. A license there is worth nothing without a collar.

N. H. GENERAL COURT.—In the House on Friday, on motion of Mr. Stearns of Rindge, the bill in relation to the Schools of Portsmouth was taken from the table and amended so that vacancies in the Board of Education shall be filled by the Mayor and Aldermen, and that the act shall be in force when adopted by the city, and that it may be adopted by any town or city in the State.

On motion of Mr. Rollins, of Portsmouth, the bill was further amended in relation to the bonds of the Treasurer, and otherwise.

Mr. Bingham, of Littleton, moved that the bill be postponed to the next session of the Legislature. He had no desire to interfere with any arrangements the people of Portsmouth might make with regard to schools. But he understood that a very respectable portion of the people of that city did not desire a change. This bill contemplated a change in the school system.—The schools in that city have been regarded as model schools.

Mr. Rollins said that their schools were good in spite of the system rather than in consequence of it.

Mr. Page, of Warren, asked if any petition or remonstrances had been presented.

Mr. Rollins said that neither had been presented, though a petition numerously signed by both political parties had been drawn up, but it was not deemed necessary.

Mr. Haven, of Portsmouth, added that several gentlemen of both parties had urged its passage in conversation with him.

Mr. Stevens, of Portsmouth, said that no changes in the school laws would meet with universal approval. But as it would be submitted to the people of the city to adopt or reject as they deemed advisable, he could not see why it was necessary to postpone it.

Mr. Page, of Warren, said that these school laws were all to be carefully examined before the next session, and this law had better be postponed till we can see the result of that revision.

On motion of Mr. Rollins, of Portsmouth, the bill was laid on the table.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Wheeler, of Dover, to incorporate the New Hampshire Musical Association. To the Committee on Incorporations.

Notice was given by Mr. Moran, of Portsmouth—Of a bill to incorporate the People's Aqueduct Company in Portsmouth.

By Mr. Stevens, of Portsmouth—Of a bill in relation to the House of Reformation.

The Governor transmitted a communication from the Secretary of State of the United States with reference to statues in the old Representatives' Hall in Washington. The communication invites each State to furnish two statues of bronze or marble, of distinguished deceased citizens, for the Hall, which is set apart as a National statue gallery. Referred to the Committee on National Affairs.

Mr. Small of New Market introduced a bill in addition to the act in relation to married women, passed in 1860. [That women shall hold all real estate free from control of the husband, unless acquired by his property, and that the wife may will it and husband be legator.] To the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Leavitt, of Hampton, introduced a bill authorizing and regulating licensed houses. [A liquor law, allowing sale on license.]

Mr. Smith of Wentworth introduced a bill providing for the taxation of incomes. [33 1-3 per cent. on all income from bonds, &c., not otherwise taxed.] Read once and on motion of Mr. Smith of Wentworth laid upon the table.

☞ Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. Dessauer, optician, in another column; and also to the following highly complimentary notice from the highest medical publication in New England:

OPTICAL INSTRUMENTS.—Until within a few years past, we have been dependent upon European manufacturers for our best optical instruments. Indeed, it has been supposed that the glass from which the lenses of microscopes and telescopes are made, could not be manufactured in this country of sufficient purity. But we now have abundant evidence that such ideas are erroneous. Not only can the raw materials, which compose them, be well prepared here, but the finish and perfection of the instruments will favorably compare with any which are made in Europe.—We have lately had an opportunity of examining some very fine microscopes, telescopes, magnifying glasses, and other optical instruments, which were manufactured for the use of physicians by Mr. L. Dessauer, No. 4 London street, in this city. They are not only well made, but are sold at very low prices.—There is no necessity of importing instruments of the kind, when they can be obtained in such perfection, in this country, as those we examined.—Boston Medical Journal.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anceres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN! If you wish to marry you can do so by addressing me. I will send you, without money and without price, valuable information, that will enable you to marry happy and speedily, irrespective of age, wealth or beauty. This information will cost you nothing, and if you wish to marry, I will cheerfully assist you. All letters strictly confidential. The desired information sent by return mail, and no reward asked. Enclose postage, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself. Address, my15 SARAH B. LAMBERT, Greenpoint, dawSmen Kings Co., New York.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our inside columns, to base a false reputation by long and unmeaning advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

Local.

WATER, WATER!—This is always the cry of those who are really thirsty, especially of those whose taste has not been perverted. And nothing can be more grateful in a hot day, than cool, fresh water. As long ago at least as the days of King Solomon, there was a proverb, "As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country."

The supply of water from the wells in Portsmouth was perceived seventy years ago to be limited as to quantity, and in dry times, very scant indeed: and except in a very few cases, it was of bad quality, not fresh, but brackish. A few enterprising men got up the Portsmouth Aqueduct, by a corporate subscription; and it has proved to be a most valuable institution, for convenience, comfort, health and life,—being a supply of the best of pure spring water. At first only a small portion of the houses were supplied with its waters;—but it has steadily gained in extended use, by increased population, and by better and more comfortable ways of living,—so that three times at least within our remembrance, the supply was temporarily felt to be insufficient, and improvements were made to increase it. We refer to the second chain of pipes 50 years ago, to the reservoirs, and to the new spring near the C. & P. railroad.

And now, a much greater improvement than either of the above, is in progress, viz. the building of an additional reservoir in Dover street, very much larger than the one which has been there a few years. It is indeed, one of the most important improvements made in our city this year, though not of a nature to make much show.

In building this new reservoir in that place, it became necessary to draw off the water from the one already there; and this has occasioned a temporary scarcity in those houses that stand on high places, causing (as in all such cases of change,) some inconvenience, which the occupants of such houses will be glad to learn will soon be remedied by the completion of the new reservoir, and be followed by a more ample and constant supply of water hereafter. The proprietors, in this step, promote the public interest at the same time with their own.

☞ The same night on which the house of Dr. Burroughs was entered, four men were observed attempting to effect an entrance to the old "Dearborn house" on Christian Shore. Mr. Nelson Downing, who lives near by, reports that hearing some disturbance, he arose and looking out of his window, discovered two men endeavoring to raise a ladder against the side of the house above mentioned. He seized his gun, which was unloaded, ran out into his back yard and loaded the musket, but in ramming the charge he accidentally made a noise which alarmed the rascals, who immediately left. A most fortunate exit for them, we judge, as they would otherwise have probably carried away one "load," which might have proved heavy. The police are on their track.

We also learn that persons were seen in the yard of Alderman Shannons, between the hours of one and two o'clock the same night, but were frightened away by a noise in the house.

And yet another: an attempt was made to enter the house of Mr. Samuel Adams on Ladd Street; but upsetting a pail of water in endeavoring to climb in the window, they were frightened away.

We learn that on Saturday last the store near the Eastern Depot kept by Mr. J. W. Gerrish, was entered while the proprietor was absent at dinner, and twenty-seven dollars abstracted from the till. See Police Court report.

A good harness was stolen from the barn of Mr. P. M. Snow, on Wall Street, one night last week.

POLICE COURT, June 26th.—A small boy was arraigned on the charge breaking and entering the store of Mr. J. W. Gerrish on Saturday, and stealing therefrom a sum of money. Ordered to recognize in the sum of one hundred dollars for his appearance at the October court.

☞ The State Medical Society convenes in this city to-day. Good arrangements are made by our citizens for the entertainment of members, who if the weather be favorable, we trust will pass a pleasant day.

☞ We have received from Mr. N. F. Mathes of this city, who is now travelling at the South, a package of late Richmond papers.

☞ Col. Frank E. Howe, the Military Agent at New-York for the New-England States, reports that the Tenth and Twelfth New-Hampshire Regiments have left Richmond, Va., in the steamship Ariadne, bound for Portsmouth, N. H., direct. Not so; — this I ought to have been so: — but the New Hampshire brigade, consisting of the 10th regiment, Major Crowley, the 12th, Colonel Barker, and the 13th, Colonel Smith, the whole under command of Brigadier General N. T. Donahoe, arrived at Boston Sunday P. M. and lodged in Faneuil Hall Sunday night. On Monday morning they went to Concord. The Boston Herald says; —The brigade numbers 70 officers and 700 men, and a finer set of soldiers have never passed through Boston.

Among the line officers of the 13th, are Capt. M. T. Betton, and Lieut. (Bvt. Capt.) W. J. Ladd, of this city.

The First New Hampshire cavalry, Col. B. T. Hutchins, which has been guarding the fords of the Upper Potomac for some time past, have been ordered to report to the officer commanding the cavalry of the Army of the Potomac.

Everybody Should Read It!

WE MEAN THE

NEW YORK WEEKLY,

NOW READY, CONTAINING TWO

Charming, Exciting, Startling, Thrilling

ROMANCES!

THE FIRST, ENTITLED

OWEN, THE CONVICT:

or,

The Heart's Devotion!

is perhaps the

GREATEST ROMANCE OF MODERN TIMES, not excepting the most popular of Dumas' works. It is the story of a youth pushed into crime by the force of circumstances, and of a pure, devoted, whole-souled woman, who refused to believe in his guilt, and nobly stood by him till the last.—While it has all the touching pathos of the "Ticket-of-leave Man," it at the same time is brim full of the most extraordinary and soul stirring adventures by land and sea. The hero gets out of one difficulty into another with a rapidity which is wonderful, and which shows the most unexampled ingenuity on the part of the highly-gifted author, who holds his readers as if spell-bound from the beginning to the close. Old romancers who have read the manuscript—men who have been familiar with story-reading and story-writing throughout their lives, have been so entranced with this truly wonderful story that they have found it impossible to lay it down till they have read to the very last line.

THE NEXT STORY IS ENTITLED

The Cuban Heiress;

OLD HEPSIBAH'S SECRET!

It is from the pen of our highly-gifted contributor,

Mrs. Mary Kyle Dallas,

and is, beyond question, the finest thing she has thus far written. It is full of love and mystery, and possesses a charm which cannot fail to fascinate all who may read it.

OUR TERMS.

THE N. Y. WEEKLY is sold by all News Agents in the U. S. The price is SIX CENTS, but where Agents have to pay extra freight a higher price is charged. U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Boils, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with Immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. J. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes the married life man's happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of the terrible results.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 LINDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a private or SPECIAL DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that he can safely say, when first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate. Medicines sent to any part of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, universally acknowledged preferable. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Lindicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any practitioner in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow since 1836, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain the name, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians of Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Lindicott street. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FEMALE TONIC. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing territories of Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. There are three wells already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flow and the other two are progressing in a manner of doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that their properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. Full information will be given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been examined with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six millions of dollars. The late Hon. R. W. Rincle, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They made the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek. The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich deep-seated Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The Oil bells run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immense fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 800 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this farm is success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well pay for itself a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flint below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $12 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $1000 to sink a well to the depth of 1000 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $25 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and exploring in Venango, Clarion, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors REDFIELD, GARNAND and SHEPARD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells—the flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room for at least 20 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole farm, and they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your share from this Farm must be worth over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek and about two miles from the place where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of last May, and with its wicker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the wicker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will flow abundantly. Little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high a hope, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Bates thinks it is highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent prospects. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing so finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 115 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangement for filling the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them at the very point of their rise, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to concentrate the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonals have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not gum up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of Ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the Schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is a decided improvement on that used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the least in single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without it. I remain, yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is free, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and but a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 12, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I have ever used. Send over Messrs. Howard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours, respectfully, G. E. STILES.
PRICE A POWDER.
An Ink Powder will be sent by mail to any address in the United States, free of charge, on the receipt of forty cents. Address

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1865.

FROM HAVANA AND ST. DOMINGO.—A Porto Rico paper of the 14th, says the individuals to whom the Spanish authorities delivered the government of the Island of St. Domingo, agreed to pay to Spain all the expenses of the war and to guarantee all property to Spaniards residing there. It was also rumored that the Haytiens had already invaded Dominican territory. [Both reports are somewhat doubtful.]

The quondam blockade runner Wren, which left Havana on the 11th, was out only two days when a part of the crew seized her and run her into Key West. Their object was to obtain the prize money. There remain at Havana, the Mary, Virginia, Zephine, Francis, Flora, Maria, Pelican, Foam, Lark, Lama, and Harriet Lane.

A large Italian vessel brought in 300 coolies on the 20th. There was very little sickness in Havana.

HAVANA.—Havana correspondence says the British consul has made a demand for the blockad-runner Wren, captured by the crew and run into Key West. Breckinridge is still in Havana. It was said he was going to Spain.

The Ram Stonewall was still in the harbor, but none doubted she would ultimately be given up to our government.

ALEX. H. STEVENS, the Vice President of the late Rebel Confederacy, gives a version of the Conference at Fortress Monroe last year; which makes Jeff. Davis "a liar and the father of it," in the account which he gave, and which was spread over the land and largely used by the copperhead papers. Davis's version of the talk was designed to crush the Southern submission or peace party;—but Stevens represents Pres. Lincoln's attitude as kind in manner and purpose, firm as to National supremacy, and merciful to all offenders who would return and submit.

☞ Some of the newly reconstructed officers of the late rebel States, are said to be in a quandary just now,—as a law of the U. S. passed in 1862, requires them to make oaths that they have never borne arms against the U. S., nor given aid or countenance to those who have, nor held office under any hostile authority, &c. The law seems to have been forgotton in the recent movements,—but it is brought out and published, and must be obeyed.

GOLD, Tuesday, 141 3-4.

— The Jacksonville, Fla., Union of the 17th says a portion of the private baggage of Jeff. Davis has been secured near Gainsville, Fla. It consists of two boxes and one trunk, containing many important private letters and papers. The wagon containing the baggage seems to have been in advance of the flying party, and was abandoned by those having it in charge on learning of Davis's capture.

— The Tribune's New Orleans correspondent is informed that 5000 of the late rebel army of Texas have gone over the Rio Grande to enter Mexican service, a heavy bounty being offered to the men.

— Richmond correspondence says Judge Ould and Major Carrington have been released on parole, it being found they had no hand in stealing money sent to Union prisoners. The guilty parties are in confinement. Dick Turner is chained to the wall-side of his dungeon.

— Baron Grecenheim, a Jew, has just received from the King of Portugal the order of "Jesus Christ."

— The London Index gives it up. "The Suddenness of the Collapse" is its heading for the editorial review of the last news from this side.

— Tom Thumb excites curiosity, in London, by smoking immense cigars which have the appearance of a large bowsprit sticking out of his face. The general has also a fondness for horseback, and mounts an animal fourteen hands high. Nothing less suits his vaulting ambition.

— Senator John Sherman of Ohio made a little speech at Columbus after the Ohio republicans had nominated Gen. Cox for Governor, in which he said that Gen. Cox would have no more decided supporter in Ohio than his brother, General William T. Sherman.

— Three tanks containing three thousand barrels of oil lately burst at the United States well in the Pennsylvania oil regions, and the stream of oil was set fire to and quickly consumed. The well received no harm.

— Sir John Richardson, the Polar voyager and friend of Sir John Franklin, died recently in England of apoplexy, aged 78.

— President Johnson was ill with a cold, on Monday, and received no visitors.

— The defalcations of Eastman, the absconding pork dealer of New York, will amount to nearly one million dollars. His friends think his conduct the result of mental rather than moral derangement.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY.—Medford, Mass., June 24.—Yesterday was Class Day at Harvard, and such a day as is in itself a luxury—the earth freshly washed by Thursday's showers, the breeze cool and balmy, the sun bright, the sky unclouded. A dense crowd packed the church to witness the exercises there:—a prayer by Rev. Dr. Peabody, a well written and well delivered oration by J. Q. A. Brackett of Bradford, N. H., a poem, an ode, and music by the Germania Band.

After these came the "spreads" at the various halls, and a most animated appearance did those venerable buildings present, the throng swarming into the doors and filling the windows, making the rooms echo with laughter and radiant with bright faces, while the air was heavy with the incessant hum of many voices. The tables groaned under the weight of tempting dainties whose allurements entirely overcame any scruples as to partaking on the part of the merry crowd gathered there by invitation of the hospitable young hosts, who were untiring in their exertions to prove housekeeping in bachelor apartments a success. Salads and sociality, fruits and flirtations, creams and converse, taste and tongue, were indulged in to an unlimited extent, in cosy nooks and in the solitude of a crowd. Our opinion is that it was the largest strawberry jam of which we ever partook.

The dancing on the green caused a display of toilets not often surpassed at opera, but the temperature seemed rather too elevated to permit your junior to "trip the light fantastic too." The dancing over, a strange transformation has visited the graduating class, and their glossy black and white of the preceding portion of the day has been superseded by outre garments and shocking bad hats. A procession is formed and, preceded by the band, visits the buildings in the order of their ages, cheering all with the short, sharp hurrah of Harvard. At Gore Hall a woodbine is planted, a new feature here, though common we believe at many colleges, and then the class-rings are formed around the elm by Holden Chapel, which bears its usual circlet of floral treasures. After the usual cheerings and runnings, the struggle for the trophies fastened high up on the tree took place, a great improvement from former years being shown by the lack of roughness in this final ceremony.

Here in this town, on the banks of the beautiful little Mystic, not much strikes the eye of the roving correspondent. The great brickyards of Hobbell & Co., which made seventeen million of bricks last year, and the weather-beaten frame of a vessel on the stocks first caught my eye. Perched up on a hill in Somerville, in the rear of Tufts College buildings, the great reservoir for supplying Charlestown with pure water looks like some gigantic earthwork. A stalk of rye 9 feet high was taken from a field here a few days since, and I pulled a stalk of grass five feet in length by the roadside. Ben. Wright contemplates the laying out of a trotting park on land owned by himself in this town.

—— ION.

Boston, June 26.—The New Hampshire Brigade, (comprising the 10th, 12th and 13th regiments,) under Brig. Gen. Donahoe, arrived in this city Sunday afternoon from Richmond, and were quartered in Faneuil Hall. The brigade musters about 800 rank and file, and has seen a great deal of hard service. The 13th has the honor of being the regiment whose colors first waved in the rebel capital when our troops occupied it. The papers speak in high terms of the appearance of this brigade. The Herald says: "A finer set of soldiers have never passed through our city." The Transcript, after noticing the applause with which the veterans were received while passing through the streets, says: "The colors borne by the different regiments gave the best evidence of the good service they had done the country." Quite a number of the men who objected to confinement in the "cradle of liberty," went up to the roof and thence descended by means of the water pipes to the ground. After a breakfast at the hall, tendered them by the Mayor, the brigade left for Concord, by special train, about 9 o'clock this morning.

Yesterday I listened to an excellent discourse on the "Minor Moralities," delivered in Lexington by Rev. Dr. Peabody—a sermon that touched most of us on some point, for who is there not deficient in some way, in order or punctuality or courtesy or the lesser things which go to make up the grand total of life. Delivered in the unostentatious manner so well known to most of your readers, the simple, cogent truths embodied in his remarks doubtless had as much weight with his audience as though aided by all the flowers of rhetoric and the strength of denunciatory declamation.

The trees in this vicinity are slowly recovering from the ravages of the canker worm, but all hopes of a fruit crop from them were long since blasted. In this connection I extract the following from an article in the Advertiser, (written by a gentleman from your vicinity, a close observer of nature,) to show the necessity for the rigorous enforcement of the law for the protection of song birds:

I have seen the Cedar Waxwing or Cherry-bird, the common Robin, Baltimore Oriole, Crow Blackbird, the song and tree Sparrows, the Wren, the yellow and blue-winged Yellow Warblers, each and all of them devouring canker worms with a voracity astonishing to the worms if not to the observer. * * *

How fortile would our combined efforts be, even if we were awake, to win the battle against the myriad entomological army, without the aid of the birds. And though they have worked for us from dawn to dusk, cheering us with their songs withal, we have allowed the ruthless persecution of them to proceed, until we are compelled to do a scavenger work with an awkwardness and disgust only exceeded in degree by the grace and delight with which the birds perform the same work.

Local.

THE SANITARY COMMISSION, as may be seen by an advertisement in this day's Chronicle, has done a wise and timely act of kindness to our returned soldiers, and to the relatives of those deceased, by its Claim Agency, with a Central Office at Washington, and with Local Agencies in every State and almost every city. Its agent in Portsmouth is Rev. Mr. Holman, so well known and approved as to need no commendation here: and he like all the Claim Agents of the Sanitary Commission, has the needful blanks and forms for making and proving a claim of pay, bounties, and pensions—and will perform his part of the duty without expense to the claimant. The expenses of the agency are borne by the Committee, which has undertaken to guard the interest of the soldier, prevent him from being the victim of fraud, and save him from paying expensive fees.

☞ Ship Wild Pigeon, 768 tons burthen, built at this port in 1851, has been sold at Valparaiso for $35,000.

NAVAL.—The double-turretted iron-clad Agamenticus dropped down to lower harbor on Tuesday afternoon.

☞ On Tuesday, in accordance with an order from the Department, 17 minute guns were fired at the Navy Yard, in respect to the memory of Admiral Dupont.

☞ The first Blueberries of the season, that we hear of, came over the Concord Railroad, to Mr. Avery, on Tuesday, 27th June.

☞ Nobody about here, that we know of, is preparing for the Fourth of July, but Mr. Carter, at Sagamore Grove.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. Eliss Nason has closed his ministry in Exeter, as pastor of the 1st Cong. Church.

—— The News Letter learns that William Robinson, Esq., of Augusta, Georgia, a native of Exeter, died in 1864, and by his will has left to the town, after paying out certain legacies, a sum of money, amounting to $175,000. The balance of his property amounting probably to $150,000, for the purpose of founding a Female School for the use of the town.

—— We notice by one of the Concord papers, that the State Debt of New Hampshire amounts to $4,800,000, and it is now proposed to tax the people of this State $1,250,000 per year—and by that means, in five years the State will be entirely out of debt.—i. e. if such tax be assessed—of which there is no prospect whatever.

—— The Concord correspondent of the Union says a meeting of the Unitarian Society there was held last Saturday night, "which left the Committee unrestricted about opening the house." That is, they left it closed,—and Rev. Mr. Hatch preached on Sunday evening in Eagle Hall.

—— Under the head Information Wanted, the Mirror says, John L. Chapman came to Manchester on the 14th inst., wrote letters from there as late as the 19th, and since that time nothing has been heard of him, except news that he died the 20th inst., at 6 P. M. A friend of his has come to Manchester to find out about the matter and can gain no information. Any one who will leave word at the Mirror office in reference to him will greatly relieve one in distress. His last letter stated he was living in the north part of the city near the Hospitals, and stopping with strangers.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Deafness, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

CAUTION FROM THE AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine product, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near appoaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

ARTEMUS WARD'S ENTERTAINMENT. Mr. Charles F. Browne, the veritable Artemus Ward, who has made more fun than any man in America, will unroll his "pictures" and give his great lecture upon the Mormons, which is brim full of "goaks," at the Temple this (Wednesday) evening.—Artemus gave his entertainment in New York city soon after his return from the Pacific coast last fall. He was so popular that he had overflowing houses there all winter. Since that, his unique Show has had a great run in Boston, Providence, and wherever it has been, being always A-Warded the highest praise.

This entertainment needs no introduction to our readers, from us. We presume there is nobody who is anybody, but knows of its merits, and that none will question its excellence. But we will cut a line or two from a duodecimo of compliments before us: The Home Journal says, "the lecture is amusing, interesting and valuable." The Clipper says, "the views are executed in the very highest style of the art." If you would laugh and grow fat, go and see the prince of showmen to night.

☞ A match of a Boston horse against time, it is said is to be tested to-day, which is creating some interest in this city. The terms are $1000 a side, and the horse is to travel from Boston to Portland between sunrise and sunset, the distance being about 105 miles, and the time 15 hours 4 minutes. There is to be but one stop of any length, we hear, and that of an hour or two, in this city, about noon; though of course the horse will occasionally be halted for a breath, a sponge-out, and a mouthful of water. The feat, which must be done "in harness," (that is in sulkey,) is a great one, and would tax the powers and endurance of most horses; and the state of the weather and the condition of the roads to day, will greatly effect the result.

7 miles an hour continuously, would just do the job; but the design we believe is to drive about 8 miles an hour, which will allow about two hours for rest and baiting here. Mr. Sherburne Somerby of this city, the old Boston stage driver, is to accompany the team as far as Saco, for guide and advisor—having relays of horses; and there will probably be several other teams in company, to witness the trial. With two horses there would be some fun, though the race is too long for great sport; but with one poor animal, he he never so good and game, to try to work to the windward of old Time, "who never breaks and never tires," but is always there,—such a struggle ever seems an up-hill one to us. We wish the gallant beast and his plucky owner, whoever they are, the fullest success.

POLICE COURT, June 27.—Among the heart-moving scenes in a criminal court, an abandoned woman is as pitiable a spectacle as is presented. How terribly full of meaning is that adjective "abandoned!" It signifies that virtue, honor, integrity, decency, morality, health and usefulness have all departed from the victim of wrong, and that shame, indecency, immorality, corruption and vice have taken possession of the heart, converting this temple of the living God into a charnel-house of loathsome impurities. Modesty,—a ruling grace, adorning and giving to a woman that moral polish which beautifies and befits her for her appropriate place in society, is wholly lacking in the courtezan, who with a masculine step and bold effrontery takes her seat in the dock, oftentimes chewing her quid of tobacco or gum, with a rapidity of the jaws that would do credit to an A 1 bark-mill; listens to the testimony with a careless indifference, receives her sentence with perhaps an oath or an indecent expression, and retires leaving the impression on the reflecting mind that no worse hell is essential to the punishment of a man having the elements of decency, than the society of such females.

New York has its hellish dens of iniquity, Boston its numerous sinks of vice, but it remains for Portsmouth to crown this record of shame by outrivalling her sisters in deeds of pollution and crime. Of course we speak proportionately, and in so doing boldly assert that no community in New England or the North with which we are conversant, or of which we can learn, is so nearly filled with impudent and vile women as is ours. Flaunting their gaudy apparel, spewing their filthy language, insulting nature herself by their lascivious conduct, they stalk defiantly thro' our streets at mid-day, at early eve and at the midnight hour, like so many spiders after their respective flies. We advise all young men disposed to follow them, to peruse with care, marking every word, the seventh chapter of Proverbs, wherein the wise man cautions the young in words to plain too be misunderstood.

The above remarks will apply to many cases which come before our Court; and when we judge the readers of the Chronicle can bear it, we shall discuss the cause of the alarming prevalence of prostitution in our midst.

There was no business on Tuesday, our heading to the contrary notwithstanding.

☞ The body of young Mr. McCarthy, who was recently drowned at Concord, was recovered and brought to this city for burial on Monday.

☞ During the severe tornado Monday night, one of the large shade trees adjacent to the residence of J. R. Childs, Esq., on State street, gave way with a fearful crash, and, fortunately for the inmates, fell obliquely across the yard. Aside from the destruction of the fence, but little damage was done.

☞ Citizens who have visited the Atlantic House at Wells Beach, this season, tell us that you wouldn't know the place, so entirely renewed and improved is it—renovated, and richly refurnished throughout. The table is profusely supplied, and no pains spared to make guests comfortable. The beach is well known as one of the best in the country.

Everybody Should Read It!

WE MEAN THE

NEW YORK WEEKLY,

NOW READY, CONTAINING TWO

Charming, Exciting, Startling, Thrilling

ROMANCES!

THE FIRST, ENTITLED

OWEN, THE CONVICT:
or,
The Heart's Devotion!

not excepting the most popular of Dumas' works. It is the story of a youth pushed into crime by the force of circumstances, and of a pure, devoted, whole-souled woman, who refused to believe in his guilt, and nobly stood by him till the last.—While it has all the touching pathos of the "Ticket-of-leave Man," it at the same time is brim full of the most extraordinary and soul stirring adventures by land and sea. The hero gets out of one difficulty into another with a rapidity which is wonderful, and which shows the most unexampled ingenuity on the part of the highly-gifted author, who holds his readers as if spell bound from the beginning to the close. Old romancers who have read the manuscript—men who have been familiar with story-reading and story-writing throughout their lives, have been so entranced with this truly wonderful story that they have found it impossible to lay it down till they have read to the very last line.

THE NEXT STORY IS ENTITLED

The Cuban Heiress;
OR,
OLD HEPSIBAH'S SECRET!

It is from the pen of our highly-gifted contributor,

Mrs. Mary Kyle Dallas,

and is, beyond question, the finest thing she has thus far written. It is full of love and mystery, and possesses a charm which cannot fail to fascinate all who may read it.

OUR TERMS.

THE N. Y. WEEKLY is sold by all News Agents in the U. S. The price is SIX CENTS, but where Agents have to pay extra freight a higher price is charged. U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

House and Land at Auction.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on the premises, On Saturday, the 1st Day of July next, at 12½ o'clock, M.,

The DWELLING-HOUSE and LOT situate on the corner of Meeting House Hill and Water Streets. The premises consist of a good two-story Dwelling House fronting 40 feet on Water Street and 36 feet on the Hill, with a Wood Shed. The Lot measures over 74 feet on Water Street, running back more than 60 feet, with plenty of room in the Eastern part of the lot upon which a good sized house might be erected.

A plan of the premises may be seen and terms and conditions ascertained on application to the undersigned. This sale offers an excellent opportunity to secure a comfortable homestead at a moderate cost, in a good neighborhood, and conveniently situated, especially for any one employed on the Navy Yard.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!
DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shins Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healthe and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsle and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rules in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader of course will see that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage, 300 pages and 125 plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The simple Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. TELLER'S Medical and Surgical Guide to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Michel's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. In the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P. M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long and extensive and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that for efficacy, shield he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of these cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain in Boston for treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted on all kind of diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United states.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stand higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the PHILOMACH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.
Boston, April 7, 1865. eod&wly

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
TO
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, peculiar to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Excrescences, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and Suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Shoulder, &c.
His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.
Office, No. 23 Endicott street.
Persons at a distance can consult DR. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and receive medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use Office arranged with separate apartments, so that atients see none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. Briscoe, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and nursey observed in case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 15, 1864. 1TaSly
DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with a kind nurse. Charges moderate.

The properties of this Company consist of 648 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek, that a failure to obtain oil cannot be seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are now ready at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that the properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may in case be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest men and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, conscious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Sewell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, of Pine St., Boston, and Edward S. Smith, of No. 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the Shaw of Pennsylvania, and to Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well known lawyer of Dover, N. H., and District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and two Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The land is the land beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable, for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele's or Bond well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 20 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.
It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is needed for coal, will yield a fine oil, below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.
The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to bore a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:
"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other lands I am acquainted with, and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MATZARD and SHEPARD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those adjoining in Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 15 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected to yield, the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. The Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions."

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Oil Belt of Cherry Creek enters. Farms have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 106 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey Blue 300, the Maple Shade and other near flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe one-eighth full of machinery, it has flowed 220 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther up, on the same Creek, the Company, Limited, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the pumping wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and very well fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some way removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $600 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 113 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly."
Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling their buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, equal in temperature, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in use now,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., — Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
John S. Ladd, — Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, — John Sise, — and others.

The Chronicle.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION of Congregational (trinitarian) Churches, held in Boston, closed its session last Saturday. Like their Unitarian brethren at New York, this convention was successful in its great attendance, lively debate, general interest, and raising money. The Boston Convention voted to raise $750,000 for Congregational purposes; $200,000 for Church Building,to be contributed next December.

Like the Unitarian conference, also, the Boston Convention did not make what one member called "a compulsory creed," but adopted a Report embodying a profession of faith by no means exact or definite as to many points of doctrine, though there were protests against it, and many did not vote for it finally.

The report, made standing on Plymouth Rock, and alluding to the Fathers there, begins by saying,

We, like them, acknowledging no rule of faith but the Word of God—do now declare our adherence to the faith and order of the apostolic and primitive churches, held by our fathers and substantially as embodied in the confessions and platforms which our synods of 1638 and 1680 set forth or reaffirmed.

The ministers of the present day, most of them, have only vague and general ideas of what these confessions and platforms teach and confess; and of the church members, only one in ten or twenty ever read them, or know anything about them.

The remainder of the Report, except a very few words, would receive a general and hearty amen from Methodists, Baptists, and Universalists. We copy one or two paragraphs:

We hold it to be a distinctive excellence of our Congregational system, that it exalts that which is more, above that which is less important, and by the simplicity of its organization facilitates, in communities where the population is limited, the union of all true believers in one Christian Church; and that the division of such communities into several weak and jealous societies, holding the same common faith, is a sin against the unity of the body of Christ, and at once the shame and scandal of Christendom.

We rejoice that, through the influence of our free system of apostolic order, we can hold fellowship with all who acknowledge Christ, and act efficiently in the work of restoring unity to the divided Church, and of bringing back harmony and peace among all "who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity."

Mild as the Report is, Rev. George Allen of Worcester presented in writing the following protest:

"Standing over the ashes of the Pilgrim Fathers, and on the summit of this hill consecrated to their memory, I solemnly protest against the adoption of the paper here and now presented, as being too sectarian for their catholic spirit, and too narrow to comprehend the breadth of their principles of religious freedom." The protest was ordered to be entered on the record.

As to Church Polity, on Saturday, Rev. Prof. Park of Andover, offered a resolution in effect that the local churches derive their authority directly from Christ and not from any human body; that mutual friendship and communion among the churches are enjoined; and the ministers are not ex officio clothed with any authority over the churches; and this was adopted.

By a vote of the Council, all the minutes relating to the protest of Rev. Mr. Burr were expunged from the records, so that 50 years hence it may not appear on record, that any dissent was expressed.

Mr. Burr in his protest had said:

"The Document passed upon was not that legitimately under the consideration of the Council—but that Document mutilated, deranged, CRAZED.

Gentlemen of the Council; shall the Hereafter say, as the Present already does, that the Declaration of 1865 was passed by a Pious Fraud?"

The Council shew themselves to be Congregational, and not Episcopal nor Presbyterian,—and to be Trinitarian or Arian, rather than Unitarian;—but except in the reference to the old documents, by no means strenuous for uniformity. They have not narrowed their platform at all, but have rather approached Dr. Bellows' favorite model of the Broad Church; and it is certain that christian liberality is gaining ground among them. This Convention has not pushed it back a single step. It must be considered a pleasant meeting to those most concerned in it, and on the whole beneficial to the progress of truth.

Blood's Patent Improved Sifter.
For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and all other articles requiring a sieve. A real FAMILY COMFORT, in the Kitchen; it is the right thing in the right place. No household would be without it after a single trial. Rapid. (It requires but one quarter the time of the old method.) Neat. (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted,—there is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers. Durable. (It is warranted to last ten years.)
Grocers use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste. Druggists pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it. It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.—For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place. Price $1.00. For sale by

The Best ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off portions, and to all parts of the world.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MERRIMACK AND AMOSKEAG OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. There is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder safely and you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted such a Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and keeps freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of the sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1865.

ASSASSINATION TRIAL. — The special Judge Advocate, Bingham, on Tuesday made his argument, containing these points:

The rebellion, in aid of which the conspiracy was formed and this great public crime committed, was prosecuted for the vindication of no right, for the redress of no wrong, but was itself simply a criminal conspiracy and gigantic assassination.

As the Court had already overruled the plea as to its jurisdiction, he would pass it over in silence, but for the fact that it had been gravely argued by the counsel for accused. Denying the authority of the President to constitute this Commission is an averment that this tribunal is not a Court of Justice, has no legal existence, and no power to hear and determine the issue joined.

In making this averment counsel should show how the President could otherwise discharge the duty enjoined upon him by his oath to protect, preserve and defend the Constitution, and take care that the laws be faithfully executed. As to the assertion that the civil courts are open in this district he answered that they are closed throughout half of the Republic, and were open in this district only by the force of the bayonet. Withdraw the military forces and would the rebel bands infesting the vicinity allow their confederates here to be tried in this or any other court. The conspirator who assassinated the President was not arrested by civil process, but was pursued by the military power, captured and slain. Was this an act of usurpation? Who in all this land is bold enough or base enough to assert it? If the President is justified in this act, what law condemns him for asserting in like manner and subjecting to trial according to military laws all other parties to this conspiracy?

The Judge Advocate then argued that the Court having been constituted by the President, it was not in their power as inferiors to disobey and declare the act a nullity and usurpation. Besides, the Supreme Court had decided that the acceptance of judicial office is a recognition of the authority from which it is derived. The proposition was absurd. Gentlemen might as well ask the Supreme Court to decide that the President had no authority to nominate and the Senate had no authority to confirm the Judges composing that Court.

The Judge Advocate proceeded at length in reply to the argument of counsel, citing precedents sustaining the action of the Government. He showed that all the proclamations the President issued during the rebellion for the suppression of the same, and among them the one providing for the trial of all rebels and insurgents, their aiders and abettors by Court Martial or Military Commission, were received by Congress; also that the Supreme Court had decided that so much of these proclamations as provided for these Court Martials or Military Commissions needed no ratification.

The Judge Advocate did not review the testimony.

☞ A Charleston correspondent says the effects of Jeff. Davis, recently captured in Florida, contained a dispatch from Beauregard to a member of the rebel Congress, inquiring whether the bill for the execution of the abolition prisoners—meaning the national soldiers—had yet become a law, and urging its speedy passage.

Union meetings are being held throughout South Carolina.

The rebel Secretary of the Treasury Trenholm has been imprisoned in Fort Pulaski.

The colored people of Columbia have held meetings and raised money to celebrate the 4th of July with a dinner to the national soldiers stationed there. [These are the same men who are to vote as their old masters tell them, are they?]

☞ At Norfolk, Va., on the night of the 22d, a riotious abuse of the negroes took place, after the New York pattern;—and some fight between the parties. Col. Howard sent 50 soldiers, and dispersed the rioters. On the 23d, there was a worse riot of the same kind; the police did nothing, and the military were not called upon. On the 24th there was an election, in which, through open abuse of all laws, the secession ticket was elected by 300 majority. Virginia don't seem very peaceful nor loyal.

— Some days ago Hon. Lazarus W. Powell, of the United States Senate, and a bitter rebel sympathizer, accosted a returned rebel soldier in Henderson, Ky., and asked him what induced him to go off in the rebel army. "You did," was the prompt and scathing reply: "Your harangue in the Court House over yonder sent me and hundreds of others into the rebel army to fight against the old flag!"

— In New York the alleged gigantic Oil Company swindle is under investigation. It is charged that A. D. Mann and Daniel Stratton, Jr., two officers of the U. S. Service Petroleum Company have defrauded different persons of large amounts of money.

— Rev. Gilbert Haven, of the Methodist E. Church, Boston, has been appointed to take charge of an important church in Vicksburg, Miss. He will leave immediately.

— Mr. Halliday, of Saugus, Mass., who was shot by his son some days ago, died on Tuesday morning at the Hospital in Boston.

— Pres. Johnson was not well enough to attend the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A fire in the picker room of J. D. & L. J. Colony's cotton mill at Munsonville, N. H., destroyed nearly $4000 worth of property the other day.

—— Eugene Saunders, aged seven years, son of George Saunders, Esq., of New Ipswich, N. H., was drowned at New Boston on Friday last. The father and mother were returning from a journey with this boy, and stopped at New Boston to bait the horse, &c. The little fellow while playing near the river probably lost his hat in the water, and in attempting to reach it fell in and was drowned. The body was found in about an hour.

—— The first prize for reading, at Harvard College the other day, was awarded to John Wesley Churchill, of Nashua, of the Senior class.

—— The following is announced as the Staff of His Excellency Frederick Smyth, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces of the State of New Hampshire: Col. Herbert B. Titus, Chesterfield, Chief of Staff; David A Warde, Concord; John E. Bickford, Dover; Kendall F. Worcester, Nashua; Charles G. Pickering, Portsmouth — Aides de-Camp. All to have the rank of Colonel.

—— Morris Horan and Mary Duffy, who keep saloons in Manchester, were arrested for selling liquor without a license in defiance of the U. S. Revenue laws. Horan was bound over in the sum of $1000 and Mary Duffy in the sum of $500 for their appearance at the U. S. Circuit Court.

—— The Salmon Falls Manuf. Co. held its annual meeting at Dover the 13th inst. Officers chosen: Directors, Geo. W. Lyman, Geo. T. Upham, J. M. Tredick, John A. Burnham, Amos Lawrence, W. G. Means; Treasurer, W. G. Means; President, Geo. W. Lyman; Clerk, Joshua Converse —Also Agent. The works at Salmon Falls were nearly destroyed by fire last summer, and have been only partially rebuilt, a new machine shop and cloth house having been erected.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONFERENCE SEMINARY AND FEMALE COLLEGE AT SANBORNTON BRIDGE.—At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, held June 22d, the following elections were made:

Hon. Thomas L. Tullock, President; Rev. Calvin Holman, 1st Vice Pres.; Benj. F. Holden, esq., 2d Vice Pres.; Addison Wyatt, esq., Secretary; Rev. Wm. D. Cass, Treasurer.

Wm. T. Cass, Wm. W. Freese, Hezekiah Bean, Addison Wyatt, Benj. F. Cass, esqs, Rev. Messrs. Wm. D. Cass and Calvin Holman, Executive Committee.

Rev. Dr. L. D. Barrows was unanimously elected President of the Institution, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of President Lumis.

Rev. Elisha Adams, Building Agent.

The Institution is beautifully located, and consists of an Academic building, built of brick, seventy-five by forty-five feet, three stories high, containing eleven rooms, suitable for lecture and recitation purposes, besides a spacious hall on the third floor, covering the whole area.

Forty-five feet west of the Seminary proper, a building has been erected and furnished for the accommodation of young ladies, as a boarding-house.

The foundation of another building has been laid, forty feet east of the main edifice, to be occupied by young gentlemen. The third story of this building is to contain two beautiful halls for the use of the two literary societies of the school, with ample accommodation for library and ante rooms.

The examination of the classes was thought very satisfactory, and the anniversary exercises on the 21st highly creditable to the graduating class, and all concerned.

NAVAL.—First Asst. Engineer Jas. P. Sprague and 2d Asst. Engineers Geo. E. Tower and Jos. A. Scott have been detached from the Galena and await orders.

Carpenter Jos. Cox has been detached from the Sabine and awaits orders.

Surgeon Saml. F. Cones has been detached from the Saranac and ordered home.

Lt. Com'r G. W. Young has been detached from the command of the Maratanza, and 2d Asst. Engineers W. H. Kilpatrick and R. S. Webb, and 3d Asst. Engineers G. A. Pfeltz and R. D. Taylor, from the same vessel, all to await orders.

Actg. Vol. Lieut. H. J. Coop has been ordered to the Vandalia.

Actg. Master Allen M. Newman, Actg. Ensigns A. W. Snow, G. W Beverly and John L. Vennard, and Actg. 3d Asst. Engineer Thos. Holt, have been detached from the Galena, and granted leave.

Actg. Asst. Surgeon Wm. H. Faxon has been detached from the Galena, and awaits orders.

Actg. 2d Asst. Engineer Saml. Tomlinson and Actg. 3d Asst. Engineers C. W. Williams, Thos. K. Payson and John D. Averill, have been detached from the Dawn and granted leave.

Actg. Masters D. E. Taylor and J. B. Wood, Jr., and Actg. Ensigns H. H. Collamer, Elias Lawson and J. W. Crowell, have been detached from the Maratanza and granted leave.

DANGEROUS WEAPONS.—Speaking of the 4th of July and its dangers,—the Boston Journal says "most of the pistols used by boys have only fixed ammunition, bullets included, and in the hands of even experienced and cautious persons there is danger in their use. In the cases of young men and boys who are not accustomed to handling firearms, there is no danger beyond all estimating." It therefore calls for the enforcement of the law against their use, and hopes that parents and others who have the power will do all they can to support the city authorities in hindering youths from expressing their patriotic joy in a manner not only unlawful, but life endangering to a serious extent.

— John Hebron, lately discharged from the navy, was set upon by two fellows of the name of Hanna, at Hebron, Conn., on Saturday, after riding about with them and spending his money during the day, beaten and robbed of $25. The Hannas thought they had murdered him, and discussed the manner of disposing of his body; but, having no tools to bury him with, they concealed Hebron in the woods, whence he was able to crawl, and was discovered. One of the would-be murderers has been arrested, and the other would undoubtedly be taken, as the people of a whole township were on his heels on Sunday.

☞ We have before us a curious work of art, viz. a finely engraved copy of President Lincoln's Proclamation of Emancipation, executed in such a way as to exhibit a good likeness of the President himself. A moment's examination shows the merits of the work, and it sells rapidly. By an advertisement in this day's paper, it will be seen that agents are wanted to sell the engraving.

— A negro named Sam'l Story killed another negro named Cornelius Elmore, in Russell, Mass., on Monday, for enticing away and living with his wife, and taunting him with the fact.

— The crops in the vicinity of Savannah all promise an abundance. The corn crop never was more favorable.

— The rebel Gen. Ewell has applied for a pardon.

— Cherries are retailing in Pennsylvania at 3 to 6 cents per quart.

— Eight million barrels of potatoes will be raised in Maine this year. [Perhaps.]

Everybody Should Read It!

WE MEAN THE

NEW YORK WEEKLY,

NOW READY, CONTAINING TWO

Charming, Exciting, Startling, Thrilling

ROMANCES!

THE FIRST, ENTITLED

OWEN, THE CONVICT:

or,

The Heart's Devotion!

is perhaps the

GREATEST ROMANCE OF MODERN TIMES, not excepting the most popular of Dumas' works. It is the story of a youth pushed into crime by the force of circumstances, and of a pure, devoted, whole-souled woman, who refused to believe in his guilt, and nobly stood by him till the last.—While it has all the touching pathos of the "Ticket-of-leave Man," it at the same time is brim full of the most extraordinary and most stirring adventures by land and sea. The hero gets out of one difficulty into another with a rapidity which is wonderful, and which shows the most unexampled ingenuity on the part of the highly-gifted author, who holds his readers as if spell bound from the beginning to the close. Old romancers who have read the manuscript—men who have been familiar with story-reading and story-writing throughout their lives, have been so entranced with this truly wonderful story that they have found it impossible to lay it down till they have read to the very last line.

THE NEXT STORY IS ENTITLED

The Cuban Heiress;

OR,

OLD HEPSIBAH'S SECRET!

It is from the pen of our highly-gifted contributor,

Mrs. Mary Kyle Dallas,

and is, beyond question, the finest thing she has thus far written. It is full of love and mystery, and possesses a charm which cannot fail to fascinate all who may read it.

OUR TERMS.

CAUTION FROM THE AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name

"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name

"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name

"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are variously inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others "P. S. BARTLETT," instead of P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

Agents for the American Watch Company.

REMARKABLE CURE OF STIFF KNEE BY ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—Below many persons, from stepping on a piece of orange peel, have been lamed for life. A case which might have been of this kind has just been brought to our notice. A gentleman, from putting the heel of his boot on a piece of orange peel, was suddenly thrown down, and violently sprained his knee. He was six months confined to the house, though he had the best medical advice. As a last resort a very eminent physician was called in to see if anything more could be done. After examination he said, "My opinion is, your knee will never be bent again." He recommended that the whole leg and knee should be encased in a plaster of Paris bandage, which would accelerate the permanent stiffening of the knee, and said, "the sooner it was done the better." But the patient, before trying this application and having a stiff knee for life, enveloped it in our Porous Plasters, and in less than two months his knee was perfectly cured.

Principal Depot, Brown's Dispensary House, New York. By the yard or single plaster. Sold by all Dealers in Medicines. je29dawlm

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the disease arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or six for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1586, New York City.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The N. H. Medical Society held their annual meeting in this city on Tuesday morning, at the Court House; Dr. Clough of Lebanon, President, in the chair. After the opening Address by the President, which was an appropriate, able and patriotic production, the organizing committees were appointed.

Dr. Pray, of Dover, from the committee on the practice of medicine, read an interesting report.

Dr. A. B. Crosby read a very able oration, chiefly on the relation of pain to disease, and its dependence on mental condition.

The report of delegates to Dartmouth Medical College was read.

Several new members, to the number perhaps of half a dozen, were elected. Dr. McIntire, of Concord, after some discussion, was rejected.

The election of officers then took place. Dr. Wm. D. Buck, of Manchester, President; Dr. Tenney, of Loudon, Vice Pres.

The Society then adjourned for dinner, which was served at the new Temple Hall, by Messrs. Hadley & Co., of the Rockingham House; and as usual with them, was of prime quality and abundant in supply. The flat Temple is a fine dining hall; and with the reporters especially, and no doubt many others, the rich viands were not the less palatable, from the absence of all other "feast" and "flow"—Rev. Dr. Burroughs' invocation being the only public words spoken at the richly-filled and well-served table.

At 4 o'clock, the gentlemen of the Society, by invitation of the City Government, made a trip down river and a short distance outside, in the steamer Pioneer; a number of prominent citizens and officers of the Yard making up a very agreeable party—who highly enjoyed a sail of a couple of hours, on that lovely afternoon. A collation was served on board the boat, at which Mayor Bailey did the honors in good style. On the return to the lower harbor, the Pioneer was run alongside the iron clad Agamenticus, and made fast for a while, giving the party a fine chance to examine a double-turret vessel, mounting in each two monster 15-inch guns.

Coming up river, by invitation of Com. Bailey, who was on board the Pioneer, a stop was made at the Navy Yard, where the party was received by Capt. Murray, and courteously shown about the Yard by these officers, Eng'r Bartleman and others.

An evening session of the Society was held at the Court House; and after a brief meeting next morning, the Society adjourned. The attendance was quite full, much larger than for several years past, and the services generally very interesting. The next meeting will be at Hanover.

THE HORSE TROT.—That match against time which we spoke of yesterday, (a horse to travel from Boston to Portland from sun to sun, from 4:25 to 7:40,) caused a good deal of interest to centre in this city, about noon on Wednesday. Mr. Sherburne Somerby of this city, with the owner and backer of the horse, (provided with an accurate time-watch from Bigelow Bros. & Kennard, Boston,) drove in a top-buggy in advance of the trotter, which was hitched to a 70lb sulkey. Telegraphic dispatches were received frequently in this city, as the offices at Salem, Ipswich, Newburyport, &c., were successively passed—and shew good progress and that all was well.

Just before eleven o'clock, quite a "train" of carriages drove out from this city, to meet "the conquering hero come;", while crowds of ladies and gentlemen collected in the streets to witness the grand entrance. The lion of the day or the race, proved to be a black gelding, called "Lion," a clean made, good-looking, bony horse, apparently standing about 16 hands high, and weighing over 1000 lbs. He did not appear greatly fatigued, though he had made his strong sixty miles in 6 hours 15 minutes,—arriving here at 20 minutes to 11 o'clock. He was driven by Mr. Frank Briggs. "Lion" was formerly owned by Mr. Sager of Portland, and is about ten years old. Mr. Somerby informed us that they kept along their even ten miles the hour, until they met their friends at Hampton coming out from this city, when the dust caused them to slack up somewhat. Mr. Somerby changed horses twice on the way, having thus three teams. After resting horse here an hour or two, Mr. S. took his fourth team, about 1 o'clock, and started again to pilot "Lion" as far as Saco, where an owner of the lion was to come from Portland to take him in—and where we thought the veteran "whip" would be as glad to rest after his 100 mile ride or so, as he was when years ago, he threw away the last cigar at the old stage-tavern here, of the great bunch which he and old Sam Robinson continuously smoked on the stage-box from Boston down.

Besides the two teams named, there was another which came in company; Mr. Charles Kimball of Boston, with a Mr. Berry, drove the sorrel mare "Wilton Maid" through to this city, close up with Lion all the way, and that in a common open road buggy of 275 lbs. weight or so. She is a light horse, about 850 lbs, and was considerably distressed when she arrived, and refused her feed for hours, but half recovered pretty well in the evening, from her severe task. Her drivers took another team down, from here, and were to change again at Saco.

There were the usual stories, rumors, and wise prognostications respecting this important matter; but the best judges were of the opinion that the lion hearted black horse would accomplish his great feat without material damage to himself.

A dispatch from Saco reported the arrival there at 4:40, all right; and no doubt the 15 miles thence to Portland were easily made in considerably less than the two hours remaining, after a halt.

P. S.—A telegraphic dispatch from Portland says the feat was accomplished at 7:15, leaving nearly half an hour spare time.—This was the latest and apparently most authentic report, and was said to have been received at the depot telegraph station; and certainly it was what accorded with both the universal public desire and the general belief. But earlier in the evening, reports of despatches received at the same office,—said to be sent from Saco, by a joke-loving fellow of this city, who drove down with him from here—that the poor animal died 5 miles this side Portland—caused much excitement, discussion and unbelief. Still it it by no means an improbable result of any such terrible trial.

☞ Don't forget the winding up of the Soldiers' Aid Society Festival, at the Temple to night. Fine music, beautiful tableaux, &c.; and besides a grand time, remember that all the proceeds go to the sick soldiers.

☞ The High School Cadets were out yesterday on their own responsibility—the first time we have seen them on street drill and parade, in exclusive charge of their own officers. We like the idea of this Boy's Company, and wish the girls could have one too. These lads seem to comprise about all the military spirit there is in the city, and they manœuvre well, and make a fine appearance in their new gray uniform. They ought to have the nice little juvenile muskets which come for such use.

The Cadets also marched to Fort Constitution on Tuesday, under direction of their teachers—of which we shall say a word tomorrow.

POLICE COURT, June 28.—James Bible, who should have more regard for his name than to allow himself to so conduct as to cause it to appear in the public print in such a connexion,—for fast driving,—was allowed to adjust the matter by disbursing $5 fine and $3.86 more to liquidate incidental charges which necessarily accrue from an introduction to policemen and lawyers. Poor James! your troubles did not close here, however; it was discovered that he was a deserter from the Navy, and so that little thing had to be arranged before Mr. Bible could "jog along."

The Dow family seem to have more than their share of trouble. Last week we announced the fact of Mr. John Dow's attempt to create a sensation among the orators of the present time, by a show of his own powers in that direction backed by heavy rations of liquor, and got locked up; and now Martha his wife, is arraigned for drunkenness, and showed herself to be literally the "better half," by promptly paying her fine, $3, and the costs, amounting to $3.86; while the husband lies sweating out his expenses in the county prison. It is a sad picture, though, that of a pair over whose heads nearly three score and ten winters have flown, passing down the declivity of life each with a rum bottle in hand, corrupting their bodies and souls, and entering the other world as hideously deformed spirits to reap the fruits of their transgressions.

☞ By actual measurement, the large ash tree in State street, which was blown down by the recent tornado, was found to be 90 feet in length.

CHOICE TABLE BUTTER, at Portland, was quoted on Wednesday as bringing better prices, at wholesale, viz: 20 to 25c,—and store butter 16 to 18c. Can any one tell us why it should be higher in Portsmouth and Concord than in Portland? Ditto of milk, which is 8c here, and as low as 5 in some places?

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 Endicott Street, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of the Author, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to effect the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Persons who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has for sale the best French Capotles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charge Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than Dr. Dederick. Dr DOW, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, that he has had the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow has now and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements to persons who wish to invest in Oil Lands, and for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells, and it is confidently expected that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond doubt in the category of the Oil Companies, and in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior to it, and which offer larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have made their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past years in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen promoters in starting this company as a man strictly honest, experienced, and educated in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Mar. Hon. W. P. Newell, Hon. Daniel J. McNeill, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Court St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, of 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Belt runs across the Southwest between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the last year to the Farms of Tarrant, as Gen. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Bolton and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had come to. Four farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The Hay is the finest and beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The great Oil Belt is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have been made. Here the Steele & Maud well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 50 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judge that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is needed to be done is to bore wells to flow like Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a source of wealth. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the wells, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $50 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I have met with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors Maynard and Shepherd, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion, regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Silliman, of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if at good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 15 wells, and on this farm for over 1000 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as those south of Titusville only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Cherry Creek empties into Oil Creek. Two have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 300, the Maple Leaf and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right side. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe connected with tanks on the property, it has flowed 200 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another Jersey has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther south, on the same creek, Dudley Stone is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In eight rods of ground there will be between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod is a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but there will be as many flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $20,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now making one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that oil will be struck on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they see fit, to make the Farm a fortune.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly come into the room, and by shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal; producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off into the oven, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat concentrated, into the chimney, the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

A TIMELY JEU D'ESPRIT.—The following is popular in the army, and will be recognized by many of the returning veterans:

"Died, near the Southside railroad, on Sunday, April 9, 1865, the Southern Confederacy, aged 4 years. Conceived in sin, born in iniquity, nurtured by tyranny, died of a chronic attack of Punch. U. S. Grant, attending physician; Abraham Lincoln, undertaker; Jeff. Davis, chief mourner."

EPITAPH.

"Gentle stranger, drop a tear,
The C. S. A. lies buried here;
In youth it lived and prospered well,
But like Lucifer it fell;
Its body here, its soul in —— well,
Even if I knew I wouldn't tell.
Rest C. S. A., from every strife,
Your death is better than your life:
And this one blue small grace your grave—
Your death gave freedom to the slave."

—The apple crop in Western New York will be enormous. The probability is that a larger quantity will be shipped for market from that section than ever before. And this implies a great deal, when the extent of the yield heretofore is considered. Last year there were stations on the Central Railroad from which over two hundred thousand barrels were shipped.

—Geo. Randles, a citizen of Conemaugh township, Indiana county, died on the 11th inst., at the age of 102 years. For the last seven years was confined to his bed. Lucinda Petty died at Patchogue, Long Island, on the 18th inst., at the age of 104 years. Up to a short time before her decease she retained possession of all her faculties.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's dispatch says the Freedmen's Bureau have set apart a large quantity of confiscated and abandoned land in the South for the benefit of the negroes. 100,000 negroes are now subsisting on government rations. A great demand for labor exists in Maryland.

—Some villains who wanted to have revenge on Landlord Hill of the Mason House, Northampton, for his temperance principles and actions, girdled and ruined 115 trees belonging to him a few nights since.

—The Worcester Spy of Monday says: "The local topic most generally discussed on Saturday was the failure of Charles Washburn & Son of Quinsigamond wire works, for a heavy amount."

—The Freedmen's Bureau orders that in Georgia colored laborers shall receive the following wages: Field hands, males $7 a month, females $6; house servants, males $6 to $10 a month, females $5 to $8.

—The boss bricklayers of New York and Brooklyn, who claim that their business is dull and labor abundant, have resolved that on and after Monday next the wages of journeymen shall be $3 per day, and not $3.50 as at present.

—By an accident on the Washington railroad Monday, Rev. Mr. Austin of Laurel, Md., was killed, and five persons were more or less injured.

The Best ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have used large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color on a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without it. Remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 10, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am astonished at it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and it is a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge, and I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1865.

☞ Speaking of large incomes, the Newburyport Herald "wishes to call attention to one fact, that most of the large incomes reported in different districts of the State are the earnings of manufacturers. The wealth of New England now more than ever comes from its manufactures; and those towns that decline to enter into manufactures must be and will be poor. Newburyport can go on with the rest, and have growth and prosperity,—or she can refuse and stay behind. To-day we are dependent upon the few manufactures we have; but if a million dollars more could have been invested in the same way five years ago, the city would now have had three millions more of taxable property and five thousand more inhabitants." No doubt of this, notwithstanding the failure of many branches of manufactures to "pay" directly.

☞ The Troy Times has the following information in regard to Jeff. Davis' casemate life at Fortress Monroe, from a returned soldier who, until Monday of last week, was in attendance upon the rebel President: He says that already Davis' hair has changed from sprinkled gray to almost a pure white — that he gives every evidence of rapid physical decline — that he does not believe he will live to take his trial, unless it should take place at an early day. On Sunday of last week he was manacled both hands and feet, having struck an attendant again—the offence for which he was previously manacled for a time. He is exceedingly querulous and arrogant. His food is cut up in morsels before it is passed to him, and he is permitted at his meals to use nothing but a wooden spoon, as it is supposed that he might use metal table articles to promote self-destruction.

☞ Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, has, it is said, hit upon a plan by which twice the amount of gold and silver ore can be extracted from the usual quartz. Instead of crushing the rock, he proposes to dissolve it with powerful elements." We don't know how much of a pile of "rocks" Dr. Ayer may get out of this—though he has been pretty successful in piling up wealth; but there is one subject upon which he can shed some light for common people, and that is, the advantage "selling agents" have been to the Lowell, Lawrence and other corporations.

☞ A Washington item says:—

The President is still too much indisposed to see visitors. The rush of people from all parts of the country recently has been so great that his naturally robust constitution cannot endure it. Many persons visit the Executive upon the most trifling matters, thereby occupying his time and impairing his health. In accordance with his Democratic ideas he has been kindly disposed to give them all a hearing.

Democratic ideas are very well in their place, but they may be run into the ground; and if not kept within due limits, they may run the President also into the ground.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—The American Publishing Co. of Hartford, Conn., have just issued their fine volume of 500 pages, entitled, The Secret Service, "The Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape: by Albert D. Richardson, Tribune Correspondent." It is a work of great value and intense interest. We shall refer to it again.

From Hon. Daniel Clark we have a copy of his Eulogy on President Lincoln, before the City Government of Manchester, June 1,—worthy of the subject, and honorable to the author.

"The Man without a Country."—This remarkable narrative, upon its original publication in the pages of the Atlantic Monthly, attracted more general attention and comment than any article printed for a long time. It is now republished in separate form, by general desire, and at a price (ten cents per copy) which will give it universal circulation at this period. Published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

SINGULAR FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—The following curious freak of lightning, and a remarkable coincidence, we learn, happened lately in the town of Hill. The house of a Mr. Sargent was struck by lightning, and, together with barns adjoining, were completely consumed. Just previously a flash had gone down the chimney, and had knocked over one of the daughters of Mr. Sargent, in the room connected with it. At the same hour, another flash had gone down the chimney in a house in the adjoining town, where Mr. Sargent and wife were paying a visit, and knocked them down, doing no injury we understand, to any other person. This must certainly be reckoned as one of the remarkable coincidences. The loss of Mr. Sawyer was nearly $3000, of which less than a third was covered by insurance.

— Kirby Smith is considered, as a General, to be the Alpha and Omega of rebel effort. He surrendered Fort Doneison—the first one taken by our troops—and was the last rebel General to capitulate to Gen. Grant.

NAVY YARD MATTERS. — Mr. Editor: Hearing some complaint among the Mechanics and Laborers at the Yard, that their wages had been reduced, and feeling interested in their behalf, I made some enquires here and elsewhere in relation to it, and find that, while the pay of Mechanics and Laborers in the other Government yards remain the same, at this yard it has recently been reduced fifty cents per day on most first class Mechanics, and a corresponding reduction on all the classes.

I exceedingly regret that the Officers having this matter in charge, should deem it advisable to reduce the wages at this yard when not reduced in any other. It is truly humiliating to our best men, and they feel it keenly—to rate them, in regard to wages, with the 3d and 4th classes at the Charlestown yard, when they have the praise (and richly merit it,) of being the best mechanics in New England.
